7 Formal and informal words

Word formation
8 Suffixes (e.g. actor, permission, modernise)
9 Prefixes (e.g. over-worked, exhale)
10 Roots (e.g. impress, pressure, expression)
11 Abstract nouns (e.g. faith, hope and love)
12 Compound adjectives (e.g. well-dressed, time-consuming)
13 Compound nouns – combinations of two nouns (e.g. baby-sitter, youth hostel)
14 Compound nouns – combinations of verb + preposition (e.g. drawback, input)
15 Words with interesting origins – people and places (e.g. hooligan, denim)
16 Words with interesting origins – from other languages (e.g. bistro, rucksack)
17 Onomatopoeic words – words that sound like their meaning (e.g. grumble, smash)
18 Words commonly mispronounced (e.g. worry, cough)
19 Homonyms – words pronounced and/or spelt the same (e.g. row, row; bow, bough)

Connecting and linking 20 Time (e.g. as soon as, while, afterwards)
21 Condition (e.g. unless, provided that)
22 Cause, reason, purpose and result (e.g. owing to, with the aim of, as a result)
23 Concession and contrast (e.g. although, on the other hand)
24 Addition (e.g. in addition, furthermore, besides)
25 Text-referring words (e.g. issue, problem)

Countables and uncountables
26 Uncountable words (e.g. information, advice)
27 Words that only occur in the plural (e.g. scissors)
28 Countable and uncountable with different meanings (e.g. paper and a paper)
29 Collective nouns (e.g. a flock of sheep)
30 Making uncountable words countable (e.g. a loaf of bread)

We are particularly grateful to Jeanne McCarten and Geraldine Mark at Cambridge University Press who provided us with so much clear-sighted help and creative guidance at all stages during the writing of this book. We should also like to thank Stuart Redman for his thorough and invaluable report on the initial manuscript. We are grateful to students and staff at various institutions who assisted in piloting the materials: Jon Butt and Elaine Smith, International House, London; Nick Kenny, International Language Academy, Cambridge; Brigitte Marrec, Université Paris X, France; Suzanne Pilot, Lycée Blaise Pascal, Longuenesse, France; Tony Robinson, Eurocentre, Cambridge; Ian Scott, Centre for English Language Education, University of Nottingham; Karen Thompson, International House, Toulouse, France; Clare West, English Language Centre, Hove. Lastly, we thank Nóirín Burke at CUP who took over the management of the manuscript in its final stages.

The authors and publishers would like to thank the following for permission to reproduce copyright material in English Vocabulary in Use. While every effort has been made, it has not been possible to identify the sources of all the material used and in such cases the publishers would welcome information from the copyright holders.

Using this book

Why was this book written?

It was written to help you to improve your English vocabulary. It will help you to learn not only the meanings of words but also how they are used. You can use this book either with a teacher or for self-study.

How is the book organised?

The book has 100 two-page units. In most units, the left-hand page explains the words and expressions to be studied in that unit. Where appropriate, it gives information about how the words are used as well as their meaning. The right-hand page checks that you have understood the information on the left-hand page by giving you a series of exercises practising what you have just learnt. Occasionally the right-hand page will also teach you some more new words.

There is a key at the back of the book. The key does not always simply give you one right answer. It sometimes also comments on the answers and will help you learn more about the words studied in the unit.

There is an index at the back of the book. This lists all the words and phrases covered in the book and refers you to the units where these words or phrases are discussed. The index also tells you how difficult and unusual words are pronounced. It uses the International Phonetic Alphabet to do this and the symbols you need to know are listed at the beginning of the index.

How should I use this book?

The book is divided into a number of sections. Complete the seven introductory units first. These units not only teach you some useful new vocabulary but they also help you with useful techniques for vocabulary learning in general. After completing those units, you might want to work straight through the book or you might prefer to do the units in any order that suits you.

What else do I need in order to work with this book?

You need some kind of vocabulary notebook or file where you can write down the new words you are learning. (See Unit 3 for advice on how to do this.)

You also need to have access to a couple of good dictionaries. This book selects the words that are most important for you to learn at your level and it gives you the most important information about those words but you will sometimes need to refer to a dictionary as well for extra information about meaning and usage. Firstly, you need an English-English dictionary for foreign learners. Good ones are The Cambridge International Dictionary of English, the Longman Dictionary of Contemporary English, the Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary and the Collins Cobuild English Language Dictionary, for example. Secondly, you will also find a good bilingual dictionary useful. Ask a teacher to recommend a good bilingual dictionary for you. (See Unit 5 for advice on using your dictionaries.)
Learning vocabulary – general advice

A What do you need to learn?

1 How many words are there in English? At least:
   a) 10,000  b) 100,000  c) 250,000  d) 500,000

2 Winston Churchill was famous for his particularly large vocabulary. How many words did he use in his writing?
   a) 10,000  b) 60,000  c) 100,000  d) 120,000

3 How many words does the average native English speaker use in his/her everyday speech?
   a) 2,500  b) 5,000  c) 7,500  d) 10,000

4 How many words make up 45% of everything written in English?
   a) 50  b) 250  c) 1,000  d) 2,500

To sum up, there are many words you don’t need at all and there are other words that you simply need to understand when you read or hear them. Finally, there are words which you need to be able to use yourself. Clearly you need to spend most time learning this last group.

In the text below mark the words you’d like to be able to use.

English vocabulary has a remarkable range, flexibility and adaptability. Thanks to the periods of contact with foreign languages and its readiness to coin new words out of old elements, English seems to have far more words in its core vocabulary than other languages. For example, alongside kingly (from Anglo-Saxon) we find royal (from French) and regal (from Latin). There are many such sets of words which add greatly to our opportunities to express subtle shades of meaning at various levels of style.

You probably marked many words that you would like to be able to use. Unless you are studying linguistics, however, you probably need only to understand, rather than to use, the verb ‘coin’ as used in the context above.

What does knowing a new word mean?

• It is not enough just to know the meaning of a word. You also need to know:
  a) what words it is usually associated with
  b) whether it has any particular grammatical characteristics
  c) how it is pronounced

• Try to learn new words not in isolation but in phrases.

• Write down adjectives together with nouns they are often associated with and vice versa, e.g. royal family; rich vocabulary.

• Write down verbs with the structure and nouns associated with them, e.g. to add to our knowledge of the subject; to express an opinion.

• Write down nouns in phrases, e.g. in contact with; a train set; shades of opinion.

• Write down words with their prepositions, e.g. at a high level; thanks to your help.

• Note any grammatical characteristics of the words you are studying. For example, note when a verb is irregular and when a noun is uncountable or is only used in the plural.

• Make a note of any special pronunciation problems with the words you’re learning.
1 How could you record the following?
   a) chilly  b) dissuade  c) king  d) up to the ears  e) independent  f) get married 2 What would you record beside the following words?
   a) scissors  b) weather  c) teach  d) advice  e) lose  f) trousers 3 What might you note beside the following words?
   a) comb  b) catastrophe  c) photograph/photographer

Can you learn just by reading or listening to English?

You will certainly help yourself to learn English vocabulary not only by studying with this book but also by reading and listening to English. Give each of the items on the lists below a mark from 0 to 4 describing how important this way of learning vocabulary could be for you personally. Example: newspapers 3

- newspapers
- TV (cable / subtitled)
- cinema
- magazines
- video
- radio (e.g. BBC World Service)
- academic or professional literature
- fiction
- simplified readers (with or without cassettes)
- music or other cassettes
- talking to native speakers

What should you do when you come across new words?

When you are reading something in English, don’t look up every new word or expression or you will soon get fed up. Only look up something that is really important for understanding the text. When you have finished reading, look back at what you have read and then perhaps look up some extra words and write down new expressions that interest you.

Similarly when you listen to English don’t panic when you hear some words or expressions that you don’t know. Keep listening and the overall meaning will often become clear.

When you read or listen to English it is sometimes possible to guess the meaning of a word you don’t know before you look up or ask its meaning. Decide first what part of speech the word is and then look for clues in its context or form.

Before you read the text below, check whether you know what the underlined words mean.

A tortoise is a shelled reptile famed for its slowness and longevity. The Giant Tortoise of the Galapagos may attain over 1.5 metres in length and have a lifespan of more than 150 years. Smaller tortoises from Southern Europe and North Africa make popular pets. They need to be tended carefully in cool climates and must have a warm place in which they can hibernate.

Which of the marked words can you perhaps guess from the context or from the way the word is formed? Guess and then check whether you were correct by using a dictionary. Some words are impossible to guess from context or the structure of the word. In such cases, ask someone or go to a dictionary for help.

How are you going to plan your vocabulary learning?

1 How many words and expressions do you intend to learn each week?
   a) 5   b) 10   c) 15   d) more than 15
2 Where and when are you going to learn them?
   a) on your way to school or work   b) before dinner   c) in bed   d) other 3 How often are you going to revise your work?
   a) once a week   b) once a month   c) before a test   d) once a year
2 Learning vocabulary – aids to learning

A Help yourself to learn by learning associated words together

Learn words with associated meanings together.

Learning words together that are associated in meaning is a popular and useful way of organising your vocabulary study.

1 Complete this network for the word CAT. Add as many other bubbles as you like.

If possible, compare your network with those done by other students. Add any of their ideas that you like to your network.

Learn words with a grammatical association together.

2 Here are some groups of words, each of which has a grammatical connection. Can you see what the connection is? What other words could you add to these groups?

a) child tooth ox
b) cut split burst
c) information furniture food

Learn together words based on the same root.

3 Can you add any words or expressions to these two groups?

a) price priceless overpriced
b) handy single-handed give me a hand

B Pictures and diagrams can help you learn

Here are some ways in which pictures might help you to remember vocabulary.

Can you draw any pictures that would help you remember the following vocabulary?

a) circle to look a gift horse in the mouth screwdriver
Word trees can be useful.
1 Look at the word tree for holiday. Now complete a tree for school.

Word forks are good ways of learning adjectives and verbs.
2 Look at the complete word forks below. Finish the others.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>original</th>
<th>brilliant</th>
<th>unusual</th>
<th>great</th>
<th>excellent</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>shoot</td>
<td>edit</td>
<td>idea</td>
<td>direct</td>
<td>review</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>magnificent</td>
<td>breathtaking</td>
<td>superb</td>
<td>view</td>
<td>kick</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>shoot</td>
<td>edit</td>
<td>idea</td>
<td>direct</td>
<td>review</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>magnificent</td>
<td>breathtaking</td>
<td>superb</td>
<td>view</td>
<td>kick</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Matrices can also clarify collocations.
This book will sometimes use matrices to help to clarify word associations. Look at the following example of a matrix:

<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>a car</th>
<th>a motorbike</th>
<th>a train</th>
<th>a horse</th>
<th>a plane</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>to fly</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>+</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to drive</td>
<td>+</td>
<td>+</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to ride</td>
<td>+</td>
<td></td>
<td>+</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3 Now complete the following sentences.
a) She has always wanted to have the chance to ......................... a train.
b) Russian women are not allowed to ......................... passenger aircraft.
c) ......................... a motorbike can be very dangerous.

You will do more practice with these and other ways of writing down vocabulary in Unit 3.
Organising a vocabulary notebook

There is no one correct way to organise a vocabulary notebook, but it is a good idea to think about possible ways of doing so. Here are some possibilities and examples.

Organising words by meaning

This book divides vocabulary into a large number of different topics, probably far too many for a notebook, but you could try dividing your book into different broad sections, with sections for words for feelings, words to describe places, words for movement, words for thinking, etc. In this way you can build families of words related in meaning.

Using various types of diagrams

Words that can be grouped under a heading or a more general word can be drawn as a tree-diagram. (See also Unit 2.)

living room
| |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
sofa  bookcase  lamp  wardrobe  stool  dresser

The dotted lines mean that you can add more words to the tree as you meet them.

A bubble-network is also useful, since you can make it grow in whatever direction you want it to. (See Unit 2.)

Organising by word-class

A Spanish learner of English, Angeles, gave us an interview on how she marks word-class in her personal notebook. This is what she said:

"What I have just started doing is to write them depending on if they are verbs or nouns or adjectives or phrases. If they are phrases I write them in red and also the definition. If they are verbs, in black, and blue if they are nouns... And if I write the Spanish translation I write it in another colour, so it's easy to see... I draw some pictures too."

When you meet a synonym or an antonym of a word you already have in your book, enter it next to that word with a few notes:

urban ≠ rural  stop = cease (more formal)
Exercises

3.1 Here is a list of words a Spanish learner of English has made in her vocabulary notebook. How could she improve them and organise them better?

clock - reloj tell the time - decir la hora rush - tarde prisa office - despacho beneath } der
I must rush - tengo prisa/tengo que correr drowsy - the room was hot and I got drowsy wristwatch - reloj de pulsera
What time do you make it?
next to - junto a/al lado de day - the minute-hand (minutero) wide-awake (fully awake)

3.2 Here is a word-map, a variation on the bubble-network. What word do you think should go in the middle of the diagram?

3.3 One learner we interviewed said he tested himself regularly with his notebook, covering up the word and trying to guess it from the translation he had written or from any other notes he had made. This was his system:

1. If the notes and/or translation were clear but he could not get the word, he made a small red mark in the margin. If any word got three red marks, then it needed extra attention and a special effort to learn it.

2. If the notes and/or translation could not help him guess what the word might be, then the word got a blue mark. A blue mark meant ‘Write more information about this word!’

What is your testing system? Try to make one if you have not got one, or ask other people what they do. Try your system out and decide whether it needs improving.

3.4 Making tables for word-classes is a good idea, since you can fill in the gaps over time. What do you think this learner will put in the remaining gaps in the table?

<thead>
<tr>
<th>noun</th>
<th>verb</th>
<th>adjective</th>
<th>person</th>

The names of English language words

A The names of basic parts of speech in English

- article adjective noun verb adverb preposition conjunction pronoun gerund

B Words relating to nouns

Look at the sentence An artist loves beauty; artist is countable, i.e. it has a plural form (artists), but beauty is uncountable; artist is the subject of the verb as it describes who does the verb; beauty is the object, i.e. what is affected by the verb.

C Words relating to verbs

- infinitive (to go) -ing form (going) past participle (gone)

Go (go, gone, went) is an irregular verb whereas live (live, lived, lived) is regular. Go is also intransitive because it does not need an object, e.g. Has Luis gone? Make is transitive because it is followed by an object – you make something.

D Words relating to the construction of words

In the word, irregularity, ir- is a prefix, regular is a root and -ity is a suffix. Fat is the opposite or antonym of thin and plump is a synonym of fat. A word family is a set of words based on one root, e.g. word,wordy, to reword. A phrase does not include a main verb – ‘in a word’ is an example of a phrase. A sentence has a main verb; it begins with a capital letter and ends with a full stop.

E Words relating to pronunciation

A syllable is the minimum sound unit of a language consisting of one vowel and any consonants on either side. There are three syllables in the word ‘minimum’ (the first is mi, the second is ni and the third is mum) and the stress is on the first syllable. Onomatopoeia means forming words that sound like their meaning, e.g. moo, buzz.

F Words and their associations

Register means a style of speaking or writing appropriate to a particular social situation. Thus, slang is an extremely informal register and is only used by people who know each other very well. Colloquial is an adjective referring to language that is suitable mainly for conversation, e.g. He’s a nice guy. Pejorative describes words which have a negative association. Pig-headed is pejorative whereas determined, which is very close in meaning, is not. Collocation refers to words which frequently occur together, e.g. torrential rain, auburn hair.

G Words describing punctuation

. full stop , comma ; semi-colon ' apostrophe - hyphen – dash ! exclamation mark ? question mark ( ) brackets “ ” inverted commas ANNE block capitals
Exercises

4.1 Look at the paragraph about register in F opposite. Find at least three examples of each of the following:
1 nouns ...........................................................
2 verbs ...........................................................
3 adjectives ......................................................
4 adverbs .........................................................
5 prepositions ...................................................

4.2 Considering the words in their context in F opposite, mark the nouns you’ve written in 4.1 with a C (countable) or UC (uncountable). Mark the verbs R (regular) or IR (irregular) and T (transitive) or IT intransitive.

4.3 Complete the following table.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>infinitive</th>
<th>-ing form</th>
<th>past participle</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>define</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mean</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>write</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4.4 Think about the word informal.
1 What is its root, its prefix and its suffix?
2 What is its opposite or antonym?
3 Has it got any synonyms?
4 What words are included in its word family?
5 Use it in (a) a phrase and (b) a sentence.

4.5 Look at all the words in bold in sections E, F and G opposite. In each case mark which syllable is stressed.

4.6 Match the following colloquial words with their more formal equivalents below.
1 chat (verb)  2 loo  3 chap  4 put up with  5 fiddle (noun) man  violin  lavatory  converse  tolerate

4.7 The following pairs of words are close in meaning but one word in each case is pejorative. Which?
1 terrorist / freedom-fighter  3 fluent / wordy  5 cunning / shrewd
2 slim / skinny  4 mean / thrifty  6 generous / extravagant

4.8 Give examples of collocations based on the words noun, word and colloquial.
Example: uncountable noun

( ) ........................................ ? ..................................... ’ .....................................
; ........................................ – ..................................... “ ” .....................................

English Vocabulary in Use
5 Using your dictionary

Good dictionaries can tell you a lot more about a word than just its meaning, including (among other things):

- Synonyms and their differences, e.g. mislay and lose
- Antonyms (opposites), e.g. friend ≠ enemy/foe
- Collocations (how words go together), e.g. auburn combines only with hair (or connected words, e.g. curls)
- Pronunciation: this will mean learning some symbols which are different from the letters of the English alphabet.

Most other symbols look just like ordinary letters of the English alphabet and their pronunciation is not so hard to guess. But check the table given in the index.

- Word stress: often shown by a mark before the syllable to be stressed or by underlining, e.g. /d'ventʃəl/, /weɪz ˈtæn/. Make sure you know how your dictionary marks stress.
- Usage: how a word is used and any special grammatical pattern that goes with it, e.g. suggest + clause (not an infinitive) – I suggest you ring her right away.
- Whether a word is used for people and/or things. For example, look at this entry for malignant:

  mal-*ign-nant /ˌmælɪgnənt/ adj 1 (of people or their actions) feeling or showing great desire to harm others; malevolent: a malignant slander, attack, thrust. 2 (a) (of a tumour) growing uncontrollably, and likely to prove fatal: The growth is not malignant. (b) (of diseases) harmful to life. 3 [U] state of being malignant. 2 [C] malignant tumour. 3 adv.

- Word-class (usually abbreviations n: noun, adj: adjective, etc.), whether a noun is countable or uncountable, and whether a verb is normally transitive (needs an object) or intransitive (doesn’t need an object).

Don’t forget that most words have more than one meaning. In this example, only the second meaning corresponds to the way hairy is used in this sentence:

It was a really hairy journey on the mountain road.

hairy /ˈheərɪ/ adj. Someone or something that is hairy is covered with hair. Eg... a plump child with hairy legs... a big, hairy man...
The function of a mammal’s hairy coat is to insulate the body.

2 If you describe a situation as hairy, you mean that it is exciting, worrying, and rather frightening; nerve-racking, scary.

It got a little hairy when we drove him to the station with less than two minutes to spare.
Exercises

5.1 With a bilingual dictionary, try a double search: look up a word in your language; the dictionary may give several possibilities in English. Look up each of those possibilities in the English section of the dictionary to see how they translate back into your language. This may help you to separate synonyms.

If you own a dictionary, make a little mark in the margin each time you look up a word up. If a word gets three or more marks, it is worth an extra effort to learn it. What other learning techniques are there for dictionaries?

5.2 Small, bilingual dictionaries often just give three or four translations for a word you look up, without any explanation. Here are some pictures with translations you might find in such a dictionary. Which ones fit in the sentences? You may need to use a monolingual dictionary.

sofa  divan  couch  settee boots  bootees  wellingtons sailing boat  ketch  dinghy  yacht
```

1. Come and sit on the __________________________ and relax a while.
2. She bought a huge, luxury __________________________ and went off round the world.
3. If you’re going to stand in the water you should take your __________________________.
4. It’s not a proper yacht; it’s just a tiny little __________________________.

5.3 Which definition of casual fits which sentence?

casual /'keɪʒuəl/. casuals. 1 Something that is casual 1.1 happens or is done by chance or without planning. e.g. Her casual remark caused a political storm... a casual meeting. 2 casually 2.1 a casual- ly acquired object. 1.2 is rather careless and done without much interest. e.g. I had a casual glance at the papers... a casual friendship. casual- ly

ADJ CLAR: ADV WITH VS ADJ CLAR: ADV WITH VS accidental 1.1 accidental

5.5 English Vocabulary in Use
Revising vocabulary

Here is an extract from a psychology book on the importance of revising in an active way.

Probably the commonest fault among students is failure to realise that learning is essentially an active process. Too many students sit for hours passively reading and re-reading notes and textbooks, without ever attempting actively to recall what they have read. The fallacy of this method has been amply shown by experiments.

The same principles apply to more advanced forms of learning: for effective memory, some form of active expression is essential. The student, therefore, should read through the material he wants to master with close attention and should then reproduce the main points aloud or produce a written summary... An hour's concentrated work of this kind is more effective than three hours' passive reading.

(From A Modern Introduction to Psychology, Rex and Margaret Knight)

Revising with this book

When you revise a unit, first read it through. Then look at anything you wrote in your vocabulary notebook connected with the unit.

Then, and most importantly, try to do something different with the new words and expressions in that unit in order to help fix them in your memory.

Here are some suggestions:

- Highlight (or underline) any words and expressions that you had forgotten or were not sure about.
- Look at the unit and choose ten words and expressions that you particularly want or need to learn. Write them down.
- Look up any words that you selected in an English-English dictionary. Do these words have any other uses or associations that might help you learn them? Looking up the verb, wish, for example, might lead you to wishbone or wishful thinking. Write anything that appeals to you in an appropriate phrase or sentence.
- Perhaps the dictionary can also help you find some other words based on the same root. Looking up the noun, employment, will lead you to the verb, employ, to the nouns, employer and employee, and, perhaps, to the adjectives employable, unemployed and self-employed.
- Write down the words and expressions you wish to learn in phonetic script. Use a dictionary to help you.
- Write down the words and phrases from a unit in your notebook in a different way — put them into a network or a table, perhaps.
- The next day, ask yourself again: How much can I remember?
- Test yourself. Cover part of a word or phrase. Can you remember the complete word or phrase?

When you have done all the steps above that you feel will be useful to you, close your book and notebook and remind yourself of what you have been studying. How much can you remember?
Making the new words active

One of the great advantages of revising vocabulary is that it should help you to make the step from having something in your passive vocabulary to having it in your active vocabulary.

Encourage this process by:

• writing the words and expressions you are trying to learn in a sentence relating to your life and interests at the moment.
• making a point of using the new words and expressions in your next class or homework.
• keeping a learning diary in which you note down things that particularly interest you about the words you have learnt.
• watching out for the words and expressions you are trying to learn in your general reading of English. If you come across any of them in use, write them down in their context in your diary or notebook.
• writing a paragraph or story linking the words and expressions you want to learn.

What can you remember?

1 What do you remember now from the first six units in this book? Answer without looking back at the units.
2 Now read through the units again.
3 How much do you remember about the units now?
4 Choose at least one word and expression from each unit and work through all the suggestions made in B and C above. It may not always be appropriate in your future study to do all the steps in B but try them now for practice.

Some plans for your work with this book

1 How often are you going to revise what you have done? (Every week? Every five units?)
2 Which techniques are you going to use for revising?
3 Now write yourself some notes to remind yourself of when you are going to revise. You might like, for instance, to write revise vocabulary in your diary for the next eight Fridays, if you decided to revise every week. Alternatively you could write REVISE in capital letters after, say, every five units in the book.
7 Formal and informal words

Formality is all about your relationship with the person you're speaking or writing to. If you use formal language, it may be because you wish to show respect, politeness, or to put yourself at a distance (for example, 'official' language). Informal language can show friendliness, equality or a feeling of closeness and solidarity with someone. You should never use informal language just to sound fluent or clever.

Scales of formality

Some groups of words can be put on a scale from (very) formal to (very) informal.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>very formal</th>
<th>neutral</th>
<th>very informal</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>offspring</td>
<td>children</td>
<td>kids</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>abode/residence</td>
<td>house/flat</td>
<td>place</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>alcoholic beverages</td>
<td>drink</td>
<td>booze</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Short, monosyllabic informal words

Informal versions of words are often short and monosyllabic, as we can see in the right-hand column in the table in A. They include slang words. (Unit 95 has more examples.)

- It cost me ten quid.  [pounds]
- I'll help you peel the spuds.  [potatoes]
- My bike's been stolen.  [bicycle]
- I always go by tube.  [word used for the London Underground]
- Come and meet my Mum and Dad.  [mother and father]
- Hi! Can't stop; see you, bye!  [hello; goodbye]
- The milk's in the fridge.  [refrigerator]

Clippings

Shortening a word tends to make it less formal, as in fridge and bye in B.

- I'll meet you in the lab(ory).  [laboratory]
- What's on telly tonight?  [television]
- We should put an ad(vertisement) / an advert(issement) in the (news)paper.
- Shall I (tele)phone them?
- Her sister's a vet(erninary surgeon).

Formality in notices, instructions, etc.

You will often see rather formal words in notices and suchlike. Make sure you know the meaning of the words used so that you could tell someone what the notice says using less formal words.

- THIS PUBLIC HOUSE IS CLOSED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE
- DO NOT ALIGHT WHILE THE BUS IS IN MOTION
- DO NOT ADDRESS THE DRIVER UNLESS THE BUS IS STATIONARY
- ARTICLES DEPOSITED MUST BE PAID FOR IN ADVANCE
- We regret we cannot accept cheques
- Tickets must be purchased before boarding the train
Exercises

7.1 If you look up an informal word in a monolingual dictionary, you will often find a neutral equivalent as part of the definition or explanation. For example, the Collins COBUILD dictionary entry for kid says: A kid is a child; an informal use.

Use a monolingual dictionary to find neutral or more formal words for these:
1 kip  2 a pal  3 a chap  4 cheerio  5 swot  6 ta!  7 brainy

7.2 Make this conversation more informal by changing some of the words. Refer to the left-hand page if necessary.

JIM: Annie, can you lend me five pounds?
ANNIE: What for?
JIM: Well, I have to go and visit my mother and father, and my bicycle's not working, so I'll have to take a taxi.
ANNIE: Can't you telephone them and say you can't come?
JIM: Well, I could, except I want to go because they always have lots of food, and the refrigerator at our flat is empty, as usual.
ANNIE: Can't you go by Underground?
JIM: Erm...
ANNIE: Anyway, the answer's no.

7.3 Say whether you feel the following remarks/sentences are okay, too formal or too informal for each situation described. If the remark/sentence is unsuitable, suggest what the person might say instead.
1 (Teenage boy to teenage girl at disco): D'you fancy an appointment one night next week?
2 (Parent to another parent at a school parents meeting): How many offspring do you have at the school?
3 (Dinner-guest to host/hostess): No thanks, I never consume alcoholic beverages when I'm driving.
4 (Student to University Professor): Will there be lab demonstrations next week?
5 (Business letter to a newspaper office): Dear Sir/Madam,
   I should like to enquire about the current charges for ads in your paper. My company is considering... etc.

7.4 Mini-quiz: Find words on the left-hand page for the following.
1 The opposite of stationary.
2 The opposite of to board.
3 a) to be sorry  b) to buy  c) to speak to 4 Informal versions of Greetings! and Farewell!

7.5 Express these notices in neutral or informal language.
1 Children are requested not to deposit litter in the play-area
2 Expenses can only be reimbursed upon production of dated receipts

(See also Units 95 and 96 for other informal and formal words and expressions.)
Suffixes can change the word-class and the meaning of the word.

Common noun suffixes

- -er /ə/ is used for the person who does an activity, e.g. writer, worker, shopper, teacher.
  You can use -er with a wide range of verbs to make them into nouns.
  Sometimes, the /ə/ suffix is written as -or instead of -er. It is worth making a special list of these as you meet them, e.g. actor, operator, sailor, supervisor.

- -or are also used for things which do a particular job, e.g. pencil-sharpener, bottle-opener, grater, projector.

- -er and -ee can contrast with each other meaning ‘person who does something’ ( -er ) and ‘person who receives or experiences the action’ ( -ee ), e.g. employer/employee, sender/address, payee ( e.g. of a cheque ).

- -(t)ion /ʃən/ is used to make nouns from verbs.

- -(t)ion /ʃən/ is used to make nouns from verbs.

Adjective suffix

- -able/-ible /abl/ with verbs, means ‘can be done’.

Verbs

- -ise ( or -ize ) makes verbs from adjectives, e.g. modernise, commercialise, industrialise.

Other suffixes that can help you recognise the word class

- -ment: ( nouns ) excitement, enjoyment, replacement
- -ity: ( nouns ) flexibility, productivity, scarcity
- -hood: ( abstract nouns especially family terms ) childhood, motherhood
- -ship: ( abstract nouns especially status ) friendship, partnership, membership
- -ive: ( adjectives ) passive, productive, active
- -al: ( adjectives ) brutal, legal ( nouns ) refusal, arrival
- -ous: ( adjectives ) delicious, outrageous, furious
- -ful: ( adjectives ) forgetful, hopeful, useful
- -less: ( adjectives ) useless, harmless, cloudless
- -ify: ( verbs ) beautify, purify, terrify

Note: the informal suffix -ish, which can be added to most common adjectives, ages and times to make them less precise, e.g. She’s thirtyish. He has reddish hair. Come about eightish.
Exercises

8.1 The -er/-or, -ee and -ist suffixes. Use the suffixes to give the names of the following.

Example: A person who plays jazz on the piano. a jazz pianist

1 The thing that wipes rain off your car windscreen.
2 A person who plays classical violin.
3 A person who takes professional photographs. (N.B. pronunciation)
4 A person who acts in amateur theatre.
5 The person to whom a cheque is made out.
6 A machine for washing dishes.
7 A person who donates their kidneys upon their death.
8 The person to whom a letter is addressed.

8.2 Each picture is of an object ending in -er. Can you name them?

3

8.3 List six jobs you would like to have in order of preference. How many different suffixes are there in your list? Do any of the job names not have a suffix? (e.g. pilot, film star)

8.4 Do these words mean a thing, a person, or both?

1 a cooker 3 a ticket-holder 5 a cleaner 7 a drinker
2 a typewriter 4 a record player 6 a smoker

8.5 Spelling changes. Rewrite each sentence by changing the underlined words, using a suffix from the left-hand page. Make any spelling changes needed.

1 Most of his crimes can be forgiven.
   Most of his crimes are ......................

2 The Club refuses to admit anyone not wearing a tie.
   The Club refuses ............................. to anyone not wearing a tie.

3 Her only fault is that she is lazy.
   Her only fault is ..............................

4 This firm has produced a lot in recent years.
   This firm has been very ...................... in recent years.

5 I found the book very easy and pleasant to read.
   I found the book very ..........................

8.6 Can you think of anything in your country which should be nationalised (e.g. banks, steel works), standardised, modernised, computerised or centralised?

8.7 Which word is the odd one out in each group and why?

1 brotherhood neighbourhood manhood priesthood
2 hair-restorer plant-holder step-ladder oven-cleaner
3 appointment involvement compliment arrangement
4 tearful spiteful dreadful handful
5 worship kinship friendship partnership
9 Prefixes

Prefixes are often used to give adjectives a negative meaning. The opposite of ‘comfortable’ is ‘uncomfortable’, the opposite of ‘convenient’ is ‘inconvenient’ and the opposite of ‘similar’ is ‘dissimilar’. Other examples are ‘unjust’, ‘inedible’, ‘disloyal’. Unfortunately, there is no easy way of knowing which prefix any adjective will use to form its opposite. When you learn a new adjective note down whether it has an opposite formed with a prefix and, if so, what it is.

Note:
- in- becomes im- before a root beginning with ‘m’ or ‘p’, e.g. immature, impatient, impartial, improbable. Similarly in- becomes ir- before a word beginning with ‘r’, and il- before a word beginning with ‘l’, e.g. irreplaceable, irreversible, illegal, illegible, illiterate.
- The prefix in- does not always have a negative meaning – often it gives the idea of inside or into, e.g. internal, import, insert, income.

Although it is mainly adjectives which are made negative by prefixes, un- and dis- can also form the opposites of verbs too, e.g. appear disappear. The prefix is used here to reverse the action of the verb. Here are some more examples: disagree, disapprove, disbelieve, disconnect, discredit, dislike, dismount, disprove, disqualify, unbend, undo, undress, unfold, unload, unlock, unveil, unwrap, unzip.

Many other prefixes are used in English. Here is a list of prefixes which are useful in helping you to understand unfamiliar words. Some of these words are used with a hyphen. Check in a dictionary if you’re not sure.

Exercises

9.1 Practise using words with negative prefixes. Contradict the following statements in the same way as the example. Not all the words you need are on the left-hand page.

Example: He's a very honest man. I don’t agree. I think he's dishonest.
1 I'm sure she's discreet. 6 He's very efficient.
2 I always find him very sensitive. 7 I always find her responsible.
3 It's a convincing argument. 8 He seems grateful for our help.
4 That's a very relevant point. 9 I'm sure she's loyal to the firm.
5 She's always obedient. 10 He's a tolerant person.

9.2 Which negative adjective fits each of the following definitions?
1 ........................................ means not having a husband or wife.
2 ........................................ means impossible to eat.
3 ........................................ means unable to read or write.
4 ........................................ means not having a job.
5 ........................................ means fair in giving judgement, not favouring one side.
6 ........................................ means unable to be replaced.

9.3 Choose a negative verb from B to fit each of the sentences below. Put it in the correct form.

Example: The runner was disqualified after a blood test.
1 Children (and adults) love ....................... parcels at Christmas time.
2 I almost always find that I ....................... with his opinion.
3 I'm sure he's lying but it's going to be hard to ....................... his story.
4 After a brief speech the Queen ....................... the new statue.
5 It took the removal men an hour ....................... our things from the van.
6 His phone was ....................... because he didn't pay his last bill.

9.4 Answer the following questions. The answers are all in the table opposite.

1 What kind of oven cooks things particularly fast?
2 What kind of drug can help somebody with an infection?
3 What kind of company has branches in many countries?
4 How does a passenger aeroplane normally fly?
5 What is a student who is studying for a second degree?
6 What means 'underground railway' in the US and 'underground passage' in the UK?

9.5 Using the table opposite construct words or phrases to replace the underlined words.

Example: He's in favour of the American approach. He's pro-American.
1 The BBC tries to avoid pronouncing foreign words incorrectly.
2 Most people say they have to work too hard but are paid too little.
3 He dated his cheque with a date that was later than the real date.
4 She's still on good terms with the man who used to be her husband.
5 He made so many mistakes in the letter that he had to write it again.

9.6 Think of two more examples for each prefix in C opposite.
Many words in English are formed from a set of Latin roots with different prefixes and suffixes. Knowing the roots of such words may help you to remember or guess their meaning when you see them in context. These words are usually fairly formal. In their formation, they can perhaps be seen as the Latinate, formal, equivalent of phrasal verbs.

Here are some examples of the more common Latin roots, with some of the verbs derived from them. In each case an example sentence is given with the meaning of the verb in brackets at the end. You'll find some easier to understand than others.

spect: see, look
You should respect your parents / the laws of a country. [look up to]
The police suspected he was guilty but they had no proof. [had a feeling]
Many pioneers travelled west in America to prospect for gold. [search] vert: turn
I tried a word-processor but I soon reverted to my old typewriter. [went back]
Missionaries went to Africa to convert people to Christianity. [change beliefs]
The royal scandal diverted attention from the political crisis. [took attention away] port: carry, take
How are you going to transport your things to the States? [send across]
Britain imports cotton and exports wool. [buys in, sells out]
The roof is supported by the old beams. [held up] duc, duct: lead
She was educated abroad. [went to school]
He conducted the orchestra with great vigour. [led] Japan produces a lot of electronic equipment. [makes] press: press, push
She was impressed by his presentation. [full of admiration and respect]
This weather depresses me. [makes me feel miserable]
She always expresses herself very articulately. [puts her thoughts into words] pose, pone: place, put
The meeting has been postponed until next week. [changed to a later date]
The king was deposed by his own son. [put off the throne]
I don't want to impose my views on you. [force]

Above you only have examples of verbs. Note that for all the verbs listed, there is usually at least one noun and at least one adjective as well. Here are some examples.

10.2 Fill in the gaps in the sentences below using words from the table in C.

1. We stayed in a town surrounded by high mountains. I found it very ..................................
2. He ............................................................ from the USA for having a forged passport.
3. The magazine seems to have nothing in it but ................................ for cosmetics.
4. May I .............................................. you to my boss?
5. The tax ............................................. decided I owed a lot of money.
6. The new take-away pizza service has a very good ............................................. offer.
7. Business people always say that it pays ..................................................
8. Tchaikovsky ........................................... some wonderful ballet music.

10.3 Can you work out the meanings of the underlined words in the sentences below?

To help you, here are the meanings of the main Latin prefixes:

- intro: within, inward
- o, ob: against
- in, im: in, into
- re: again, back
- de: down, from
- ex: out
- sub: under
- trans: across

1. She’s a very introspective person and he’s also very introverted.
2. He always seems to oppose everything I suggest.
3. They have a very good induction programme for new staff in that company.
4. I don’t think it is healthy to repress one’s emotions too much.
5. Perhaps you can deduce what the word means from the way it is formed.
6. The documentary exposed corruption in high places.
7. She tried hard to suppress a laugh.
8. She transposed the music for the flute.

10.4 Think of three other words based on each of the roots listed in B opposite. Put each into an appropriate phrase.

10.5 Pair the formal verbs below with their phrasal verb equivalents.

- support put off oppose
- look at cut down deposit
- hold up postpone turn away
- inspect go against divert
- reduce put down
Abstract nouns

An abstract noun is one which is used to mean an idea, experience or quality rather than an object. Thus happiness, intention and shock are abstract nouns whereas, for example, pen, bed and trousers are not.

There are a number of suffixes which are used particularly frequently in the formation of abstract nouns. Some of the most common are -ment, -ion, -ness and -ity.

Note: -ment and -ion are usually used to make verbs into abstract nouns whereas -ness and -ity are added to adjectives; -ion sometimes becomes -tion, -sion, -ation or -ition.

Here are some examples of abstract nouns using those suffixes.

Less common suffixes associated with abstract nouns are -ship, -dom, -th and -hood.

Note: -ship and -hood are usually used in combination with other nouns whereas -th combines with an adjective to form an abstract noun and -dom can combine with either a noun or an adjective.

Here are some examples of abstract nouns using those suffixes.

11.5 Which of the words in the list below is being described in the following quotations?

love permanence hope jealousy happiness beauty

1 ‘…………………… is no more than feeling alone among smiling enemies.’
2 ‘…………………… is like coke; something you get as the by-product of making something else.’
3 ‘…………………… is the power of being cheerful in circumstances which we know to be desperate.’
4 ‘…………………… is a universal migraine.’
5 ‘The British love ……………………… more than they love…………………………….’

11.6 Write your own quotations to describe the following abstract nouns.

1 freedom  2 friendship  3 life  4 curiosity  5 imagination
A compound adjective is an adjective which is made up of two parts and is usually written with a hyphen, e.g. well-dressed, never-ending and shocking-pink. Its meaning is usually clear from the words it combines. The second part of the compound adjective is frequently a present or past participle.

A large number of compound adjectives describe personal appearance. Here is a rather far-fetched description of a person starting from the head down.

Tom was a curly-haired, sun-tanned, blue-eyed, rosy-cheeked, thin lipped, broad-shouldered, left-handed, slim-hipped, long-legged, flat-footed young man, wearing an open-necked shirt, brand-new, tight-fitting jeans and open-toed sandals.

Another set of compound adjectives describes a person's character. Here is a rather light-hearted description of a girl. The meanings are explained in brackets.

Melissa was absent-minded [forgetful], easy-going [relaxed], good-tempered [cheerful], warm-hearted [kind] and quick-witted [intelligent] if perhaps a little big-headed [proud of herself], two-faced [hypocritical], self-centred [egotistical] and stuck-up [snobbish (colloquial)] at times.

Another special group of compound adjectives are those where the second part is a preposition. Some of these adjectives are listed below with a typical noun.

an all-out strike [total] a burnt-out car [nothing left in it after a fire] a broken-down bus [it won't work] a built-up area [lots of buildings in it] a hard-up student [poor] cast-off clothes [no longer wanted by the owner] worn-out shoes [can't be worn any more; of people – exhausted] a drive-in movie [you watch from your car] well-off bankers [wealthy] a run-down area [in poor condition]

Here are some other useful compound adjectives.

air-conditioned bullet-proof cut-price drip-dry duty-free hand-made interest-free last-minute long-distance long-standing off-peak part-time record-breaking remote-controlled second-class so-called sugar-free time-consuming top-secret world-famous

You can vary the compound adjectives listed by changing one part of the adjective. For example, curly-haired, long-haired, red-haired and straight-haired; first-hand (knowledge), first-class (ticket) and first-born (child).
Exercises

12.1 Fill each of the blanks to form a new compound adjective. Use a dictionary if necessary.

4            8
            - necked
            - hearted

12.2 Put the words in E opposite into any categories which will help you learn them.

12.3 List as many compound adjectives beginning with self, as you can. Mark them P or N for positive or negative characteristics, or write neutral.

12.4 Answer the questions by using a compound adjective which is opposite in meaning to the adjective in the question. Note that the answer may or may not have the same second element as the adjective in the question.

Example: Is he working full-time? No, part-time.

1 Isn’t she rather short-sighted? 4 Are her shoes high-heeled?
2 Is your brother well-off? 5 Is this vase mass-produced?
3 Would you say the boy’s well-behaved? 6 Do they live in south-east England?

12.5 Think of two nouns that would frequently be associated with any ten of the compound adjectives listed in E opposite.

12.6 Add a preposition from the list below to complete appropriate compound adjectives.

back  up  out  off  on  of 1 She’s been doing the same low-paid job for so long that she’s really fed-with it now.

2 The two cars were involved in a head-        collision.
3 He has a very casual, laid-        approach to life in general.
4 It’ll never happen again. It’s definitely a one-        situation.
5 He’s a smash hit here but he’s unheard-        in my country.
6 She bought a cut-        paper pattern and made her own dress.

12.7 Which of the adjectives from this unit could you use to describe yourself and other students in your class or members of your family?
Compound nouns – combinations of two nouns

A compound noun is a fixed expression which is made up of more than one word and functions as a noun. Such expressions are frequently combinations of two nouns, e.g. address book, human being, science fiction. A number of compound nouns are related to phrasal verbs and these are dealt with in Unit 14.

Compound nouns may be written as two words, e.g. tin opener, bank account, or they may be written with a hyphen instead of a space between the words, e.g. pen-name, baby-sitter. Some expressions are occasionally written with a hyphen and occasionally as two separate words. For instance, both letter box and letter-box are correct. Sometimes they may be written as one word, e.g. earring.

Compound nouns may be countable, uncountable or only used in either the singular or the plural. There are examples of each of these types below. Check that you understand the meanings of each of the expressions listed. If you understand both elements of the expression, the meaning will usually be clear. If the meaning is not fairly obvious, then it is provided below.

Usually the main stress is on the first part of the compound but sometimes it is on the second part. The word which contains the main stress is underlined in the compound nouns below.

Here are some examples of common countable compound nouns.

- alarm clock
- assembly line
- blood donor
- book token
- burglar alarm
- contact lens
- credit card
- handcuffs
- heart attack
- package holiday
- pedestrian crossing
- shoe horn
- tea-bag
- windscreen
- windscreen wiper
- youth hostel

Here are some examples of common uncountable compound nouns. These are never used with an article.

- air-traffic control
- birth control
- blood pressure
- cotton wool
- data-processing
- family planning
- food poisoning
- pocket money
- income tax
- junk food
- mail order
- hay fever
- (allergy to pollen)

Here are some examples of common compound nouns used only in the singular.

- arms race (countries wanting most powerful weapons)
- generation gap
- mother-tongue
- greenhouse effect
- brain drain (highly educated people leaving country to work abroad)

Here are some examples of common compound nouns used only in the plural.

- grass roots
- race relations
- luxury goods
- human rights
- kitchen scissors
- roadworks
- sunglasses
- traffic lights
Exercises

13.1 Complete these networks with any appropriate expressions from the opposite page. Add extra bubbles if you need them.

- MONEY
- HEALTH
- SOCIAL PROBLEMS

13.2 In some cases more than one compound noun can be formed from one particular element. What, for example, are the two expressions listed opposite with blood as an element and what are the two based on control? Complete the following compound nouns with a noun other than the one suggested opposite.

13.3 What are they talking about? In each case the answer is a compound noun opposite.

Example: ‘I had it taken at the doctor’s this morning and he said it was a little high for my age.’ blood pressure

1 ‘You really shouldn’t cross the road at any other place.’
2 ‘It’s partly caused by such things as hair sprays and old fridges.’
3 ‘She always has terrible sneezing fits in the early summer.’
4 ‘I can’t understand why they spend so much money on something so destructive.’
5 ‘Working there is supposed to be much more stressful than being a pilot.’
6 ‘The worst time was when I dropped one at the theatre and spent the interval scrubbling around on the floor.’
7 ‘I don’t think it should ever be used under any circumstances.’
8 ‘It’s much easier not to have to make your own arrangements.’
9 ‘He can’t possibly run away from the policeman with those on!’

13.4 Now make up some sentences like those in exercise 13.3 relating to some of the new expressions you made in exercise 13.2.

13.5 Choose any article in a magazine or newspaper and write down all the compound nouns which you find.

13.6 Look at all the compound expressions you have worked with in this unit. Mark all those that you feel you need to be able to use yourself rather than just to understand when others use them.
A large number of compound nouns (see Unit 13) are based on phrasal verbs. In Sections B to E you will see a number of examples of such nouns in context. The meaning of the compound noun is indicated in brackets at the end of the sentence. To form the plural, 's' is added to the end, e.g. pin-ups.

Nouns based on phrasal verbs often have an informal feel to them and they are particularly common in newspaper reporting. Here are examples of such nouns in use.

In response to the pay offer, there was a walk-out at the factory. [strike]
There is going to be a crack-down on public spending. [action against]
There has been a break-out from the local prison. [escape]
Last month saw a tremendous shake-up in personnel. [change]
I never expected the break-up of the USSR. [collapse]

A number of these nouns have economic associations.

The takeover of one of our leading hotel chains has just been announced. [purchase by another company]
We're trying to find some new outlets for our products. [places to sell]
Take your things to the check-out to pay for them. [cash-desk]
Cutbacks will be essential until the recession is over. [reductions]
We made a profit of £1000 on a turnover of £10,000. [money passing through a company]

Some of these nouns are associated with technology and other aspects of contemporary life.

What the computer produces depends on the quality of the input. [information that is put in]
Output has increased thanks to new technology. [production]
We have a rather rapid staff turnover. [change]
Just after leaving school he went through the stage of being a dropout. [person who rejects society]
It will be a long time before the consequences of fallout from Chernobyl are no longer felt. [radio-active dust in the atmosphere]
I can easily get you a printout of the latest figures. [paper on which computer information has been printed]
A breakthrough has been made in AIDS research. [important discovery]

Some of the words can be used in more general circumstances.

Many of the problems were caused by a breakdown in communications. [failure]
The outlook for tomorrow is good – sunny in most places. [prospect]
There are drawbacks as well as advantages to every situation. [negative aspects]
The outcome of the situation was not very satisfactory. [conclusion]
TV companies always welcome feedback from viewers. [comments]
It was clear from the outset that the set-up would cause problems. [start; situation]
We parked in a lay-by on the by-pass. [parking space at the side of a road; road avoiding the centre of a town]
The outbreak of war surprised them. [start of something unpleasant, e.g. disease, violence]

16 Words with interesting origins – from other languages

English has taken over words from most of the other languages with which it has had contact. It has taken many expressions from the ancient languages, Latin and Greek, and these borrowings usually have academic or literary associations. From French, English has taken lots of words to do with cooking, the arts, and a more sophisticated lifestyle in general. From Italian come words connected with music and the plastic arts. German expressions in English have been coined either by tourists bringing back words for new things they saw or by philosophers or historians describing German concepts or experiences. The borrowings from other languages usually relate to things which English speakers experienced for the first time abroad.

There are borrowings from a wide range of languages. For example, from Japanese, tycoon, karate, origami, judo, futon and bonsai. From Arabic, mattress, cipher, alcove, carafe, algebra, harem, mufti and yashmak. From Turkish, yoghurt, jackal, kiosk, bosh [nonsense (colloquial)], tulip and caftan; from Farsi, caravan, shawl, taffeta, bazaar and sherbet, and from Eskimo, kayak, igloo and anorak.

The map of Europe below shows the places of origin of some English words and expressions borrowed from some other European languages. Use a dictionary to check the meanings of any words you are not sure about.
Exercises

16.1 Which of the words listed opposite are also used in your language?

16.2 Is your own language represented on the opposite page? If so, can you add any words to the lists opposite? If not, do you know of any words English has borrowed from your language? (There are almost sure to be some.) Do the words mean exactly the same in English as in your language? Are they pronounced in the same way?

16.3 Look at all the words opposite and complete the following networks.

16.4 Make two or three other networks to help you to learn the words on the opposite page.

16.5 Match the adjectives on the left with the noun they are most likely to be associated with, on the right.

1  right-wing  kindergarten
2  prima       casino
3  strawberry  duvet
4  ice         vendetta
5  Chinese     ballerina
6  long-sleeved embargo
7  total       cuisine
8  long-standing floe
9  noisy       yoghurt
10 cosy        coup
11 all-night   caftan

16.6 What verbs collocate, in other words, are frequently used with the following nouns?

Example: study algebra

1 karate  4 embargo  7 coup  10 cruise
2 kayak   5 guerrilla 8 confetti 11 sauna
3 mufti   6 cul de sac 9 siesta 12 seminar

16.7 Give three nouns likely to follow macho and avant-garde.

16.8 Have some words or expressions been borrowed from English into your own language? Give some examples. Have they kept exactly the same meaning as they have in English?
Onomatopoeic words

Onomatopoeic words are those which seem to sound like their meaning. The most obvious examples are verbs relating to the noises which animals make, e.g. cows moo and cats mew or meow. See Unit 73 for more about animal noises.

If the vowel sound in a word is short, an onomatopoeic word usually signifies a short, sharp sound. If it is long (indicated in the International Phonetic Alphabet by ː) then the word usually signifies a longer, slower sound. Compare pip /pɪp/ which is a short sound with peep /piːp/ which is a long sound.

Particular combinations of letters have particular sound associations in English.

gr- at the beginning of a word can suggest something unpleasant or miserable, e.g. groan [make a deep sound forced out by pain or despair], grumble [complain in a bad-tempered way], grumpy [bad-tempered], grunt [make a low, rough sound like pigs do, or people expressing disagreement or boredom], growl [make a low, threatening sound].

cl- at the beginning of a word can suggest something sharp and/or metallic, e.g. click [make a short sharp sound], clang [make a loud ringing noise], clank [make a dull metallic noise, not as loud as a clang], clash [make a loud, broken, confused noise as when metal objects strike together], clink [make the sound of small bits of metal or glass knocking together]. Horses go clip-clop on the road.

sp- at the beginning of a word can have an association with water or other liquids or powders, e.g. splash [cause a liquid to fly about in drops], spit [send liquid out from the mouth], splutter [make a series of spitting sounds], spray [liquid sent through the air in tiny drops either by the wind or some instrument], sprinkle [throw a shower of something onto a surface], spurt [come out in a sudden burst].

ash- at the end of a word can suggest something fast and violent, e.g. smash [break violently into small pieces], dash [move or be moved violently], crash [strike suddenly violently and noisily], bash [strike heavily so as to break or injure], gash [a long deep cut or wound].

wh- at the beginning of a word often suggests the movement of air, e.g. whistle [a high pitched noise made by forcing air or steam through a small opening], whirr [sound like a bird's wings moving rapidly], whizz [make the sound of something rushing through air], wheeze [breathe noisily especially with a whistling sound in the chest], whip [one of these or to hit with one of these].

-ckle, -ggle, or -zzle at the end of a word can suggest something light and repeated, e.g. trickle [to flow in a thin stream], crackle [make a series of short cracking sounds], tinkle [make a succession of light ringing sounds], giggle [laugh lightly in a nervous or silly way], wriggle [move with quick short twistings], sizzle [make a hissing sound like something cooking in fat], drizzle [small, fine rain].
Exercises

17.1 Which of the consonant combinations listed in C opposite exist in your language? Do they ever have similar associations?

17.2 Look in your dictionary. Can you find any other examples of words beginning with gr-, cl-, sp- or wh- with the associations described opposite?

17.3 Which of the words from C opposite fit best in the sentences below.
1 She heard his key ................................ as it turned in the lock.
2 The blades of the propeller ................................ noisily.
3 I love to hear sausages ................................ in the pan!
4 They ................................ glasses and drank to each other’s health.
5 There was a terrible car ....................... on the motorway today.
6 Everyone ................................ with disappointment at the news.
7 The baby loves ................................ in its bath.
8 I can feel raindrops ....................... down the back of my neck.

17.4 Almost all the words in C opposite can be both nouns and regular verbs. There is, however, one irregular verb, one word which is only an adjective, one word which is both verb and noun but the noun has a rather different meaning from the verb. What are these words? Choose from the alternatives offered below.
1 The irregular verb: whip, grunt, spurt, spit or wriggle?
2 The word which is only an adjective: gash, grumpy, clip-clop, or whirr?
3 The word which is both a verb and a noun but the noun has a different meaning: trickle, spray, growl, splutter, spit, splash or crash?

17.5 Can you guess the meanings of the underlined words from their sounds?
1 The child sploshed through the puddles.
2 If you have a sore throat, try gargling with some salt water.

18 Words commonly mispronounced

English spelling is notoriously unphonetic. This page looks at some of the words which cause most pronunciation difficulties for learners of English. The phonetic transcription is provided for some of the words below. If you are not sure of the pronunciation of any of the other words, check in the index at the back of the book.

To master English pronunciation you need to learn the 20 phonetic symbols for English vowel sounds. It is not really necessary to learn the consonant symbols as it is usually not difficult to know how consonants should be pronounced. Vowels are important because the vowel letters can be pronounced in many different ways.

\begin{array}{llll}
\text{a} & \text{about} /ə/ & \text{wander} /n/ & \text{last} /aːt/ & \text{late} /eɪ/ \\
\text{i} & \text{alive} /aɪ/ & \text{give} /ɪ/ \\

18.7 Are there other words which you know you have particular problems pronouncing? You might like to ask a teacher to help you answer this question. Note any such words down with their phonetic transcription beside them.
Homonyms can be subdivided into homographs and homophones. Homographs are words which are written in the same way but have different meanings. Compare bow in ‘He took a bow /bəʊ/ at the end of the concert’ and ‘He was wearing a bow /bəʊ/ tie’. Homophones are words which are pronounced in the same way but are spelt differently, e.g. bow as in ‘He took a bow’ and bough, ‘the bough of a tree’.

Here are some more examples of homographs.

I live in the north of England. /lɪv/
Your favourite pop star is singing live on TV tonight. /laɪv/
I read in bed each night. /rɪd/
I read War and Peace last year. /red/

8. What’s pale and trembles at the bottom of the sea? You’re too young to smoke.
20 Time

One thing before another
Before I went to work I fed the cat. [or, more commonly in written English: Before going to work...]
I had written to her prior to meeting the committee. [formal/written style]
It was nice to be in Venice. Previously I’d only been to Rome. [fairly formal, more informal would be before that, I...]
I was in the office from 2.30. I was out earlier on. [before then, fairly informal]
The city is now called Thatcherville. Formerly it was Grabtown. [used when something has changed its name, state, etc.]

Things happening at the same time
While I waited, I read the newspaper. [or, more formal: While waiting, I read...; the waiting and reading happen together.]
As I was driving to work, I saw an accident. [As describes the background when something happens in the foreground.]
I saw her just as she was turning the corner. [precise moment]
During the war, I lived in Dublin. [does not specify how long]
Throughout the war, food was rationed. [from beginning to end]
She was entering at the very time/the very moment I was leaving. [These two are stronger and more precise than as or just as.]

One thing after another
After I’d locked up, I went to bed. [or, more formal: After locking up... ; we do not usually say ‘After having locked up...’]
We went to the castle. Then we caught a bus to the beach.
First we went to the theatre. After that, we had a meal.
He fell ill and was admitted to hospital. He died soon afterwards. [In these two examples, after that and afterwards are interchangeable.]
Following my visit to Peking, I bought lots of books about China. [fairly formal]

Time when
When I’m rich and famous, I’ll buy a yacht. [Note: not ‘When I will be rich...’]
As soon as we’ve packed we can leave. [immediately after] Once we’ve finished we can go and have a coffee. [less specific]
The moment/the minute I saw his face I knew I’d met him before.
I stayed in that hospital the time (that) I broke my leg.
I met Polly at Ken’s wedding. On that occasion she was with a different man.

Connecting two periods or events
The meal will take about an hour. In the meantime, relax and have a drink. [between now and the meal]
The new whiteboards are arriving soon. Till then, we’ll have to use the old ones.
I last met him in 1985. Since then I haven’t set eyes on him.
By the time I retire, I will have worked here 26 years.

</tbody>
</table>

Fill in the blanks with connectors. An example is given.

1. Prior to going to Manchester, Laura was in Paris.
2. Her next trip after Glasgow is on 24th. she can have a quiet time at home.
3. She was in Paris for over a week, she got home there was a big pile of mail waiting for her.
4. she was at Nick's place on the 16th, she met Maura.
5. She went to the theatre in Paris on Monday, she had been to the Pompidou Centre.
6. she had said goodbye to Nick, she left.
7. she had answered all her letters, she felt she could watch TV for a while.
8. she put the phone down it rang again. This time it was Dougy.

Make more sentences with connectors you haven’t used, based on the diary information.

20.2 Think of things that are true for you in these situations and complete the sentences. Add more sentences if you can. An example has been done.

1. While I'm asleep, I usually dream a lot.
2. After I've eaten too much,...
3. The moment I wake up, I...
4. Throughout my childhood I...
5. I'm doing vocabulary right now. Earlier on, I was...
6. Once I've finished my language course, I'll...
7. Before I go on holiday, I always...
8. Following an argument with someone, I always feel

Follow-up: If you can, get hold of a news report in English. Underline all the time connectors and see if there are any which you can add to those on the left-hand page. If there are, write a whole sentence in your notebook showing how the connector is used.
Condition

As well as if, there are a number of other words and phrases for expressing condition.

1 You can't come in unless you have a ticket.

2 You can borrow the bike on condition that you return it by five o'clock.

3 In case of fire, dial 999. [usually seen on notices (see Unit 96); it means 'when there is a fire'; don't confuse with 'take your mac in case it rains'; not it might rain.]

4 You can stay, as long as you don't mind sleeping on the sofa. [less formal than so long as and less formal and not so strong as on condition that]

Providing (that) or provided (that) can also be used in examples 2 and 4. They are less formal and not so strong as on condition that but stronger and more restricting than as long as, e.g. Provided/Providing you don't mind cats, you can stay with us. Note the use of supposing and what if (usually in spoken language) for possible situations in the future. What if is more direct, e.g. Supposing/What if he doesn't turn up; what shall we do then?

Conditions with -ever

However you do it, it will cost a lot of money.
You'll get to the railway station, whichever bus you take.
Whoever wins the General Election, nothing will really change.
That box is so big it will be in the way wherever you leave it.

These four sentences can also be expressed using no matter.

No matter how you do it, it will cost a lot of money.
You'll get to the railway station, no matter which bus you take.

Some nouns which express condition

Certain conditions must be met before the Peace Talks can begin.
A good standard of English is a prerequisite for studying at a British University.
[absolutely necessary; very formal word]
What are the entry requirements for doing a diploma in Management at your college?
[official conditions]
I would not move to London under any circumstances. It's awful!

Notice in the examples in A and B how the present tense is used in the clause with the conditional word or phrase. Don't say: Take your umbrella in case it will rain.
Exercises

21.1 Fill the gaps with a suitable word from A opposite.

1 You can come to the party ........................................... you don’t bring that ghastly friend of yours.
2 ........................................... emergency in the machine-room, sound the alarm and notify the supervisor at once.
3 ........................................... I hear from you, I’ll assume you are coming.
4 A person may take the driving test again ..................................... they have not already taken a test within the previous fourteen days.
5 ........................................... I lent you my car, would that help?

21.2 The pictures show conditions that must be met to do certain things. Make different sentences using words and phrases from the opposite page.

Example: You can have a passenger on a motorbike provided they wear a helmet.

or Unless you wear a helmet, you can’t ride on a motorbike.

21.3 Change the sentences with -ever to no matter, and vice-versa.

1 Wherever she goes, she always takes that dog of hers.
2 If anyone rings, I don’t want to speak to them, no matter who it is.
3 No matter what I do, I always seem to do the wrong thing.
4 It’ll probably have meat in it, whichever dish you choose. They don’t cater for non-meat eaters here.
5 No matter how I do it, that recipe never seems to work.

21.4 What would your answers be to these questions?

1 Are there any prerequisites for the job you do or would like to do in the future?
2 Under what circumstances would you move from where you’re living at the moment?
3 What are the normal entry requirements for university in your country?
4 On what condition would you lend a friend your house/flat?
Cause, reason, purpose and result

Cause and reason

You probably know how to use words like because, since and as to refer to the cause of or reason for something. Here are some other ways of connecting clauses to express causes and reasons. Note how verbs and nouns can do the same job as conjunctions.

Look at the picture of an accident, on the right. Here are several ways of talking about it.

Owing to the icy conditions, the two lorries collided.
The collision was due to the icy conditions.
The collision was caused by ice on the road.

The cause of the collision was ice on the road.

Here are some other ‘cause’ words and typical contexts they are used in.

The rise in prices sparked off a lot of political protest.  [often used for very strong, perhaps violent, reactions to events]
The President’s statement gave rise to / provoked / generated a lot of criticism.  [slightly less strong than spark off]
The new law has brought about / led to great changes in education.  [often used for political/social change]
This problem stems from the inflation of recent years.  [explaining the direct origins of events and states]
The court-case arose out of allegations made in a newspaper.  [the allegations started the process that led to the court-case]

Reasons for and purposes of doing things

Her reason for not going with us was that she had no money. or The reason she didn’t go with us was that...  [less formal]
I wonder what his motives were in sending that letter?  [purpose]
I wonder what prompted him to send that letter?  [reason/cause]
She wrote to the press with the aim of exposing the scandal.  [purpose]
I’ve invited you here with a view to resolving our differences.  [sounds a bit more indirect than with the aim of]
He refused to answer on the grounds that his lawyer wasn’t there.  [reason]
The purpose of her visit was to inspect the equipment.

Results

He did no work. As a result / As a consequence / Consequently, he failed his exams.
The result/consequence of all these changes is that no-one is happy any more.  [The examples with consequence/consequently sound more formal than result]
His remarks resulted in everyone getting angry.  [as a verb + in]
The events had an outcome that no-one could have predicted.  [result of a process or events, or of meetings, discussions, etc.]
The upshot of all these problems was that we had to start again.  [less formal than outcome]
When the election results were announced, chaos ensued.  [formal]
Exercises

22.1 Make full sentences using ‘cause’ words from A opposite.

Example: closure of 20 mines → strikes in coal industry The closure of 20 mines sparked off a lot of strikes in the coal industry.

1 announcement → strong attack from opposition
2 new Act of Parliament → great changes in industry
3 signalling fault → train crash
4 violent storm → wall collapsed
5 food shortages → riots in several cities
6 food shortages → poor management of the economy

22.2 Make two sentences into one, using the ‘reason and purpose’ words in brackets. Look at B opposite if you aren’t sure.

Example: There was a controversial decision. She wrote to the local newspaper to protest.
(prompt) The controversial decision prompted her to write to the local newspaper to protest.

1 I didn’t contact you. I’d lost your phone number. (reason)
2 I will not sign. This contract is illegal. (grounds)
3 The government passed a new law. It was in order to control prices. (aim)
4 She sent everyone flowers. I wonder why? (motives)
5 The salary was high. She applied for the job. (prompt)

22.3 The pictures show the results of events. Imagine what the causes might be and describe the events in different ways.

1 The road was blocked.
2 Everyone got a refund.
3 The customers got angry.
4 We had to walk home.

22.4 Fill in the missing words.

1 My reasons not joining the club are personal.
2 The purpose this pedal is to control the speed.
3 I came here the aim resolving our dispute.
4 His stupidity has resulted us having to do more work.
5 All this arose one small mistake we made.
6 It was done a view lowering inflation.
7 That press article has rise a lot of criticism.
Concession and contrast

Concession means accepting one part of a state of affairs but putting another argument or fact against it.

Although they were poor, they were independent.
He is a bit stupid. He’s very kind, nevertheless.

Verbs of concession

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Example</th>
<th>Paraphrase and comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I acknowledge/accept that he has worked hard but it isn’t enough.</td>
<td>I agree but… [accept is less formal than acknowledge]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I admit I was wrong, but I still think we were right to doubt her.</td>
<td>I accept I’m guilty of what I’m accused of.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I concede that you are right about the goal, but not the method.</td>
<td>You have won this point in our argument. [formal]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Adverbs and other phrases for concession

OK, you’re sorry. That’s all well and good, but how are you going to pay us back?
You shouldn’t seem so surprised. After all, I did warn you.
It’s all very well saying you love dogs, but who’ll take it for walks if we do get one?
He is boring, and he is rather cold and unfriendly, but, for all that, he is your uncle and we should invite him.

Admittedly, she put a lot of effort in, but it was all wasted.

Contrast

Everywhere in Europe they use metric measures. In contrast, Britain still uses non-metric.
It’s not actually raining now. On the other hand, it may rain later, so take the umbrella.

Remember: On the other hand means ‘that is true and this is true’; On the contrary means ‘that is not true, but this is true’, e.g. John, quiet? On the contrary, he’s the noisiest person I know or John is rather arrogant. On the other hand, he can be very kind.

Note also these collocating phrases for contrast.

When it comes to politics, Jim and Ann are poles apart.
There’s a world of difference between being a friend and a lover.
A yawning gap divides rich and poor in many countries.
There’s a huge discrepancy between his ideals and his actions.
Exercises

23.1 Rewrite these sentences using the most likely verb from A opposite (there is usually more than one possibility).

1 I know that you weren’t solely to blame, but you must take some responsibility.
2 Okay, I was wrong, you were right; he is a nice guy.
3 The company is prepared to say that you have suffered some delay, but we do not accept liability.
4 She didn’t deny that we had done all we could, but she was still not content.

23.2 Write a beginning for these sentences, as in the example.

1 I expected Mary to be tall and dark. The reverse was true; she was short, with fair hair.
2 On the other hand, it does have a big garden, so I think we should rent it.
3 Jim: ...................................? Mary: On the contrary, it’s one of the cheapest hotels in town.
4 In contrast, the traffic in Britain drives on the left.
5 ...................................; quite the opposite. I feel quite full. I had a huge breakfast.

23.3 Try to do this word puzzle from memory. If you can’t, look at C opposite.

Across
1 a .................... gap
3 a .................... of difference
5 a .................... discrepancy
7 ..................... apart

Down
2 poles ....................
4 a great ....................
6 a yawning ....................

Now use the phrases from the word puzzle to make comments on these statements.

1 Some people believe in the nuclear deterrent, some in world disarmament.
2 She says one thing. She does quite the opposite.
3 Jim believes in God. Sandra’s a total atheist.
4 Being a student’s one thing; being a teacher’s quite another.

23.4 Complete the sentences with phrases from B opposite.

1 Okay, you’ve cleaned the kitchen, ....................., but what about the mess in the dining-room.
2 No need to panic, ....................., it doesn’t start till six.
3 She’s bossy and sly, but ....................., she is a friend.
4 ..................... saying you’ll pay me back soon; when is what I want to know!

23.5 Choose between on the other hand and on the contrary.

1 I’m not worried; ....................., I feel quite calm.
2 It’s expensive, but ....................., we do need it.
24 Addition

There are a number of ways of adding one idea to another in English. You probably already know words like and, also and too.

Adding words that begin or come in the middle of clauses/sentences

Further to my letter of 18/9/92, I am writing to... [formal opening for a letter]

In addition to his BA in History he has a Ph.D. in Sociology.

He’s on the school board, as well as being a local councillor.

Besides / Apart from having a salary, he also has a private income.

Alongside her many other hobbies she restores old racing cars.

Jo Evans was there, along with a few other people who I didn’t know.

Note: This last group are followed by nouns or by -ing. Do not say: As well as she speaks French, she also speaks Japanese. (You can say: As well as speaking French, she...)
Exercises

24.1 Fill the gaps in this letter with suitable adding words and phrases. Try to do it without looking at the opposite page.

Dear Mr Stoneheart

(1) my letter of 16.3.94, I should like to give you more information concerning my qualifications and experience. (2) holding a Diploma in Catering, I also have an Advanced Certificate in Hotel Management. The course covered the usual areas: finance, front services, publicity, space allocation, (3) I also wish to point out that, (4) holding these qualifications, I have now been working in the hotel trade for five years. (5) my experience prior to that was also connected with tourism and hospitality.

I hope you will give my application due consideration.

Yours sincerely

Nora Hope

24.2 Rewrite the sentences using the word or phrase in brackets at the end.

1 Physical labour can exhaust the body very quickly. Excessive study can rapidly reduce mental powers too. (equally)

4 She was my teacher and she was a good friend. (into the bargain)
5 I'm their scientific adviser and act as consultant to the Managing Director. (in addition to)

24.3 Correct the mistakes in the use of addition words and phrases in these sentences.

1 I work part-time as well as I am a student, so I have a busy life.
2 Besides to have a good job, my ambition is to meet someone nice to share my life with.
3 Alongside I have many other responsibilities, I now have to be in charge of staff training.
4 In addition has a degree, she also has a diploma.
5 Likewise my father won't agree, my mother's sure to find something to object to.
6 To boot she is a good footballer, she's a good athlete.
7 He said he'd have to first consider the organisation, then the system, then the finance and so forth so on.

24.4 What adding words/phrases can you associate with these pictures?

1 2 3 4

\begin{align*}
2 + 2 &= 4 \\

\]
Text-referring words are ones that pick up their content from the surrounding text. This sentence in isolation does not mean much:

We decided to look at the problem again and try to find a solution.

What problem? We need to refer to some other sentence or to the context to find out. Problem and solution help organise the argument of the text, but they do not tell us the topic of the text. They refer to something somewhere else.

Here are some examples. What the word in bold refers to is underlined.

Pollution is increasing. The problem is getting worse each day.

Should taxes be raised or lowered? This was the biggest issue in the election. [topic causing great argument and controversy]

Whether the war could have been avoided is a question that continues to interest historians.

Let’s discuss crime. It’s always an interesting topic. [subject to argue about or discuss, e.g. in a debate or in an essay]

Punishment is only one aspect of crime. [part of the topic]

Problem-solution words

Text-referring words are often associated with common patterns in text, such as the ‘problem-solution’ type of text. Note the words in bold connected with problems and solutions here and try to learn them as a family.

The situation in our cities with regard to traffic is going from bad to worse. Congestion is a daily feature of urban life. The problem is now beginning to affect our national economies. Unless a new approach is found to controlling the number of cars, we will never find a solution to the dilemma.

In this dialogue, two politicians are arguing on the radio. Note how the words in bold refer to parts of the argument.

A: Your claim that we are doing nothing to invest in industry is false. We invested £10 billion last year. You have ignored this fact.
B: But the investment has all gone to service industries. The real point is that we need to invest in manufacturing.
A: That argument is out of date in a modern technological society. Our position has always been that we should encourage technology.
B: But that view will not help to reduce unemployment.
A: Rubbish. Utter rubbish.

Here are some more words associated with problem-solution texts. They are grouped in families associated with the key-words in bold. The prepositions which are normally used with these words are given in brackets.

situation: state of affairs  position (with regard to) problem: difficulty [more formal]  crisis  matter response: reaction (to)  attitude (to) solution: answer (to)  resolution (to)  key (to)  way out (of) evaluation [of the solution]: assessment  judgement
Exercises

26 Uncountable words

Uncountable nouns are not normally used with a(n) or the plural, e.g. information, not an information, or some informations. It is a good idea to learn uncountable nouns in groups associated with the same subject or area. Here are some possible headings.

Travel

luggage accommodation money equipment information

Travel is also an uncountable noun, e.g. Travel broadens the mind.

Day-to-day household items soap toothpaste washing powder washing-up liquid polish paper

Food

The word food is uncountable. Try adding more uncountable words to this list.

sugar rice spaghetti butter flour soup

Some rather abstract words are uncountable

She gave me some advice on how to study for the exam.
I picked up some interesting knowledge on that course.
She’s made a lot of progress in a very short time.
She has done some research on marine life.
They’ve done a lot of work on the project.

Materials and resources

For making clothes, etc.: cloth (e.g. cotton, silk) leather wool
For buildings: stone brick plastic wood/timber concrete
For energy: coal oil petrol gas

Typical mistakes

Don’t say: What a terrible weather! She has long hairs. I have a news for you.
We bought some new furnitures. Say: What terrible weather! She has long hair. I have some news for you. We bought some new furniture. (See also Unit 27.)

Tip: always mark an uncountable noun with (U) in your vocabulary notebook, or write ‘some...’ or ‘a lot of...’ before it.
Exercises

26.1 Say whether these sentences need a(n) or not. Some of the nouns are not on the left-hand page. Use a dictionary that tells you whether the nouns are uncountable.

1 He gave us all advice on what to take with us.
2 I'm sorry. I can't come. I have homework to do.
3 She's doing investigation of teenage slang in English for her university project.
4 You'll need rice if you want to make a Chinese meal.
5 Paula getting divorced? That's interesting news!
6 I have to buy film for the holiday. I think I'll get about five rolls.
7 We saw cotton in Thailand.

26.2 Sort these words into two columns side by side, one for uncountables and one for countables. Then join the words which have similar meaning.

tip clothing case information job advice travel garment trip work baggage fact

26.3 Imagine you are going away for a week's holiday and you pack a suitcase with a number of things. Make a list of what you would pack and consider how many of the items on your list are uncountable nouns in English.

26.4 Correct the mistakes in these sentences.

1 We had such a terrible weather that we left the camp-site and got an accommodation in town instead.
2 In the North of England, most houses are made of stones, but in the South, bricks are more common.
3 I love antique furnitures, but I would need an advice from a specialist before I bought any. My knowledges in that area are very poor.
4 Her researches are definitely making great progresses these days. She has done a lot of original works recently.

26.5 Another area that has a number of uncountable words is personal qualities and skills. For example, we might say that a secretary should have intelligence, reliability, charm and enthusiasm. These are all uncountable nouns. Choose from the list and say what qualities these people should have. Say whether they need some, a lot or a bit of the quality. Use a dictionary for any difficult words.

Jobs: soldier nurse teacher explorer actor athlete writer surgeon receptionist

Qualities: patience courage determination goodwill charm stamina reliability loyalty energy experience commitment talent creativity intelligence training

26.6 Could I have...? Practise asking for these everyday items and decide whether you must say a or some.

```
vinegar duster needle thread sellotape tea-bag polish
27 Words that only occur in the plural

The architect inspected the foundations before declaring that the premises were safe.

The military authorities have established their headquarters in the old Town Hall.

The acoustics in the new opera-house are near-perfect.

The contents of the house were sold after her death.

Looks are less important than personality in a partner.

As you come to the outskirts of the village, there are traffic-lights. Turn left there.

The stairs are a bit dangerous; be careful.

The proceeds of the concert are going to the children's fund.

A terrorist has escaped from prison. Her whereabouts are unknown.

Words with plural form but used mostly with singular verbs

Names of some games: billiards dominoes draughts darts bowls

Names of subjects/activities: physics economics classics gymnastics aerobics athletics maths

Note: some words look plural but are not, e.g. series, means, news, spaghetti

There was a series of programmes on TV about Japan.

Is there a cheap means of transport I could use to get there?
Exercises

27.1 Make a list of (a) subjects you studied at school or elsewhere, and (b) your leisure interests. How many of the words are plural? Check the left-hand page or in a dictionary.

27.2 What things which are always plural can be used to:
1 cut a hedge? shears  5 get a splinter out of your skin?
2 weigh something?  6 look at distant objects?
3 cut paper?  7 get a nail out of a piece of wood?
4 hold your trousers up?  8 keep a prisoner’s hands together?

27.3 How many articles on the clothes line are plural nouns?

27.4 Fill the gaps with an appropriate plural-form noun.
1 (To a child) Come on! Get your __________________________ on! It’s time to go to bed.
2 The __________________________ of the rock concert are going to the international ‘Save the Children fund’.
3 The __________________________ in the new concert hall are superb. I’ve never heard such clear sound.
4 The escaped prisoner is tall, dark and has a beard. His __________________________ are unknown, but the search is continuing.
5 You don’t have to wear __________________________ to ride, but it’s much more comfortable.
6 The __________________________ have forbidden the import of all foreign __________________________.

27.5 Odd one out. In each of these groups, one of the nouns is always used in the plural. Which one?
1 wellington trouser slipper  3 knife scissor razor
2 billiard squash archery  4 tracksuit costume dungaree

27.6 In this little story, there are some nouns that should be plural but are not. Change the text where appropriate.
I decided that if I wanted to be a pop star I’d have to leave home and get lodging in London. I finally got a room, but it was on the outskirt of the city. The owner didn’t live on the premise, so I could make as much noise as I liked. The acoustic in the bathroom was fantastic, so I practised there. I made so much noise I almost shook the foundation! I went to the headquarter of the Musicians’ Union, but a guy there said I just didn’t have a good enough look to be famous. Oh well, never mind!
Countable and uncountable with different meanings

When we use a noun countably we are thinking of specific things; when we use it uncountably we are thinking of stuff or material or the idea of a thing in general.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>stuff/materials</th>
<th>things</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<tr>
<td>work</td>
<td>a work</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Be careful! there's broken glass on the road. I need a cloth to wipe the table. We had fish for dinner. Hamlet is one of Shakespeare's most famous works.

Here are some more nouns used in both ways. Make sure you know the difference between the uncountable and the countable meaning.

- drink / a drink
- hair / a hair
- paper / a paper
- land / a land
- people / a people
- home / a home
- policy / a policy
- trade / a trade

Drink was the cause of all his problems. [alcohol]
There's a hair in my sandwich, a dark one; it must be yours.
Did you buy a paper this morning? [a newspaper]
I love meeting people from different countries. [individuals]
The different peoples of Asia. [races / national groups]
Her grandmother lives in a home. [an institution]
I've lost my car insurance policy. [a document]
Trade with China has increased. [imports and exports]

The names of food items often have a different shade of meaning when used countably and uncountably (see fish above).

- coffee/tea → a coffee and two teas
- potato → just two potatoes, please!
- would you like some chocolate? → would you like a chocolate?
- salt and pepper → a pepper
- a hot dog with onion → an onion

English Vocabulary in Use

Words associated with certain animals

A flock of sheep or birds, e.g. geese/pigeons; a herd of cows, deer, goats; a shoal of fish (or any particular fish, e.g. a shoal of herring/mackerel – note the use of singular here); a swarm of insects (or any particular insect, most typically flying ones, e.g. a swarm of bees/gnats)

Note: a pack of... can be used for dogs or hyenas, wolves, etc. as well as for (playing) cards.

People involved in the same job/activity

A team of surgeons/doctors/experts/reporters/scientists/rescue-workers/detectives arrived at the scene of the disaster.

The crew were all saved when the ship sank. [workers on a ship]

The company are rehearsing a new production. [group of actors]

The cast were all amateurs. [actors in a particular production]

The staff are on strike. [general word for groups who share a place of work, e.g. teachers in a school, people in an office]

D Physical features of landscapes

- a row of cottages
- a clump of trees
- a range of hills

In the picture we can see a row of cottages near a clump of trees with a range of hills in the background. Out on the lake there is a small group of islands.

Things in general

- a pile/heap of papers (or clothes, dishes, toys, etc.)
- a bunch of flowers (or grapes, bananas, berries, etc.)
- a stack of chairs (or tables, boxes, logs, etc.)
- a set of tools (or pots and pans, etc.)
Exercises

29.1 Fill each gap with a suitable collective noun.

1. There are ......................... of mosquitoes in the forests in Scandinavia in the summer.

2. As we looked over the side of the boat, we saw a ......................... of brightly coloured fish swimming just below the surface.

3. There was a ......................... of youths standing on the corner; they didn’t look at all friendly.

4. You’ll see a ......................... of cards on the bookshelf. Will you fetch them for me, please?

5. The government has appointed a ......................... of biologists to look into the problem.

29.2 In each case, one of the examples is wrong. Which one?

1. Company is often used for: actors opera singers swimmers

2. Cast is often used for people in: a play a book a film

3. Crew is often used for the staff of: an ambulance a plane a hospital

4. Pack is often used for: cats hyenas wolves

5. Flock is often used for: sheep starlings pigs

29.3 Draw a line from the left-hand column to the right-hand column joining collective words with appropriate nouns, as in the example.

1. a clump of                       houses
2. a range of                       midges
3. a gang of                        fir-trees
4. a swarm of                       elephants
5. a row of                         bed-linen
6. a heap of                        mountains
7. a herd of                        schoolkids

29.4 Rewrite these sentences using collective words. Don’t forget to make the verb singular where necessary.

1. There are some tables on top of one another in the next room.

2. There are a large number of people waiting outside.

3. The people who work there are very well-paid.

4. A large number of sheep had escaped from a field.

5. She gave me six identical sherry glasses.

6. She gave me five or six beautiful roses.

29.5 Some collective nouns are associated with words about using language. Underline any you can see in this news text and make a note of them in your vocabulary notebook.

The journalists raised a whole host of questions about the actions of the police during the demonstration. There had been a barrage of complaints about police violence. The Chief of Police replied that he was not prepared to listen to a string of wild allegations without any evidence. In the end, he just gave a series of short answers that left everyone dissatisfied.
You can make many uncountable nouns singular by adding a bit of or a piece of. Similarly you can make such nouns plural with bits of or pieces of. (Bit is less formal than piece.)

She bought an attractive old piece of furniture at the auction sale.
How many pieces of luggage have you got with you?
I heard a really useful bit of information yesterday.
Chopin wrote some wonderful pieces of music.
Before you go to England I should give you two bits of advice...
He spends all his money buying new bits of computer equipment.

Although bit and piece can be used with the majority of uncountable nouns there are also a number of other words which can be used with specific uncountable nouns.

Weather
We have certainly had a good spell of summer weather this year.
Did you hear that rumble of thunder?
Yes, I did. It came almost immediately after the flash of lightning.
I heard a sharp clap of thunder, then a few rumbles in the distance.
A sudden gust of wind turned my umbrella inside out.
There was a sudden shower of rain this morning.
Did you feel a spot of rain?

Groceries

*Slice can also be used with toast, bread, meat and cheese.

Nature
Look at the ladybird on that blade of grass!
What’s happened? Look at that cloud of smoke hanging over the town!
She blew little puffs of smoke out of her cigarette straight into my face.
Let’s go out and get a breath of fresh air.
Put another lump of coal on the fire, please.  [lump can also be used with ‘sugar’]

Other
I had an amazing stroke of luck this morning.
I’ve never seen him do a stroke of work.  [only in negative sentences]
I’ve never seen him in such a fit of temper before.
The donkey is the basic means of transport on the island.
Tights must be the most useful article/item of clothing ever invented.
There was an interesting item of news about France on TV last night.

The phrase a state of can serve to make uncountable nouns singular. The nouns used with state are usually abstract and include chaos, emergency, tension, confusion, health, disorder, uncertainty, poverty, agitation, disrepair and flux, e.g. a state of emergency.
Exercises

30.1 Match the words in the list on the left with their partner on the right.

1 a stroke                  lightning
2 a shower                  coal
3 an article                grass
4 a lump                    news
5 a flash                   rain
6 a blade                   clothing
7 an item                   thunder
8 a rumble                  luck

30.2 Change the uncountable nouns to countable nouns in the following sentences by using either a bit/piece of or one of the more specific words listed in B opposite.

Example: Could you buy me some bread, please? Could you buy me a loaf of bread, please?

1 My mother gave me some advice which I have always remembered.
2 Suddenly the wind almost blew him off his feet.
3 We had some terribly windy weather last winter.
4 Would you like some more toast?
5 He never does any work at all in the house.
6 Let's go into the garden – I need some fresh air.
7 I can give you some important information about that.
8 We could see smoke hovering over the city from a long way away.
9 There is some interesting new equipment in that catalogue.
10 I need to get some furniture for my flat.

30.3 Use words from C opposite to fit the clues for the puzzle below.

1 The government announced a state of .............. after the earthquake.
2 My granny wouldn't be in such a bad state of .............. now if she hadn't smoked all her life.
3 We fell in love with the house although it was in a dreadful state of ..............
4 We are still in a state of .............. as to who has won the election.
5 Although this is supposed to be an affluent society, more people are living in a state of .............. here now than for the last 50 years.

30.4 Make up a puzzle of your own like the one above using the language practised in this unit. If possible, test a friend.

30.5 Now decide who or what might be in the following states and write your own sentences using these expressions.

1 chaos    2 flux    3 confusion    4 tension

(See also Unit 32 for more weather words.)
Countries, nationalities and languages

Using ‘the’

Most names of countries are used without ‘the’, but some countries and other names have ‘the’ before them, e.g. The USA, The United Kingdom / UK, The Commonwealth.

Some countries may be referred to with or without ‘the’ (the) Lebanon, (the) Gambia, (the) Ukraine, (the) Sudan.

Adjectives referring to countries and languages

With -ish: British Irish Flemish Danish Turkish Spanish
With -(i)an: Canadian Brazilian American Russian Australian
With -ese: Japanese Chinese Guyanese Burmese Maltese Taiwanese
With -i: Israeli Iraqi Kuwaiti Pakistani Yemeni Bangladeshi
With -ic: Icelandic Arabic

Some, adjectives are worth learning separately e.g. Swiss, Thai, Greek, Dutch, Cypriot.

Nationalities

Some nationalities have nouns for referring to people, e.g. a Finn, a Swede, a Turk, a Spaniard, a Dane, a Briton, an Arab. For most nationalities we can use the adjective as a noun, e.g. a German, an Italian, a Belgian, a Catalan, a Greek, an African. Some need woman/man/person added to them (you can’t say ‘a Dutch’), so if in doubt, use them, e.g. a Dutch man, a French woman, an Irish person, an Icelandic man.

World regions

Peoples and races

People belong to ethnic groups and regional groups such as Afro-Caribbeans, Asians and Orientals and Latin Americans. What are you? (e.g. North African, Southern African, European, Melanesian)

They speak dialects as well as languages. Everyone has a [mother tongue or first language; many have second and third languages. Some people are perfect in more than one language and are bilingual or multilingual.

name: Wanija Krishnamurthan  second/third languages: English, Malay nationality: Malaysian   type or dialect of English: Malaysian mother tongue: Tamil (S. India)   ethnic group: Asian (Tamil Indian)
Exercises

31.1 Ways of learning nationality and language adjectives. Some adjectives can form regional groups, e.g. Latin American countries are almost all described by -(i)an adjectives.
1 Complete this list of Latin American adjectives. Look at a world map if you have to. Brazilian, Chilean,...
2 The same applies to former European socialist countries and parts of the former Soviet Union. Complete the list. Hungarian, Armenian,...
3 What other regional groupings can you see on the left-hand page? (e.g. many -ish adjectives are European)

31.2 Famous names. Can you name a famous...

Example: Argentinian sportsman or woman? Diego Maradonna
1 Chinese politician?
2 Black Southern African political figure?
3 Polish person who became a world religious leader?
4 Italian opera singer?
5 Irish rock-music group?

31.3 All these nationality adjectives have a change in stress and/or pronunciation from the name of the country. Make sure you can pronounce them. Use a dictionary for any you don't know. Use phonetic script if possible (see Unit 5).

Example: Iran → Iranian /ɪrænɪən/ (US = /ɪræniən/)
1 Panama → Panamanian
2 Cyprus → Cypriot
3 Ghana → Ghanaian
4 Jordan → Jordanian
5 Egypt → Egyptian
6 Fiji → Fijian

31.4 Correct the mistakes in these newspaper headlines.

1 Madonna to marry a French? Hollywood sensation!
2 Britains have highest tax rate in EC
3 Vietnamese refugees leave Hong Kong camps
4 POLICE ARREST DANISH SMUGGLING CHARGE
5 Iraqi delegation meets Pakistani Presiden

31.5 World quiz
1 What are the main ethnic groups in Malaysia?
2 Which countries, strictly speaking, are in Scandinavia?
3 What are the five countries with the highest population?
4 How many languages are there in the world?
5 Where is Kiribati?
6 Where do people speak Inuit?
7 What are the five most widely spoken languages?

Follow-up: Make sure you can describe your nationality, country, region, ethnic group, language(s), etc. in English.
32 The weather

Cold weather

In Scandinavia, the chilly (1) days of autumn soon change to the cold days of winter. The first frosts (2) arrive and the roads become icy. Rain becomes sleet (3) and then snow, at first turning to slush (4) in the streets, but soon settling (5), with severe blizzards (6) and snowdrifts (7) in the far north. Freezing weather often continues in the far north until May or even June, when the ground starts to thaw (8) and the ice melts (9) again.

(1) cold, but not very (2) thin white coat of ice on everything (3) rain and snow mixed (4) dirty, brownish, half-snow, half-water (5) staying as a white covering (6) snow blown by high winds (7) deep banks of snow against walls, etc. (8) change from hard, frozen state to normal (9) change from solid to liquid under heat

Warm/hot weather

close /kləus/ [warm and uncomfortable] stifling [hot, uncomfortable, you can hardly breathe] humid [hot and damp, makes you sweat a lot] scorching [very hot, often used in positive contexts] boiling [very hot, often used in negative contexts] mild [warm at a time when it is normally cold] Note also: We had a heatwave last month. [very hot, dry period]

Wet weather

damp ← drizzle ← pour down / downpour ← torrential rain ← flood

Autumn in London is usually chilly and damp with rain and drizzle.
It was absolutely pouring down. or There was a real downpour.
In the Tropics there is usually torrential rain most days, and the roads often get flooded.
or There are floods on the roads.
This rain won’t last long; it’s only a shower. [short duration]
The storm damaged several houses. [high winds and rain together]
We got very wet in the thunderstorm. [thunder and heavy rain]
Hailstones were battering the roof of our car. [small balls of ice falling from the sky].
Note also hail (uncountable).
The sky’s a bit overcast; I think it’s going to rain. [very cloudy]
We had a drought /draut/ last summer. It didn’t rain for six weeks.

Mist and fog

Nouns and adjectives: haze/hazy [light mist, usually caused by heat] mist/misty [light fog, often on the sea, or caused by drizzle] fog/foggy [quite thick, associated with cold weather] smog [mixture of fog and pollution (smoke + fog)]

Wind

There was a gentle breeze on the beach, just enough to cool us.
There’s a good wind today; fancy going sailing?
It’s a very blustery day; the umbrella will just blow away.
There’s been a gale warning; it would be crazy to go sailing.
People boarded up their windows when they heard there was a hurricane on the way.

Exercises

32.1 Match each word with a word from the box.
1 thunder  2 torrential  3 down  4 heat  5 hail  6 snow  7 gale stones  drift  storm  warning  rain  wave  pour

32.2 Fill the gaps with words from the left-hand page.
My first experience of real winter weather was when I went to Northern Canada. I was used to the sort of snow that falls in London, which quickly turns into brown .................. (1) with all the people walking on it. In fact, most of the time I was in London, it didn’t really snow properly, it was mostly ....................... (2). Apart from that, British winters meant a bit of white .................. (3) on my garden and occasionally having to drive very carefully on icy roads early in the morning. I had never experienced the ....................... (4) and ....................... (5) that can paralyse a whole city in less than an hour and close roads completely. However, when the earth finally ....................... (6) and all the snow ....................... (7) away in spring, everything comes to life again and looks more beautiful than ever.

32.3 What kinds of weather do you think caused the following to happen? Write a sentence which could go before each of these.
1 We had to sit in the shade every afternoon.
2 The sweat was pouring out of us.
3 I can hardly breathe; I wish it would rain to cool us down.
4 Cars were skidding out of control.
5 Even the postman had to use a boat to get around.
6 They had to close the airport; the snow was a metre deep.
7 We were able to sit in the garden in the middle of winter.
8 The earth became rock-hard and a lot of plants died.
9 It blew the newspaper clean out of my hands.
10 A row of big trees had been uprooted like matchsticks.
11 I could hardly see my hand in front of my face.

32.4 What types of weather are bad and good for doing these things?
Example: Skiing  bad: mild weather which makes the snow melt  good: cold, clear days

English Vocabulary in Use 65
Describing people – appearance

A Hair, face, skin and complexion

- straight hair and thin-faced
- wavy hair and round-faced
- curly hair and dark-skinned
- a crew-cut
- bald with freckles
- beard and moustache with a chubby face
- receding hair and a few wrinkles

He used to have black hair but now it’s gone grey, almost white.

What sort of person would you like to go out with? Blonde, fair, dark or ginger-haired/red-haired?

She has such beautiful auburn hair. [red-brown]

Fair and dark can be used for hair, complexion or skin.

B Height and build

- a rather plump or stout man [positive]
- a slim woman
- an obese person [negative, very fat]

Fat may sound impolite. Instead we often say a bit overweight. If someone is broad and solid, we can say they are stocky. A person with good muscles can be well-built or muscular. If someone is terribly thin and refuses to eat, they may be anorexic.

C General appearance

She’s a very smart and elegant woman, always well-dressed; her husband is quite the opposite, very scruffy and untidy-looking.

He’s very good-looking, but his friend’s rather unattractive.

Do you think beautiful women are always attracted to handsome men? I don’t. I think first impressions matter most.

Tip: The suffix -ish is useful for describing people: (see Unit 8)

She’s tallish. He has brownish hair. He must be thirtyish.
Exercises

33.1 Answer these remarks with the opposite description.

Example: A: I thought you said he was the short, chubby one.
B: No, quite the opposite, he’s the tall, thin-faced one.

1 A: Was that his brother, the dark-skinned, wavy-haired one?
B: No, quite the opposite, his brother’s...

2 A: She’s always quite well-dressed, so I’ve heard.
B: What! Who told you that? Every time I see her, she’s...

3 A: So Charlene’s that rather plump fair-haired woman, is she?
B: No, you’re looking at the wrong one. Charlene’s...

4 A: So, tell us about the new boss; good looking?
B: No, I’m afraid not; rather...

5 A: I don’t know why, but I expected the tour-guide to be middle-aged or elderly.
B: No, apparently she’s only...

33.2 Write one sentence to describe each of these people, giving information about their hair and face, their height and build and general appearance.

1 you yourself
2 your best friend
3 a neighbour
4 your ideal of a handsome man/a beautiful woman

Now, in the same way, describe somebody very famous, give some extra clues about them, e.g. pop star/politician, and see if someone else can guess who you are describing.

33.3 From these jumbled words, find combinations for describing people, as in the example. Not all of the words are on the left-hand page. Some of the combinations are hyphenated. Use a dictionary if necessary. Example: good-looking looking, stocky, long, round, haired, good, aged, build, dressed, legged middle, over, well, mixed, red, weight, race, tanned

33.4 WANTED! MISSING! Complete the gaps in these police posters.

WANTED FOR MURDER
Ian Prowse, height 6ft.

Wanted for Robbery
Sandra King
height 5ft 4,

Missing
Louise Fox age 7, Asian

Wanted dead or alive
Jake ‘Dagger’ Flagstone, 6ft

33.5 Make a collection of descriptions of people from newspapers and magazines. Court/crime reports, celebrity and gossip pages of magazines, and the ‘personal’ columns where people are seeking partners are good places to start.
34 Describing people – character

Intellectual ability

Ability: intelligent bright clever smart shrewd able gifted talented brainy (colloquial)
Lacking ability: stupid foolish half-witted simple silly brainless daft dumb dim (the last four are predominantly colloquial words)
Clever, in a negative way, using brains to trick or deceive: cunning crafty sly

Attitudes towards life

Looking on either the bright or the black side of things: optimistic pessimistic
Outward-looking or inward-looking (i.e. to the world around one or to one’s own inner world): extroverted introverted
Calm or not calm with regard to attitude to life: relaxed tense
Practical, not dreamy in approach to life: sensible down-to-earth
Feeling things very intensely: sensitive

Attitudes towards other people

Enjoying others’ company: sociable gregarious
Disagreeing with others: quarrelsome argumentative
Taking pleasure in others’ pain: cruel sadistic
Relaxed in attitude to self and others: easy-going even-tempered
Not polite to others: impolite rude ill-mannered discourteous Telling the truth to others: honest trustworthy reliable sincere Unhappy if others have what one does not have oneself: jealous envious

One person’s meat is another person’s poison

Some characteristics can be either positive or negative depending on your point of view. The words in the right-hand column mean roughly the same as the words in the left-hand column except that they have negative rather than positive connotations.

| determined | obstinate stubborn pig-headed |
| thrifty/economical | miserly mean tight-fisted |
| self-assured | self-important arrogant full of oneself (colloquial) |
| assertive | aggressive bossy (colloquial) |
| original | peculiar weird eccentric odd |
| frank/direct/open | blunt abrupt brusque curt |
| broad-minded | unprincipled permissive |
| inquiring | inquisitive nosy (colloquial) |
| generous | extravagant |
| innocent | naive |
| ambitious | pushy (colloquial) |

(See also Units 12, 73 and 78.)
Exercises

34.1 Match these words with their opposites.
1 clever int0verted
2 extroverted tight-fisted
3 rude courteous
4 cruel gregarious
5 generous kind-hearted
6 unsociable half-witted

34.2 Do you think that the speaker likes or dislikes the people s/he is talking about?
1 Di's very thrifty. 5 Dick's quite bossy.
2 Molly's usually frank. 6 I find Dave self-important.
3 Liz's quite broad-minded 7 Don't you think Jim's nosy?
4 Sam can be aggressive. 8 Jill is very original.

34.3 Reword the sentences above to give the opposite impression. Example: Di's very stingy.

34.4 Magazines often publish questionnaires which are supposed to analyse your character for you. Look at the words below and then match them to the question which aims to decide whether a person is like that.

Example: If you arrange to meet at 7 p.m., do you arrive at 7 p.m.? Reliable pessimistic argumentative sensitive sociable extravagant assertive inquisitive

1 Do you prefer to be in the company of other people?
2 Look at the picture. Do you think 'my glass is half empty'?
3 Do you find it easy to tell your boss if you feel he or she has treated you badly?
4 Do you always look out of the window if you hear a car draw up?
5 Do you often buy your friends presents for no particular reason?
6 Do you frequently disagree with what other people say?
7 Do you lie awake at night if someone has said something unkind to you?

34.5 What questions like those in 34.4 could you ask to try to find out whether a person is the following:
1 thrifty 3 sensible 5 even-tempered 7 obstinate
2 blunt 4 intelligent 6 original

34.6 Can you complete each of these word forks?
1 self- 2 -tempered 3 -minded

Write a sentence to illustrate the meanings of each of your words.

34.7 Choose five or six adjectives from the opposite page which you think best describe either your own or a friend's character. How do you or your friend demonstrate these characteristics? Example: Sociable - I am sociable because I love being with other people.
35 Relationships

Types of relationships

Here is a scale showing closeness and distance in relationships in different contexts.

CLOSER  ---  MORE DISTANT friendship:  best friend  good friend  friend  acquaintance work:  close colleague  colleague/workmate love/romance:  lover  steady boy/girlfriend  ex-* marrige:  wife/husband/partner  ex-*

* ex- can be used with or without (informally) another word: She’s my ex. (girlfriend, etc.)

Mate is a colloquial word for a good friend. It can also be used in compounds to describe a person you share something with, e.g. classmate, shipmate, workmate, flatmate.

Workmate is usual in non-professional contexts; colleague is more common among professional people.

Fiancé/ée can still be used for someone you are engaged to, but a lot of people feel it is dated nowadays. You will sometimes see husband-/wife-to-be in journalistic style.

English has no universally accepted word for ‘person I live with but am not married to’, but partner is probably the commonest.

Liking and not liking someone

<td>fancy</td>
<td>turn s.b. off</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

She doesn’t just like Bob she idolises him! I can’t stand him.
I really fancy Lisa, but her friend just turns me off.

Fancy and turn off are informal. Repel is very strong and rather formal.

Phrases and idioms for relationships

Jo and I get on well with each other.  [have a good relationship]
Adrian and Liz don’t see eye to eye.  [often argue/disagree]
I’ve fallen out with my parents again.  [had arguments]
Tony and Jane have broken up / split up.  [ended their relationship]
George is having an affair with his boss.  [a sexual relationship, usually secret]
Children should respect their elders.  [adults/parents, etc.]
Let’s try and make it up.  [be friends again after a row]

(See Unit 69 for more words relating to likes and dislikes.)
Exercises

35.1 Use words with the suffix -mate to resay or rewrite these sentences.

1. This is Jack. He and I share a flat.
2. My grandad still writes to his old friends he was at sea with.
3. We were in the same class together in 1978, weren’t we?
4. She’s not really a friend, she’s just someone I work with.

35.2 How many relationships can you find between the people in column A and column B, using words from the left-hand page?

Example: John Silver and Lorna Fitt were once colleagues.

A
Josh Yates: politician, was married to Eve Cobb 1973–1980. Met Bill Nash a couple of times.
Ana Wood: has lived as a couple (unmarried) with Bill Nash for the last five years.

B
Nora Costa: was in UK Olympic swimming team in 1982. Was in same class at school as Ada Brigg.
Bill Nash: works every day with John Silver. Shared a flat years ago with Eve Cobb.
Fred Parks: politician. Knew Ada Brigg years ago, but not very well.

35.3 Liking and disliking. Using the verbs, phrases and idioms opposite, what sort of relations do you think the people on the left might have with the people on the right?

1. teenage music fan parents, pop star, strict teacher, mate
2. secretary, another secretary, boss, very attractive workmate
3. 45-year-old, teenagers, ex-husband/wife

35.4 The person who typed this book has got some of the phrases and idioms opposite mixed up with one another. Correct them.

1. Jo and Phil don’t get on eye to eye with each other.
2. I fell up with my parents last night. It wasn’t my fault.
3. We had a quarrel but now we’ve made it well.
4. Do you think Jim and Nora are making an affair? I do.
5. I see very well with all my colleagues at work.
6. She should learn to respect her olders.
7. Jo’s attractive, but her mate just turns me up completely.

English Vocabulary in Use 71
Places in the home

You probably already know the names of most rooms and locations in a typical home. Here are some less common ones and what they are for.

utility room: usually just for washing machine, freezer, etc.
shed: small building separated from the house usually for storing garden tools attic: room in the roof space of a house (could be lived in) loft: space in the roof of a house usually used only for storage cellar: room below ground level, no windows, used for storage basement: room below ground level, windows, for living/working landing: flat area at the top of a staircase hall: open area as you come into a house porch: covered area before an entrance-door pantry or larder: large cupboard (usually big enough to walk into) for storing food terrace or patio: paved area between house and garden for sitting and eating, etc.
study: a room for reading/writing/studying in Small objects about the home

Ordinary, everyday objects are often difficult to name and are often not listed in dictionaries. Here is just a sample of such words.

remote control power-point and plug table-mat coaster corkscrew teatowel washing-up liquid grater ironing-board dust-pan and brush bin-liners mop

Types of house/places people live detached house: not joined to any other house semi-detached house (informal: semi-): joined to one other house terraced house: joined to several houses to form a row cottage: small house in the country or in a village bungalow: house with only one storey (no upstairs) bedsit: bedroom and living room all in one villa: large house with big gardens or a rented house in a holiday resort/tourist area time-share: holiday flat or house where you have the right to live one or two weeks a year

Tip: If you visit an English-speaking country, go to a supermarket and look at the names of ordinary, everyday things for the home. This is often a good way of getting vocabulary that just does not appear in dictionaries.
Exercises

36.1 Where in a typical house would you look for the following things?
   1 a rake       5 suitcases       9 a grater
   2 cutlery      6 a tumble-dryer   10 old empty boxes
   3 dental floss 7 a power point
   4 a coat-hanger 8 a porch

36.2 Fill in the room and place labels on the plan of the house.

36.3 Fill the gaps with a suitable word.
   1 I’ve got a darkroom in the .................. where I develop films. It’s perfect because there are no windows down there.
   2 Is there a .................. where I can plug in this radio?
   3 You’d better have a .................. under your drink in case you mark that side-table. It’s an antique.
   4 The waste-bin’s full again. I’ll empty it. Are there any more ..................?
   5 We keep our skis up in the .................. during the summer. They’re out of the way up there.
   6 You’ll find the garden-chairs in the .................. at the bottom of the garden. Bring them up and we’ll have a drink on the .................. and watch the sunset.
   7 The light-switch for the stairs is on the .................. as you come out of your bedroom.
   8 I’ve moved to a .................. now as I found I couldn’t manage the stairs any more at my age.

36.4 Answer these questions about yourself and, if possible, find out how someone else would answer them.
   1 Is your house detached? What sort is it if not?
   2 Are time-shares common in any part of your country?
   3 Do houses still have pantries in your country?
   4 Is it common to rent bedsits in your country? If so, what sorts of people do so?

36.5 Everyday objects.
   1 How can you make very small pieces of cheese to sprinkle on a dish?
   2 What might you fetch if someone dropped a saucer and it broke into small pieces on the floor?
   3 What could you put under a dinner plate to prevent it marking the table?
   4 How can you switch off the TV without leaving your chair?
37 Everyday problems

Things that go wrong in houses and flats

The lights are not working there must be a power-cut.

Oh no! The bathroom’s flooded! Get a mop, quick!

The kitchen door-handle’s come off.

The batteries have run out. I’ll have to get some more.

The washing machine broke down the other day. I’ll have to wash by hand.

Oh dear! This chair’s broken. I wonder how that happened?

This pipe’s leaking.

I’m sorry, your cup’s chipped.

Everyday minor injuries

Sharon fell down and cut her knee this morning.

I bumped/banged my head against the cupboard door and got a bruise.

She twisted her ankle coming down the stairs.

Other everyday problems

I’ve mislaid Bob’s letter. Have you seen it anywhere? [put it somewhere and can’t find it]

She spilt some coffee on the carpet. I hope it doesn’t stain. [leave a permanent mark]

I overslept this morning and was half an hour late for work.

I’ve locked myself out. Can I use your phone to ring my wife? The car won’t start. I hope it’s nothing serious.

The kitchen clock’s slow/fast/stopped. What time d’you make it?
Exercises

37.1 What do you think happened to make these people do/say what they did?

Example: We had to send for a plumber. Maybe a pipe was leaking/the lavatory was flooded.

1 I had to call out our local mechanic.
2 Our neighbours let us use their washing machine.
3 Don’t worry, it often does that; I’ll screw it back on.
4 Come here and I’ll put a plaster on it.
5 How many batteries does it take? I’ll get some for you.
6 I don’t know where you’ve put them. Try the bedside table.

37.2 Odd one out. Which of the three words is the odd one out in each case?

Example: spill flood chip chip – the other two involve liquids.

1 break down smash break 3 leak come off chip
2 run out stain stop 4 cut bruise flood

37.3 What would you do if...

1 you mislaid your credit card?
2 you noticed your guest’s glass was chipped?
3 one of your coat-buttons came off?
4 your TV set broke down?
5 you bruised your forehead?
6 your watch was slow?

37.4 Here is a matrix. There are the names of things and things that can go wrong with them. Not all of the words are on the left-hand page. Use a dictionary for any you are not sure of. Put just one tick (✓) along each horizontal line, for things that most typically go together, as in the example.

</tr>
<tr>
<td>college or polytechnic or university</td>
<td>further/higher (18+)</td>
<td>degrees/diplomas in specialised academic areas</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: Comprehensive schools in the UK are for all abilities, but grammar schools are usually by competitive entry. Public schools in the UK are very famous private schools. Polytechnics are similar to universities, but the courses tend to be more practically-oriented. Colleges include teacher-training colleges, technical colleges and general colleges of further education.

Exams and qualifications

- take/do/sit/resit an exam
- pass / do well in an exam
- fail / do badly in an exam

Before an exam it's a good idea to revise for it.

If you skip classes/lectures, you'll probably do badly in the exam. [informal; miss deliberately]

Some schools give pupils tests every week or month to see if they are making progress. The school-leaving exams are held in May/June. In some schools, colleges and universities, instead of tests and exams there is continuous assessment, with marks, e.g. 65%, or grades, e.g. A, B+, for essays and projects during the term. If you pass your university exams, you graduate /'grædjuət/ (get a degree), then you're a graduate /'grædjuət/.

Talking about education

Asking somebody about their country's education system.

- What age do children start school at?
- What's the school-leaving age?
- Are there evening classes for adults?
- Do you have state and private universities?
- Do students get grants for further education?

Note: A professor is a senior university academic, not an ordinary teacher. University and college teachers are usually called lecturers or tutors.
Exercises

39.1 Make a table for the various stages and types of education in your country, like the table at A opposite. How does it compare with the UK system and with the system in other countries represented in your class or that you know of? The arts

Things which generally come under the heading of 'the arts'

- novels
- drama
- dance
- cinema
- theatre
- short stories
- biographies
- poetry
- opera
- performing arts (ballet)
- painting
- fine art(s)
- sculpture

We often also include architecture and ceramics within the arts.

The arts (plural) covers everything in the network. Art (singular, uncountable) usually means fine art, but can also refer to technique and creativity.

Have you read the arts page in The Times today?
She's a great art lover.
Shakespeare was skilled in the art of poetry.

Dance usually refers to modern artistic dance forms; ballet usually has a more traditional feel, unless we say modern ballet. Remember: a novel is a long story, e.g. 200–300 pages; a short prose fiction, e.g. 10 pages, is a short story.

Use of the definite article

When we refer to a performing art in general, we can leave out the article.

Are you interested in (the) cinema/ballet/opera/theatre?
Would you like to come to the cinema/ballet/opera/theatre with us next week?

Describing a performance

We went to see a new production of Hamlet last night. The sets (1) were incredibly realistic and the costumes (2) were wonderful. It was a good cast (3) and I thought the direction (4) was excellent. Anthony O'Donnell gave a marvellous performance (5). It got rave reviews (6) in the papers today.

(1) scenery, buildings, furniture on the stage or in a studio
(2) clothes the actors wear on stage
(3) all the actors in it
(4) the way the director had organised the performance
(5) and (6) note these typical collocations; (6) means 'got very enthusiastic comments'

Words connected with events in the arts

There's an exhibition (Am. Eng.: exhibit) of paintings by Manet on in London.
They're going to publish a new edition of the works of Cervantes next year.
The Opera Society are doing a performance of Don Giovanni.
Our local cinema's showing Bergman's Persona next week.

Note: What's on at the cinema/theatre, etc. next week?
Exercises

42.1 Which branch of the arts do you think these people are talking about?
Example: ‘It was a strong cast but the play itself is weak.’ Theatre
1 ‘It’s called Peace. It stands in the main square.’
2 ‘Animation doesn’t have to be just Disney, you know.’
3 ‘It was just pure movement, with very exciting rhythms.’
4 ‘It doesn’t have to rhyme to be good.’
5 ‘Oils to me don’t have the delicacy of water-colours.’
6 ‘Her design for the new shopping centre won an award.’
7 ‘I read them and imagine what they’d be like on stage.’
8 ‘The first chapter was boring but it got better later.’
9 ‘I was falling asleep by the second act.’

42.2 Definite article or not? Fill the gap with the if necessary.
1 The government doesn’t give enough money to ............... arts.
2 She’s got a diploma in ............... dance from the Performing Arts Academy.
3 I’ve got some tickets for ............... ballet. Interested?
4 ............... art of writing a short story is to interest the reader from the very first line.
5 I can’t stand ............... modern poetry; it’s so pretentious.
6 I was no good at ............... art at school. What about you?

42.3 Each one of these sentences contains a mistake of usage of words connected with the arts. Find the mistake and correct it. You may need a dictionary.
Example: The scene at this theatre projects right out into the audience.
not ‘scene’ but ‘stage’ (the place where the actors perform)
1 What’s the name of the editorial of that book you recommended? Was it Cambridge University Press?
2 ‘I wandered lonely as a cloud’ is my favourite verse of English poetry.
3 He’s a very famous sculpture; he did that statue in the park, you know, the one with the soldiers.
4 Most of the novels in this collection are only five or six pages long. They’re great for reading on short journeys.
5 There’s an exposition of ceramic at the museum next week.
6 The sceneries are excellent in that new production of Macbeth, so dark and mysterious.
7 What’s in the Opera House next week? Anything interesting?

42.4 Ask questions for which these remarks would be suitable answers.
Example: It’s an oil on canvas. What sort of painting is it?
1 Yes, it got rave reviews.
2 No, I’m not really a concert-goer, but thanks anyway.
3 Oh, some beautiful old buildings and some ugly new ones.
4 The cast were fine, but the direction was weak.
5 A new Hungarian film; fancy going to see it?

Follow-up: Make sure you can name all the parts of a typical theatre in English. A picture-dictionary might help you.

Look at this encyclopaedia entry about Iceland and note any words that refer to particular features of the environment.

Iceland An island republic in the North Atlantic. The landscape consists largely of barren plains and mountains, with large ice fields particularly in the southwest. The island has active volcanoes and is known for its thermal springs and geysers. With less than 1% of the land suitable for growing crops, the nation's economy is based on fishing, and fish products account for 80% of the exports. Area: 103,000 km², Population: 227,000. Capital: Reykjavik.

Here are some other nouns which are useful when talking about the environment. Check their meanings with a dictionary if necessary.

- Where land meets sea: coast shore beach estuary cliff cape peninsula
- Words connected with rivers: source tributary waterfall mouth valley gorge
- Words connected with mountains: foot ridge peak summit glacier

There are many environmental problems in the world today. Check with a dictionary if you do not know any of the terms below.

- air, river and sea pollution
- overfishing
- the greenhouse effect
- the destruction of the ozone layer
- destruction of the rainforests
- battery farming
- waste disposal
- overpopulation
Exercises

44.1 Label the pictures below.

44.2 In the paragraph below all the instances of the have been omitted. Insert them wherever they are necessary.

Brazil is fifth largest country in world. In north densely forested basin of River Amazon covers half country. In east country is washed by Atlantic. Highest mountain chain in South America, Andes, does not lie in Brazil. Brazil’s most famous city is Rio de Janeiro, former capital. Capital of Brazil today is Brasilia.

44.3 Can you answer the following general knowledge questions about the environment?
1. What is the highest mountain in Africa?
2. What is the longest river in Europe?
3. Where is the highest waterfall in the world?
4. Name another country, apart from Iceland, which has geysers and hot springs.
5. What is a delta and which famous river has one?
6. Where are the Straits of Gibraltar and the Cape of Good Hope?

44.4 Complete the paragraph below about your own country, or any other country that interests you. Remember to use ‘the’ whenever it is necessary.

(1) is a (2) in (3). The countryside is (4) in the north and (5) in the south. The country’s economy is based on (6). The best-known river in (7) is (8). The most famous chain of mountains is (9) and the highest mountain in that chain is (10), (11) is a major environmental problem in (12) today.

44.5 Give two nouns from the opposite page to go with the adjectives below. Try not to repeat any of the nouns you choose.

Example: sandy beach/shore

1 sandy 2 steep 3 shallow 4 rocky 5 turbulent 6 dangerous

44.6 Why do environmentalists say we should avoid spray cans, practise organic farming and use unleaded petrol, recycled paper and bottle banks? What else are they in favour of?
Look at this description of Cork, one of Ireland's main towns. Underline any words or phrases that might be useful for describing your own or any other town.

Cork city is the major metropolis of the south; indeed with a population of about 135,000 it is the second largest city in the Republic. The main business and shopping centre of the town lies on the island created by two channels of the River Lee, with most places within walking distance of the centre. (The buses tend to be overcrowded and the one-way traffic system is fiendishly complicated.) In the hilly area of the city is the famous Shandon Steeple, the bell-tower of St Anne's Church, built on the site of a church destroyed when the city was besieged by the Duke of Marlborough. Back across the River Lee lies the city's cathedral, an imposing 19th century building in the French Gothic style. Cork has two markets. Neither caters specifically for tourists but those who enjoy the atmosphere of a real working market will appreciate their charm. The Crawford Art Gallery is well worth a visit. It regularly mounts adventurous exhibitions by contemporary artists. The fashionable residential districts of Cork city overlook the harbour. There are other residential areas on the outskirts.

Towns can be convenient places to live in because they have many facilities. Check with a teacher or a dictionary if you are not sure what anything means.

Sports: swimming pool sports centre golf course tennis courts football pitch skating rink
Cultural: theatre opera house concert hall radio station art gallery
Educational: school college university library evening classes museum
Catering and night-life: restaurant cafe nightclub take-away hotel
B and B (bed and breakfast) youth hostel dance-hall disco
Transport: bus service taxi rank car hire agency car park parking meters
Other: health centre law courts registry office citizens' advice bureau job centre bottle bank department store chemist's estate agent garden centre police station Town or City Hall suburbs housing estate industrial estate pedestrian precinct

Towns also have their own special problems. Here are some to be found in London now.

Traffic jams: every day, particularly in the rush-hour, the streets get so packed with traffic that travel is very slow or even comes to a standstill. This is particularly stressful for commuters, people who travel to work in the town
Slums: certain parts of the city which are poor and in a very bad condition
Vandalism: pointless destruction of other people's property
Overcrowding: too many people live in too small a place Pollution: the air and the water are no longer as pure as they were Crime: see Unit 55

Here are some useful adjectives for describing towns.

picturesque historic spacious elegant magnificent atmospheric quaint lively hectic deserted (e.g. at night) bustling crowded packed filthy run-down shabby
Exercises

45.1 Check that you understand the text about Cork by answering the following questions.
1 Where is Cork?
2 Where is the shopping and business centre of Cork?
3 What is Cork’s traffic system like?
4 What is special about the site of St Anne’s Church?
5 In what style is the architecture of Cork Cathedral?
6 Can you buy souvenirs at the markets?
7 Is the Crawford Gallery worth visiting and why?
8 Where do Cork people live?

45.2 The description of Cork comes from a guidebook for tourists. Write sentences about a town of your choice, using the following expressions from the text.

- the second/third/fourth...est
- within walking distance of
- built on the site
- cater for
- to overlook
- well worth a visit / visiting
- a working market/museum/steam railway/model
- the main... area of the town lies
- in the Victorian/Georgian/Classical/
- Baroque/French Gothic style
- tend to be
- whether or not it merits
- those who enjoy
- on the outskirts
- to mount an exhibition
- to appreciate the charm

45.3 Look at the list of facilities listed in B opposite. Tick all those which your town, or any town you know well, has.

45.4 Suggest three words which would collocate well with each of the nouns below, as in the examples.

1 ..............................................
   .............................................. museum
   .............................................. leisure
   .............................................. centre

2 ..............................................
   .............................................. college
   .............................................. court

3 ..............................................
   .............................................. club
   .............................................. agency

4 ..............................................
   .............................................. night
   .............................................. model

45.5 What facilities would your ideal town have? Name the three most important facilities for you in each of the categories listed in B opposite. You may choose facilities other than those listed opposite if you wish.

45.6 Are any of the problems mentioned in C opposite to be found in your city or a city you know well? Could you suggest a solution for these problems?

45.7 Write sentences about any towns you know, using each of the adjectives in D.

Example: The most picturesque part of my town is the old market-place.

English Vocabulary in Use 91
The natural world

- parrot
- shark
- bat
- worm
- snail
- crab
- pigeon
- peacock
- dolphin
- eagle
- seal
- hedgehog

Names of trees

Here are the names of some of the commonest British trees. You are likely to meet these words if you read fiction or poetry in English.

- oak
- willow
- elm
- fir
- pine

Some verbs for talking about the natural world

Our apple tree flowers/blossoms in April. Our garden is thriving after the rain. Let's pick some flowers (not pick up). Farmers plant, fertilise and harvest their crops.
Exercises

46.1 Can you answer the following general knowledge questions about the natural world?
1 Is the whale a fish or a mammal?
2 Which reptile alive today is a descendant of the dinosaurs?
3 Are the following trees deciduous or evergreen – poplar, yew, birch?
4 What does the bee take from flowers to make honey?
5 Name three animals that hibernate in winter.
6 What does a British boy or girl traditionally say while pulling the petals off a daisy one by one?
7 Which is the fastest of all land animals?
8 Which bird symbolises peace?
9 What plants or animals are the symbols of England, Scotland, Canada and New Zealand?
10 What do fish use their gills for?
11 Can you name an endangered species of plant or animal?
12 Which of these creatures is extinct – emu, dinosaur, phoenix?
13 Name three white flowers and three birds of any colour.
14 What plant or animal is the symbol of your country?

46.2 Write an appropriate adjective to go with each of the following nouns:
- hedgehog
- mane
- petals
- eagle
- oak
- willow
- worm
- bark

46.3 Fill in the blanks in the sentences below using words from the opposite page.
1 A tree’s ......................... go a long way under ground.
2 A cat sharpens its ......................... against the ......................... of a tree.
3 Most fruit trees ......................... in spring.
4 Plants will not ......................... unless they get enough water and light.
5 The horse is limping. It must have hurt its .........................
6 Flowers last longer in a vase if you crush the end of their .........................
7 A flower that is just about to open is called a .........................
8 Take care not to prick yourself. That plant has sharp .........................
9 If we pick up those ........................., we can use them to start the fire.
10 Jim’s as blind as a ......................... while Jo works at a .........................’s pace.
11 Anne’s as busy as a .........................
12 Most crops in the UK are ......................... in the autumn.

46.4 Look at this description of a camel from an encyclopaedia. Underline any words which you think would frequently be found in such descriptions of animals.

camel A mammal of the family Camelidae, (2 species): the Bactrian, from cold deserts in Central Asia and domesticated elsewhere, and the dromedary; eats any vegetation; drinks salt water if necessary; closes slit-like nostrils to exclude sand; humps are stores of energy-rich fats. The two species may interbreed; the offspring has one hump; the males are usually sterile while the females are fertile.

46.5 Write a similar description for an encyclopaedia of an elephant, or any other animal of your own choice. Use reference books to help you if necessary.
Clothes

At this level you probably already know most of the everyday words for clothes. Here are some items of clothing or parts of them which are perhaps less familiar.

dressing-gown button zip sleeve buckle belt cardigan waist coat braces slippers collar hem laces heel sole mittens

Notice that most items of clothing covering the legs are plural words only and, if you wish to count them, you need to say, e.g. ‘Six pairs of trousers’. (See Unit 24.)

Here are some words used to describe materials which clothes are often made of. These words can be either nouns or adjectives.
silk cotton velvet corduroy denim leather wool/woollen suede

Here are some adjectives used to describe the patterns on materials.

pin-striped polka-dotted spotted flowery

Here are some verbs associated with clothing.
He undressed / got undressed, throwing all his clothes on the floor.
She quickly dressed the child.
I love dressing up for parties as I normally wear jeans.
Can I try on those grey shoes in the window?
The skirt is too tight and too short – it needs letting out and letting down.
The dress is too loose and too long – it needs taking in and taking up.
She took off her shoes and put on her slippers.
He changed out of his weekend clothes into his uniform.
Red usually doesn’t suit people with ginger hair.
Her black bag matches her shoes.
Those shoes don’t fit the boy any more. He’s grown out of them.

Here are some adjectives for describing people’s clothing.
How things fit: baggy loose tight close-fitting Style: long-sleeved V-neck round-neck
General: elegant smart scruffy chic trendy with-it Appearance: well-dressed badly-dressed old-fashioned fashionable

See Unit 33 for more useful vocabulary for describing someone’s appearance.
Exercises

47.1 Which of the words illustrated in A fit best in the following sentences?
1 I must get my black shoes repaired. One .................................. is broken and both the ........................................ have holes in them.
2 Do up your .................................. or you’ll fall over.
3 There’s someone at the door. You’d better put your .................................. on before you open it.
4 Put your .................................. on – this floor is very cold.
5 I’ve eaten too much – I’ll have to loosen my ........................................
6 I’ve almost finished making my dress for the party but I’ve still got to sew up the ........................................ and sew on some .........................................

47.2 Complete these sentences with any appropriate word. Use ‘pair’ where it is necessary.
1 Many women wear nighties in bed whereas most men and children wear .........................................
2 Blue .................................. are a kind of international uniform for young people.
3 People with ugly knees shouldn’t wear .........................................
4 I need some new underwear. I’m going to buy three new .................................. today.
5 Bother! I’ve got a hole in my tights. I’ll have to get a new .........................................
6 Bother! I’ve got a hole in my tights. I’ll have to get some new .........................................

47.3 Match the following materials with the item which they are most likely to be associated with from the box.
Example: velvet ribbon
1 silk  2 cashmere  3 leather  4 corduroy  5 velvet  6 cotton sweater  trousers  T-shirt  ribbon  evening blouse  boots

47.4 Describe in as much detail as possible what the people in the pictures are wearing.

47.5 Put the right verb, match, suit or fit, into each of these sentences.
1 The blue dress .................................. her properly now she’s lost some weight.
2 The blue of her dress .................................. the blue of her eyes.
3 That blue dress .................................. the girl with the blonde hair.

47.6 Describe in as much detail as you can how (a) you and (b) someone else you can see are dressed.
48 Health and medicine

What are your symptoms?

rash bruise lump spots a black eye

I've got a cold / a cough / a sore throat / a temperature / a stomach ache / chest pains / earache / a pain in my side / a rash on my chest / spots / a bruise on my leg / a black eye / a lump on my arm / indigestion / diarrhoea / painful joints / blisters / sunburn. I feel sick / dizzy / breathless / shivery / faint / particularly bad at night. I am depressed / constipated / tired all the time. I've lost my appetite / voice; I can't sleep, my nose itches and my leg hurts.

What do doctors do?

They take your temperature, listen to your chest, look in your ears, examine you, take your blood pressure, ask you some questions and weigh and measure you before sending you to the hospital for further tests.

What's the diagnosis?

You've got flu / chickenpox / mumps / pneumonia / rheumatism / an ulcer / a virus / a bug something that's going round. You've broken your wrist and sprained / dislocated your ankle. You're pregnant / a hypochondriac. He died of lung cancer / a heart attack / a brain haemorrhage / AIDS.

What does the doctor prescribe?

a) Take one three times a day after meals.
b) Take a teaspoonful last thing at night.
c) Rub a little on before going to bed each night.
d) We'll get the nurse to put a bandage on.
e) You'll need to have some injections before you go.
f) I'll ask the surgeon when he can fit you in for an operation.
g) You'll have to have your leg put in plaster.
h) I think you should have total bed rest for a week.

What might the doctor ask you?

What would you say if the doctor asked you the following questions?

Do you have health insurance? Have you ever had any operations?
Are you taking any medication? Are you allergic to anything?
Exercises

48.1 Match the diseases with their symptoms.
1 flu swollen glands in front of ear, earache or pain on eating
2 pneumonia burning pain in abdomen, pain or nausea after eating
3 rheumatism rash starting on body, slightly raised temperature
4 chickenpox dry cough, high fever, chest pain, rapid breathing
5 mumps headache, aching muscles, fever, cough, sneezing
6 an ulcer swollen, painful joints, stiffness, limited movement

48.2 What does the doctor or nurse use the following things for?
Example: stethoscope For listening to a patient’s chest.
1 thermometer 2 scales 3 tape measure 4 scalpel

48.3 Look at statements (a) to (g) in D opposite. Which do you think the doctor said to each of the following patients?
1 Anne with bad sunburn. 5 Liz with a bad cough.
2 Jo who’s broken her leg. 6 Sam who needs his appendix out.
3 John who’s off to the Tropics. 7 Rose suffering from exhaustion.
4 Paul with flu. 8 Alf who’s sprained his wrist.

48.4 Complete the following table.

48.5 What medical problems might you have if...
1 you wear shoes that rub? 7 you eat food you’re allergic to?
2 you eat too fast? 8 you run unusually fast for a bus?
3 you smoke a lot? 9 you eat food that is bad?
4 you play football? 10 a mosquito bites you?
5 you go ski-ing? 11 you get wet on a cold day?
6 you stay too long in the sun? 12 you think you’re ill all the time?

48.6 Think of some of the illnesses you (or members of your family or friends) have had. What were the symptoms and what did the doctor prescribe?
Follow-up: Look at the health page of a magazine or newspaper. Make a note of any new vocabulary on the theme that you find there. Look in your medicine cabinet at home, at school or work. Can you name everything that you find there?
Look at the table of some basic travel vocabulary. Highlight any of the words that you are not sure about and look them up in your dictionary.

Words at sea

Traditionally sailors use different words at sea – a bedroom is a cabin, a bed is a bunk, the kitchen on a ship is a galley, right is starboard and left is port and the group of people who work on the ship is called the crew. These terms are also now used in the context of an aircraft. Sailors also refer to their vessels as ‘she’ rather than ‘it’.

Some international road signs

- There's a hump bridge ahead.
- There's going to be a steep hill downwards.
- There may be cattle on the road ahead.
- There's a cycle route ahead.

Some words connected with travel

Last week he flew to New York. It was an early-morning flight. The plane was to take off at 6 a.m. and land at 7 a.m. local time. He was stranded at the airport overnight. The plane was delayed by fog. Air passengers often suffer such delays.

Trains always run on time here. You have to change trains at Crewe.

We are sailing on the QE2. It sets sail at noon. It will dock in New York at 6 p.m. and we shall disembark as soon as we can.

The ship was wrecked. The passengers were marooned on a desert island.

Our car does 10 km to the litre. It goes quite fast. We can usually overtake other cars.

The car swerved into the middle of the road to avoid the cyclist.

He backed the car into the drive and parked in front of the house.
Exercises

49.1 Label the diagrams below. Use a dictionary to help you if necessary.

---

49.2 Here are some more words which could have been included in the table in A opposite. Where would they fit into the table?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>bonnet</th>
<th>balloon</th>
<th>deck-chair</th>
<th>guard’s van</th>

<tr>
<td>check-in desk</td>
<td>control tower</td>
<td>canoe</td>
<td>dual carriageway</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

49.3 Here are some more road signs. Write an explanation of their meaning similar to the explanations given in C opposite.

---

49.4 Fill in the blanks. Most of the words you need can be found opposite.

Yesterday John was supposed to take a ......................................................(1) from London to Paris. He got up very early, put his luggage in the ......................................................(2) of his car and tried to start the engine. It wouldn’t start. John lifted the ......................................................(3) but he couldn’t see what the matter could be. He immediately called his local ......................................................(4) to ask them to send a ......................................................(5) at once. Fortunately, the garage had a man free and he was with John within ten minutes. He quickly saw what the matter was. ‘You’ve ......................................................(6) of petrol’, he said. John felt very foolish. ‘Why didn’t I ......................................................(7) everything last night?’ he wondered. Despite all this, he got to the airport, checked in quite early and then went straight through to the ......................................................(8) to read a newspaper while he waited. Soon he heard an announcement. ‘Passengers on flight BA 282 to Paris are informed that all flights to and from Paris are ......................................................(9) because of a heavy snowfall last night.’ ‘If only I had decided to go by ......................................................(10)’, John thought. ‘It would probably have been quicker in the end and even if I sometimes feel sick on the ......................................................(11) across the Channel, it can be quite pleasant sitting in a ......................................................(12) on the deck, watching the seagulls and the other ......................................................(13). The ......................................................(14) on a ship seem to produce much better food than those on an aircraft too.’

49.5 Write two advantages and two disadvantages for each of the four forms of travel opposite.
50 Holidays

Here are a number of different places where you can spend a holiday.

- camp site: a place where you can pitch a tent or park a caravan.
- self-catering flat: flat which you rent, you cook for yourself.
- guesthouse: accommodation like a hotel but cheaper and with fewer services.
- youth hostel: cheap accommodation, mainly for young people, with, perhaps, ten or more people sleeping in bunk beds in one room.
- holiday camp: a place providing holiday accommodation in little chalets or flats, with restaurants, bars, swimming pools and lots of other facilities and entertainment.
- time-share apartment: accommodation which one owns, say, a 26th part of and so has the right to stay there for 2 weeks every year.

Here are a number of different things which people like to do on holiday.

- sunbathe
- swim or go swimming
- do some or go sightseeing
- ski or go skiing
- go for a drive
- hike or go hiking
- tour or go touring
- go on an excursion
- climb or go climbing/mountaineering
- camp or go camping

Note: You usually ask 'Have you ever been skiing/hang-gliding?' rather than 'Have you ever gone...?' 'He's been wind-surfing' means that at some point in his life he has done this.

Here is some useful language for when you are staying in a hotel.

- I'd like to book a single/double room with a cot.
- I'd like a room with a shower, a colour TV, and a view of the sea.
- What time do you serve breakfast?
- Am I too late for dinner/to get something to eat?
- Is service included?
- Could I have a call at 7.30, please?
- Could we have dinner in our room, please?
- The teasmade [tea-making machine] in my room isn't working.
- I'd like an extra pillow, please.
- I'd like to make a call to New Zealand, please.
- What time do you like rooms to be vacated by?
- Sorry to bother you, but...
- I'm afraid there's something wrong with the..., could you have a look at it?
Exercises

50.1 Which of the holiday places in A have you or any of your friends stayed at? What are the advantages and disadvantages of each? Try and note down at least one advantage and one disadvantage for each even if you have no direct personal experience of them.

50.2 List the ten activities shown in B opposite according to your personal preferences.

50.3 Look at B opposite again. Note the way you can say either ‘We camped in Spain this year’ or ‘We went camping in Spain this year’. Write the sentences below in an alternative form, either with or without go or be.

1. They went canoeing in the Dordogne last year.
2. Have you ever been windsurfing?
3. I love going sailing.
4. He spends too much time fishing.
5. It’s quite expensive to shop in Rome.
6. I enjoy cycling at weekends.

50.4 What would you say in a hotel when...

1. you want to reserve a room for a couple with a small baby?
2. you have to wake up early for an important meeting?
3. your TV screen suddenly goes blank?
4. it’s midnight, you’ve just arrived and you’re very hungry?
5. you’d rather not go to the dining-room for breakfast?
6. you are not sure whether to leave a tip or not?

50.5 There are six typical language mistakes in the paragraph below. Underline them and then write the corrections.

The Smiths stayed at a camping last summer because all other kinds of holiday accommodations are too expensive for them. Every day Mrs Smith had a sunbath, Mr Smith made a sight-seeing and the children made a travel around the Island. One day they made an excursion to a local castle.

50.6 To find more useful language relating to holidays, get some holiday brochures or other tourist information written in English. You could either try the embassies of those countries or a travel agency. Remember to make it clear that you want the information in English. When you receive the information, make a point of noting down any useful new words and expressions that you learn.

50.7 Find a tourist brochure in your own language about your own town or region. Try to translate it for English-speaking visitors.

50.8 Where would you spend your ideal holiday? What kind of accommodation would you stay in? How would you spend your time? Write a paragraph.
5.1 Numbers and shapes

Anyone who works with any branch of science or technology needs to be able to talk about figures. Notice how the following are said in English.

- 28% twenty-eight per cent
- 10 m x 12 m ten metres by twelve metres
- 10.3 ten point three
- ½ one and two thirds
- ¾ nine thirteenths or nine over thirteen
- 4² four squared
- 8⁴ eight to the power of four
- 1,623,457 one million, six hundred and twenty-three thousand, four hundred and fifty-seven

32° C or F thirty-two degrees centigrade/celsius or fahrenheit

All scientists and technologists also need to be able to talk about shapes. Note the names of the shapes below.

Two-dimensional shapes

- square
- rectangle
- triangle
- circle
- octagon
- oval

A rectangle has four right angles.
A circle is cut in half by its diameter. Its two halves can be called semi-circles.
The radius of a circle is the distance from its centre to the circumference.

Three-dimensional shapes

- sphere
- cube
- pyramid
- spiral

The two halves of a sphere can be called hemispheres.

Here are the four basic processes of arithmetic.

+ addition
- subtraction
× multiplication ÷ division

Notice how these formulae would be read aloud.

\[2x + 3y - z = \frac{3z}{4x}\]  Two \(x\) plus three \(y\) minus \(z\) equals three \(z\) divided by four \(x\).  or \[6 \times 7 = 42\]  Six times seven is forty two.  or  Six sevens are forty two.

Exercises

51.1 How numerate are you? Try this numbers quiz.
1 Name the first four odd numbers.
2 Name the first four even numbers.
3 Name the first four prime numbers.
4 Give an example of a decimal fraction.
5 Give an example of a vulgar fraction.
6 How do you read this formula and what does it represent: \( e=mc^2 \)?
7 How do you read this and what does it represent: \( 2\pi r \)?

51.2 Write the following in words rather than in figures or symbols.
1 2% of the British population owned 90% of the country’s wealth in 1992.
2 \( 0^\circ C = 32^\circ F \)
3 62.3% of adults have false teeth.
4 \( \frac{1}{3} + \frac{1}{4} \times 4^2 = 14\% \).
5 2,769,425 people live here.

51.3 Look at the figures in B opposite. What is the adjective relating to each of the shapes illustrated? Use a dictionary if necessary.

51.4 Read the following records aloud.
1 Oxygen accounts for 46.6% of the earth’s crust.
2 The nearest star to earth is Proxima Centauri. It is 33,923,310,000,000 km from earth.
3 The highest waterfall in the world is Angel Falls in Venezuela with a drop of 979 m.
4 The top coffee-drinking country in the world is Finland where 1,892 cups per annum are consumed per head of the population.
5 The tallest church in the world is the Chicago Methodist Temple which is 173 m or 568 ft high.
6 The commonest item of lost property on London transport is the umbrella. 23,250 umbrellas were handed in to London transport lost property offices in 1987/8.
7 The country with the most telephones in the world is Monaco. It has 733 telephones per 1,000 population.
8 The smallest country in the world is the Vatican City with an area of 0.4 sq km.

51.5 Draw the following figures.
1 A right-angled triangle with two equal sides of about two centimetres in length. Draw a small circle at the centre of the triangle and then draw lines from the centre of the circle to each of the angles of the triangle.
2 A rectangle with diagonal lines joining opposite angles.
3 An octagon with equal sides. Draw an oval in the middle of the octagon.
4 A three-dimensional rectangular shape of roughly 6 cm by 3 cm by 2 cm.
You are probably familiar with the traditional branches of science e.g. chemistry, physics, botany and zoology. But what about these newer fields?

- Genetic engineering: the study of the artificial manipulation of the make-up of living things
- Molecular biology: the study of the structure and function of the organic molecules associated with living organisms
- Cybernetics: the study of the way information is moved and controlled by the brain or by machinery
- Information technology: the study of technology related to the transfer of information (computers, digital electronics, telecommunications)
- Bioclimatology: the study of climate as it affects humans
- Geopolitics: study of the way geographical factors help to explain the basis of the power of nation states
- Nuclear engineering: the study of the way nuclear power can be made useful
- Cryogenics: the study of physical systems at temperatures less than 183° C
- Astrophysics: the application of physical laws and theories to stars and galaxies

Here are some of the modern inventions which we are now becoming quite used to.

The verbs in the sentences below are all useful in scientific contexts.

- He experimented with a number of different materials before finding the right one.
- The technician pressed a button and lights started flashing.
- When she pulled a lever, the wheel began to rotate.
- The zoologist dissected the animal.
- When they were combined, the two chemicals reacted violently with each other.
- After analysing the problem, the physicist concluded that there was a flaw in his initial hypothesis.
- James Watt invented the steam engine and Alexander Fleming, another Scot, discovered penicillin.
- After switching on the computer, insert a floppy disc into the disc drive.
- You must patent your invention as quickly as possible.

52.2 Below you have some of the amazing achievements of modern technology. Match the names on the left with the definitions on the right.

1 video recorder       | a kind of sophisticated typewriter using a computer
2 photocopier          | a machine which records and plays back sound
3 fax machine          | a machine which records and plays back sound and pictures
4 tape recorder         | a camera which records moving pictures and sound
5 modem                 | a machine for chopping up, slicing, mashing, blending etc.
6 camcorder             | a machine which makes copies of documents
7 robot                 | a machine which makes copies of documents and sends them down telephone lines to another place
8 word-processor        | a machine which acts like a person
9 food-processor        | a piece of equipment allowing you to send information from one computer down telephone lines to another computer

52.3 Write descriptions like those in exercise 52.2, for the following objects.

52.4 What are the nouns connected with the following verbs?

1 discover  3 rotate  5 patent  7 dissect  9 combine
2 invent    4 conclude 6 analyse  8 experiment

52.5 Give each of the sciences in A opposite a number from 0 to 5 depending on whether it doesn’t interest you at all (0) or interests you enormously (5). Similarly mark each of the inventions in B, 0 to 5, depending on how important they are to you in your life.

Follow-up: Increase your knowledge of scientific vocabulary by reading articles of general scientific interest in English language newspapers or magazines. If possible, get a textbook in English for schoolchildren studying a branch of science that you have studied. Choose a book where the science is relatively easy for you so that you can concentrate on the English used.
The press and media

The term the mass media in English refers basically to TV, radio and newspapers: means of communication which reach very large numbers of people. This page looks at some useful words for talking about the mass media and about publishing in general.

Radio and television

Types of TV programmes: documentaries news broadcasts current affairs programmes soap operas quizzes sitcoms drama chat shows detective stories sports programmes weather forecasts music programmes game shows variety shows commercials

A serial is a story that continues from one programme or episode to the next. A series is about the same characters or has the same format each week but each programme is complete in itself.

Newspapers and publishing

Parts of the newspaper: headlines news reports the editorial feature articles, e.g. about fashion or social trends horoscope cartoons crossword small ads business news sports reports scandal the letters page

A popular or tabloid newspaper focuses more on sensation than real news whereas a quality newspaper professes to be more interested in real news than in sensation. A tabloid usually has a smaller format than a quality paper, it has larger headlines and shorter stories and, in Britain, it prefers stories about film stars, violent crimes and the royal family.

A journal is the name usually given to an academic magazine. A colour supplement is a magazine which comes out once a week (often on Sundays) as an addition to a newspaper. A comic is a magazine, usually for children or teenagers, with lots of picture stories and/or cartoons.

Make sure you know the verbs in these sentences.

- The BBC World Service broadcasts throughout the world.
- I can receive / pick up broadcasts from Moscow on my radio.
- They're showing a good film on TV tonight.
- This book was published by CUP but it was printed in Hong Kong.
- The film was shot / made on location in Spain.
- They cut / censored the film before showing it on TV.
- This article / programme has been badly edited.

See Unit 92 for the language of newspaper headlines.

54.5 Write a paragraph about the political system in your country, using as much of the vocabulary on the opposite page as you can.
Crime

Make sure you know the difference between the verbs: steal and rob. The object of the verb 'steal' is the thing which is taken away, e.g. they stole my bike, whereas the object of the verb 'rob' is the person or place from which things are stolen, e.g. I was robbed last night. A masked man robbed the bank. 'Steal' is irregular: steal, stole, stolen.

The table below gives the names of some other types of crimes together with their associated verbs and the name of the person who commits the crimes.

to fine someone a sum of money: to punish someone by making them pay to send someone to prison: to punish someone by putting them in prison to release someone from prison/jail: to set someone free after a prison sentence to be tried: to have a case judged in court.

Here are some useful nouns.

trial: the legal process in court whereby an accused person is investigated, or tried, and then found guilty or not guilty case: a crime that is being investigated evidence: information used in a court of law to decide whether the accused is guilty or not proof: evidence that shows conclusively whether something is a fact or not verdict: the decision: guilty or not guilty judge: the person who leads a trial and decides on the sentence jury: group of twelve citizens who decide whether the accused is guilty or not 55.5 Look at all the crimes named in this unit. Look both at the left-hand page and at exercises 55.2 and 55.4. Which do you think are the three most serious and the three least serious?

55.6 Write a paragraph to fit this newspaper headline. Give some details about the crime and the court case, using as many words from this unit as is appropriate.

Local girl’s evidence gets mugger two years prison

Follow up: If possible look at an English language newspaper. List all the words connected with crime and the law which you can find in it.
Money – buying, selling and paying

Personal finance

Sometimes in a shop they ask you: ‘How do you want to pay?’
You can answer: ‘Cash / By cheque / By credit card.’

In a bank you usually have a current account, which is one where you pay in your salary and then withdraw money to pay your everyday bills. The bank sends you a regular bank statement telling you how much money is in your account. You may also have a savings account where you deposit any extra money that you have and only take money out when you want to spend it on something special. You usually try to avoid having an overdraft or you end up paying a lot of interest. If your account is overdrawn, you can be said to be in the red (as opposed to in the black or in credit).

Sometimes the bank may lend you money – this is called a bank loan. If the bank (or building society) lends you money to buy a house, that money is called a mortgage.

When you buy (or, more formally, purchase) something in a shop, you usually pay for it outright but sometimes you buy on credit. Sometimes you may be offered a discount or a reduction on something you buy at a shop. This means that you get, say, £10 off perhaps because you are a student. You are often offered a discount if you buy in bulk. It is not usual to haggle about prices in a British shop, as it is in, say, a Turkish market. If you want to return something which you have bought to a shop, you may be given a refund, i.e. your money will be returned, provided you have a receipt.

The money that you pay for services, e.g. to a school or a lawyer, is usually called a fee or fees; the money paid for a journey is a fare.

If you buy something that you feel was very good value, it’s a bargain. If you feel that it is definitely not worth what you paid for it, then you can call it a rip-off (very colloquial).

Public finance

The government collects money from citizens through taxes. Income tax is the tax collected on wages and salaries. Inheritance tax is collected on what people inherit from others. Customs or excise duties have to be paid on goods imported from other countries. VAT or value added tax is a tax paid on most goods and services when they are bought or purchased. Companies pay corporation tax on their profits. If you pay too much tax, you should be given some money back, a tax rebate.

The government also sometimes pays out money to people in need, e.g. unemployment benefit (also known informally as the dole) disability allowances and student grants (to help pay for studying). Recipients draw a pension / unemployment benefit or are on the dole or on social security.

Every country has its own special currency. Every day the rates of exchange are published and you can discover, for example, how many dollars there are currently to the pound sterling.

A company may sell shares to members of the public who are then said to have invested in that company. They should be paid a regular dividend on their investment, depending on the profit or loss made by the company.
Exercises

56.1 Answer the following money quiz.
1 What currencies are used in Japan, Australia, India and Russia?

Follow-up: To improve your financial vocabulary, read articles on business in any English magazine or newspaper. Write down any new words or expressions that you come across.
Number, quantity, degree and intensity

Number and quantity

Number is used for countable nouns, amount for uncountables.

Scale of adjectives useful for expressing number and quantity:

tiny      small       average       large/considerable    huge/vast

Add just a tiny amount of chilli pepper, or else it may get too hot.
A considerable number of people failed to get tickets.  [formal]
Vast amounts of money have been wasted on this project.
Were there many people at the airport? Oh, about average, I’d say.  [fairly informal]

Much/many, a lot, lots, plenty, a good/great deal example                   comments

Is there much work to do? mostly used in questions and
No, not much. negatives with uncountable nouns
There are lots of nice shops in this street. mostly for affirmatives; has a
Don’t worry, there’s plenty of time. rather positive feeling; informal You were making a lot of noise last night. mostly affirmatives, used in positive contexts
There’s a great deal of hard work still to do. used in all structures; neutral,
+ uncountables, more formal better than lots in negative contexts

Much and many do occur in affirmatives, but they sound formal and are probably best kept for formal written contexts.

Much criticism has been levelled at the government’s policy.
Many people are afraid of investing in stocks and shares.

Informal and colloquial words for number/quantity

I’ve got dozens of nails in my tool-box. Why buy more?  [especially good for countables]
There’s heaps/bags/loads of time yet, slow down!  [countable or uncountable and informal]
There was absolutely tons of food at the party; far too much.  [especially good for things, not so good for abstract nouns]
There are tons of apples on this tree this year; last year there were hardly any.  [note how the verb here is plural because of ‘apples’, but singular in the example before with ‘food’ – number depends on the noun following, not on tons/lots/loads]
Just a drop of wine for me, please.  [tiny amount of any liquid]

Degree and intensity

Typical collocations of adverbs: a bit/quite/rather/fairly/very/really/awfully/extremely combine with ‘scale’ adjectives such as tired, worried, weak, hot.
Totally/absolutely/completely/utterly combine with ‘limit’ adjectives such as ruined, exhausted, destroyed, wrong.
Exercises

57.1 Comment on the following numbers and quantities using adjective-noun combinations from A opposite.

Example: The Government will only give us a grant of £20.
But that's a tiny sum of money. How mean!
1 £5 billion was wasted on developing the new rocket.
2 Over 50 people came to Sally's lecture yesterday. We were pleasantly surprised.
3 We have 120 students most years, and we'll probably have about that this year, too.
4 There was only five pounds in my purse when it was stolen.
5 We've wasted over 100 hours in meetings and got nowhere.

57.2 Here are some more adjectives which can combine with amount. Divide them into two groups, small and large and fill in the bubbles. Use a dictionary if necessary.

miniscule gigantic overwhelming minute /mənˈɪkjuːl/ meagre excessive insignificant sizeable

Now try using them to fill in the gaps below. More than one answer may be possible.
1 Even a ......................... amount of sand can jam a camera.
2 I've had an absolutely ......................... amount of work lately.
3 Oh, you've given me a ......................... amount of food here!
4 It takes a ......................... amount of money to start a business.
5 An ......................... amount of fat in your diet is dangerous.

57.3 Fill in the gaps with much/many, a lot/lots of, plenty of, a good/great deal of.

I’ve told you time and time again not to ring me at the office!

One at a time, please! I can’t serve you all together.

We got there just in time for dinner.
I expected you to be late, the trains are never on time.

Verbs associated with time passing 1980 ——> 1990   Ten years have passed/elapsed since I last heard from her.

Elapse is more formal and is normally used in the perfect or past, without adverbs. Pass can be used in any tense and with adverbs.

Don’t worry. The time will pass quickly. Time passes very slowly when you’re lonely.
London ——> Singapore   It takes 12 hours to fly to Singapore.

The batteries in this radio usually last about three or four months.

This videotape lasts/runs for three hours.

The meeting went on for two hours.
[suggests longer than expected or desired]

Note also: Take your time, you don’t need to hurry.

Adjectives describing duration (how long something lasts)

Distances and dimensions

You probably know all the common words for distances and dimensions. In this unit we shall concentrate on derived words and compounds and other connected words/phrases you may not know or be unsure of how to use accurately.

Broad and wide and tall and high

Wide is more common than broad, e.g. It’s a very wide road/garden/room.

Make a note of typical collocations for broad as you meet them, e.g. Economics is a very broad subject; We came to a broad expanse of grassland. [big area]

Note the word order for talking about dimensions, e.g. The room’s five metres long and four wide.

Don’t forget that tall is for people but can be used for things such as buildings and trees when they are high and thin in some way. Otherwise, use high for things.

She’s very tall for a five-year-old.
Her office is in that tall building in the square.
There are some high mountains in the North.

Deep ≠ shallow

The deep and shallow ends of a swimming pool.

Derived words, phrases and compounds

long: Let’s measure the length of this rope.
I swam 20 lengths (of the swimming pool).
I’ve lengthened her skirt for her. [shorten, see below]
Getting a visa’s a lengthy process. [usually refers to time; rather negative]
Can I make a long-distance phone call?

short: The new road will shorten our journey by ten minutes.
There’s a short-cut to the station. [quick way] wide: Let’s measure the width of the room.

They’re widening the road.

broad: I want to broaden my experience. [usually more abstract contexts] high: The height of the wall is two metres.

The fog heightened the feeling of mystery. [usually used only for feelings and emotions] low: You can lower that table if it is too high.

far: He loves travelling to faraway places.

depth: the depth of the river here is about 3 metres.
His death so soon after hers deepened our sadness even further. [often with feelings]

Other verbs for dimensions and for changing them.

Our garden stretches all the way to the river, so we have plenty of room to extend the house if we want to.
The cities are spreading and the countryside is shrinking.
Exercises

Obligation

Must is an instruction or command; that is why we see it on notices, e.g. Dogs must be kept on a lead. Cars must not be parked here.

Have (got) to says that circumstances oblige you to do something. Often, the two meanings overlap and there will be a choice of how to express the obligation, but not always.

I must get my hair cut! [command to yourself]
I've got to get my hair cut. I've got an interview tomorrow. [circumstances]
The company is obliged to give a refund if the tour is cancelled.
The bank robbers forced him at gunpoint to open the safe.
We had no choice/alternative but to sell our house; we owed the bank £100,000.
The death sentence is mandatory for drug-smuggling in some countries. [automatic; there is no alternative]

Was sport compulsory/obligatory at your school? No, it was optional at mine. [optional: you can choose]
I am exempt from tax as I'm a student. [free from obligation]

The negative of must and have (got) to are formed with need and have to, when we mean something is not necessary/not obligatory.

You don't need to/don't have to/needn't wash up; we've got a dishwasher.

Need

The grass needs cutting (badly). [or 'wants cutting' - informal]
The miners died through a lack of oxygen. [there was none]

This plant is in need of water. [more formal than 'needs/wants']
There is a shortage of doctors. [there are not enough]
There's a need for more discussion on the matter. [we feel a need]

Scale of probability: 'cannot happen' to 'has to happen' impossible → unlikely → possible → probable → certain → inevitable

Note: I've been given an opportunity to go to Bonn. [a real chance] but, Is there any chance/possibility you'll be free next week? [chance is less formal than possibility]
Exercises

60.1 Continue the sentences using ‘obligation’ words and phrases from A opposite, and using the words in brackets.

61 Sound and light

General words to describe sound

I could hear the sound of voices/music coming from the next room. [neutral]
Our neighbours had a party last night. The noise went on till 3 a.m. [loud, unpleasant sounds]
I tried hard to hear what she was saying above the din of the traffic. [very loud, irritating noise]
The children are making a terrible racket upstairs. Could you go and tell them to be quiet? [very loud, unbearable noise, often of human activity]

Racket and din are quite informal words. Noise can be countable or uncountable. When it means sounds of short duration, it is countable, when it means a lot of continual or continuous sounds, it is uncountable.

Their lawnmower makes a lot of noise, doesn’t it? [uncountable]
I heard some strange noises in the night. [countable]

Sound words and things that typically make them

The words can be used as nouns or verbs

I could hear the rain pattering on the roof. We heard the patter of a little child’s feet.

He got (2) from several banks to finance his deals, and soon he was one of the biggest private (3) in the city, with some 3,000 (4) renting houses and flats from him. He was also the (5) of many shops and businesses. He became very rich and bought himself a huge (6) in Scotland, but he (7) more and more money from the banks and soon the bubble burst. Recession came and he had to sell all his (8) and (9), everything. He was left with just a few personal (10) and finally died penniless.
63 Movement and speed

Move is the basic verb for all movement, but do not forget it also means ‘to move to a new house/flat’, e.g. We’ve moved. Do you want our new address?

Particular types of movement
- Cars, lorries, etc. travel/drive along roads.
- Trains travel along rails.
- Boats/ships sail on rivers / across the sea.
- Rivers/streams flow/run through towns/villages.

Things often have particular verbs associated with their types of movement. You should learn these as collocations as you meet them, and record them with a phrase or sentence.

- White clouds drifted across the sky.
- The flag fluttered in the wind.
- The leaves stirred in the light breeze.
- The trees swayed back and forth as the gale grew fiercer.
- The car swerved to avoid a dog which had run into the road.

Useful verbs to describe fast and slow movement

The traffic was crawling along because of the roadworks.

We’ll be late! Stop dawdling!

Suddenly a car came round the bend and tore along the road at high speed. Seconds later, a police car shot past after it.

Everyone was hurriedly rushing to get their shopping done before closing time.

The train was just trundling/plodding along at about 30 miles per hour. I knew we’d be late.

Nouns describing speed and their typical contexts

- speed general word: used for vehicles, developments, changes, etc., e.g. We were travelling at high speed.
- rate often used in statistical contexts; the rate of increase/decrease, e.g. The birth rate is going down.
- pace how you experience something as happening fast or slow, e.g. The lesson was going at a very slow pace.
- velocity for technical/scientific contexts, e.g. The velocity of a bullet.
Exercises

66.5 Look in a kitchen cupboard or a supermarket. Can you name everything that you see there?
You will find more useful vocabulary for this exercise in Unit 43.
Belief and opinion

Verbs connected with beliefs and opinions

You probably already know think and believe; here are more.

I'm convinced we've met before. [very strong feeling that you're right]
I've always held that compulsory education is a waste of time. [used for very firm beliefs; maintain could be used here]
She maintains that we're related, but I'm not convinced. [insist on believing, often against the evidence; hold could not be used here]
I feel she shouldn't be forced to do the job. [strong personal opinion]
I reckon they'll get married soon. [informal, usually an opinion about what is likely to happen/to be true]
I doubt we'll ever see total world peace. [don't believe]
I suspect a lot of people never even think about pollution when they're driving their own car. [have a strong feeling about something negative]

Phrases for expressing opinion

In my view/in my opinion, we haven't made any progress.
She's made a big mistake, to my mind. [fairly informal]
If you ask me, he ought to change his job. [informal]
Note how point of view, is used in English:
From a teacher's point of view, the new examinations are a disaster. [how teachers see things, or are affected]

Prepositions used with belief and opinion words

Do you believe in God? What are your views on divorce?
What do you think of the new boss? I'm in favour of long prison sentences.
Are you for or against long prison sentences? I have my doubts about this plan.

Beliefs, ideologies, philosophies, convictions

If you would rather organise this word tree differently or can add more examples, do so; it will probably help you to remember the words better.

beliefs

ideologies philosophies convictions left-/right-wing intellectual personal religious moral socialist conservative Darwinist vegetarian Muslim pacifist

Some adjectives for describing people's beliefs and views, in pairs of similar, but not the same, meaning.

fanatical/obsessive eccentric/odd conservative/traditional middle-of-the-road/moderate dedicated/committed firm/strong

English Vocabulary in Use
Exercises

67.1 Draw lines connecting the left and right, as in the example, adding the appropriate preposition.

1 I have strong views... in my opinion.
2 Most people believe... the proposed changes.
3 I was in favour... marriage.
4 What does she think... my mind.
5 This is absurd... life after death.
6 He's quite wrong... the new teacher?
7 Well, that's just silly... our point of view.

67.2 Use adjectives from E opposite which fit the phrases describing the beliefs and views of these people, as in the example.

1 A person who insists that the earth is flat. (An eccentric belief.)
2 A person who believes absolutely in the power of love to solve world problems. (A believer in the power of love.)
3 A socialist neither on the left or the right of the party. (A socialist.)
4 A vegetarian who refuses even to be in the same room as people who like meat. (A(n) vegetarian.)
5 Someone who is always suspicious of change. (A rather view of the world.)

67.3 Rewrite these sentences using the verbs in brackets.

1 I've always suspected that ghosts don't really exist. (doubt)
2 My view has always been that people should rely on themselves more. (hold)
3 Claudia is convinced that the teacher has been unfair to her. (maintain)
4 I felt a very strong feeling that I had been in that room before. (convince)
5 In his view, we should have tried again. (feel)

67.4 Are you...? Consider how many of these words apply to you, and in what situations. Some ideas for situations are given in the box, but you can add your own. Look up any words you don't know in a dictionary.

English Vocabulary in Use 135
A  Happiness and unhappiness

You feel:
ecstatic when you are madly in love or are spiritually uplifted for some reason.
content(ed) when you are peaceful and satisfied with what you have. Notice that content is not used before a noun. You can say ‘She is content’ or ‘She is contented’ but only ‘a contented person’.
cheerful when life is looking quite bright and positive.
grateful when someone has done you a favour.
delighted when something has happened that gives you great pleasure, when you hear news of someone’s good fortune, for instance.
miserable when everything seems wrong in your life.
discontented when your life is not giving you satisfaction.
fed-up / sick and tired when you have had enough of something disagreeable. You could be fed up with someone’s rudeness, for instance, or sick and tired of someone’s behaviour.
depressed when you are miserable over a long period of time. Depression is considered an illness in some severe cases.
frustrated when you are unable to do something that you want to do.
confused / mixed up when you cannot make sense of different conflicting feelings or ideas; mixed up is more colloquial.

B  Excitement, anger and anxiety

You feel:
excited when you are expecting something special to happen, e.g. before a party or before a meeting with someone special.
inspired when you are stimulated to creative deeds or words. You might feel inspired after listening to some very powerful music, perhaps, or you might be inspired to action by a friend.
enthusiastic when you have very positive feelings about something, e.g. a new project.
thrilled when something extremely exciting and pleasing happens – quite a colloquial word. She was thrilled when the film star kissed her.
cross when you are angry or bad-tempered. It is often, though not exclusively, used about small children; quite a colloquial word.
furious/livid/seething when you are extremely angry; livid and seething are more informal; in a rage/fury are other ways of saying furious or violently angry.
anxious when you are afraid and uncertain about the future. I am so anxious about the results of my exams that I can’t sleep.
nervous when you are afraid or anxious about something that is about to or may be about to happen. I always feel nervous when I have to go to the dentist. Feeling nervous is a little bit like feeling excited but it is a negative feeling whereas excitement is positive.
apprehensive when you are slightly nervous or anxious about something in the future.
worried when anxious thoughts are constantly going through your head.
upset when something unpleasant has happened to disturb you. It often combines feelings of both sadness and anger.

68.2 Choose the best word from those given to complete each of the sentences which follow.

enthusiastic confused cross thrilled depressed upset fed-up frustrated discontented

1. I didn’t know who was telling the truth. I felt totally ..........................................
2. Some mothers are ........................................ for several months after the birth of a baby.
3. I think she is bad-tempered because she is ........................................... She wanted to be an actor and not a school-teacher.
4. Although he seems to have everything anyone could possibly want, he is still ..........................................
5. He went skiing for the first time last month, but now he is so ........................................ about it that he can talk of little else.
6. My baby brother gets very ........................................ by the evening if he doesn’t have an afternoon sleep.
7. This rainy weather has gone on for so long. I feel really ........................................ with it.
8. He was terribly ........................................ when he heard the news of his friend’s accident.
9. She was ........................................ when she learnt that she had won the first prize.

68.3 Write sentences about when you have experienced the following feelings.

Example: anxious  I felt anxious until we heard the results of my mother’s medical tests.

1. anxious 3. grateful 5. miserable 7. enthusiastic
2. apprehensive 4. in a rage 6. inspired

68.4 The words opposite ending in -ed (apart from contented and delighted) also have -ing forms e.g. interested/interesting and bored/boring. Add the correct ending -ed or -ing.

Example: She was thrilled by her present.

1. I found the film very exciting..................
2. The poet was inspir................. by the sunset.
3. This weather is terribly depressing..................
4. It is very frustrat................. when the phones aren’t working.
5. She was confus..................... by the ambiguous remarks he made to her.

68.5 You, of course, know the basic expressions: ‘I’m hungry/thirsty/hot/cold/tired/cross’.

Colloquially, we often say the same things using a much stronger expression. What do you think people mean when they say:

1. I’m boiling 3. I’m seething 5. I’m starving
2. I’m dying for a drink 4. I’m freezing 6. I’m worn out Like, dislike and desire

Words and expressions relating to liking

I quite liked Tom when we first met. However, although lots of my friends said they found him attractive, I didn’t fancy him at all. He invited me out and I must admit that I was more tempted by his sports car than by him at first. However, I really enjoyed spending time with him. He fascinated me with his stories of his travels around the world and something mysterious about his past also attracted me. Moreover, we were both very keen on sailing. Soon I realised I had fallen in love with him. His sense of humour really appealed to me and I was also captivated by his gift for poetry. Now, three years later I absolutely adore him and I cannot understand why I didn’t fall for him the moment we first set eyes on each other. He is a very caring person, fond of animals and small children. He is always affectionate and loving towards me and passionate about the causes he believes in and the people he cares for. I hope we shall always worship each other as much and be as devoted to our life together as we are now.

Words and expressions relating to desiring

Desire is used either as a formal verb to express a sexual wish for someone or else it is quite a formal word for wish.

He desired her the moment he saw her.
I have a strong desire to see the Himalayas before I die.

Looking forward to means thinking about something in the future with pleasant anticipation. The opposite of look forward to is dread.

I am looking forward to going to Fiji but I’m dreading the flight.
Note: ‘to’ is a preposition here and not part of the infinitive and is followed by a noun or an -ing form.

Long for means to wish for something very much.
As soon as I get back from one holiday, I’m longing for the next.

Yearn for is a more poetic way of saying long for.
He will never stop yearning for his country although he knows he can never return.

Words and expressions relating to disliking.

Loathe, detest, hate, cannot stand and cannot bear are all stronger ways of saying dislike and they are all followed by a noun or an -ing form.

I loathe / detest / hate / cannot stand / cannot bear bad-mannered people.

Repel, revolt and disgust are all strong words used to describe the effect which something detested has on the person affected.

His paintings disgust me. I was revolted by the way he spoke. His behaviour repels me.

Ways of addressing loved ones darling love dearest pet

dear

Pet is used mainly to children. Note that the last three words in the list are not confined to use with people who are really loved. It is not uncommon for a London bus conductor, for example, to address any girl or woman as ‘love’. (His Glasgow equivalent calls his female passengers ‘hen’.) It’s best for you, however, to keep such words for people you have a close relationship with!

   b He’s very fond of his sister.
3. a I dislike his poetry.
   b I loathe his poetry.
4. a She’s yearning to see him.
   b She’s longing to see him.
5. a He worships her.
   b He loves her very much.

69.5 Complete the sentences or answer the questions in any way that is true for you.

1. What kind of food do you like? I like ........................................ but I can’t stand ........................................
2. I’m longing for ........................................
3. I’m fascinated by ........................................
4. What attracts you most in a person of the opposite sex?
5. What do you enjoy most about your job?
6. If you were on a diet, what food or drink would tempt you most to break the diet?
7. What characteristics in people do you most detest?
8. What do you dread most about getting old?
9. What do you fancy doing this evening?
The verbs in the table below describe how loudly or quietly a person is speaking and also, often, indicate mood. These verbs are all followed by clauses beginning with ‘that’.

It is also possible to give an idea of the way someone speaks by using a speaking verb, plus an adverb. For example, ‘He said proudly’. ‘She spoke angrily’. This is most common in written style.

Some useful adverbs describing the way someone is feeling while they are speaking.

If someone feels angry: angrily crossly furiously bitterly
If someone feels unhappy: unhappily gloomily miserably uneasily sadly
If someone feels happy: happily cheerfully gladly hopefully eagerly
If someone feels worried: anxiously nervously desperately hopelessly

Other useful adverbs are boldly, excitedly, gratefully, impatiently, passionately, reluctantly, shyly, sincerely.
Exercises

70.1 Choose the verb which best fits the meaning of the sentences.
Example: ‘I love you,’ he murmured.
1 ‘It was I who broke the vase,’ he ..........................................
2 ‘I am the cleverest person in the class,’ the little boy ..................................
3 ‘Look, there’s a mouse over there!’ he ..........................................
4 ‘I’ll stop your pocket money if you don’t behave,’ she ..................................
5 ‘I d-d-d-did it,’ he ..................................................
6 ‘Please, please, help me,’ he ..........................................
7 ‘This hotel is filthy,’ she ..........................................
8 ‘Go on, Jim, try harder,’ he ..........................................

70.2 Change the sentences above into reported speech using the same verbs.
Example: He murmured that he loved her.

70.3 Add the appropriate adjectives and nouns to the table below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

70.4 The answers to the following questions are all words which are from the same root as the verbs on the page opposite.
Example: How do you describe a person who boasts a lot? boastful
What do you call:
1 what you make when you threaten? 3 what you make when you object?
2 what you make when you complain? 4 a person who asks for money on the streets?
How do you describe:
5 someone who insists a lot? 6 someone who argues a lot?

70.5 Look at the verbs in the table in B and answer the following quiz.
1 Which verbs could replace ask in the sentence ‘She asked me to dance with her’ without changing the grammar of the sentence?
2 Which prepositions usually follow a) object  b) insist  c) complain?
3 Which verb could grammatically replace promise in ‘He promised to do it’?
4 Which of the verbs can be followed by ‘that’ and a clause?
5 Find a synonym for each of the six verbs in the fourth column of the table.

70.6 Write a sentence to match each of the eight adverbs listed at the end of C.
Example: Excitedly. ‘Let’s go at once,’ she said excitedly.
The six senses

Our basic five senses are sight, hearing, taste, touch and smell. What is sometimes referred to as a ‘sixth sense’ is a power to be aware of things independently of the five physical senses, a kind of supernatural sense. The five basic verbs referring to the senses are modified by an adjective rather than an adverb.

He looks dreadful. The trip sounds marvellous. The cake tastes good.

It felt strange. The soup smelt delicious.

Sight

Look at the verbs of seeing in the text below.

Yesterday I glanced out of the window and noticed a man observing a house opposite through a telescope. I thought I glimpsed a woman inside the house. Then I saw someone else peering into the window of the same house. I gazed at them wondering what they were doing. Suddenly the first man stopped staring through his telescope. He went and hit the other one on the head with the telescope and I realised that I had witnessed a crime.

Hearing

The following scale relates to the sense of hearing and how loud things are.

noiseless → silent → quiet → noisy → loud → deafening

Taste

Some different tastes with an example of a typical food. (See also Unit 43.)

sweet (honey) salty (crisps) bitter (strong coffee) sour (vinegar) spicy (Indian food)

If you say something tastes hot it may mean spicy rather than not cold. Food can be tasty, but tasteful is used to refer to furnishings, architecture or a style of dressing or behaviour. The opposite of both is tasteless.

Touch

Some good verbs for describing different ways of touching.

She nervously fingered her collar. He stroked the cat and patted the dog.

She tapped him on the shoulder. He grasped my hand and we ran.

She grabbed her bag and ran. It’s rude to snatch. Press the button.

Please handle the goods with great care.

The secretaries complained that their boss was always pawing them.

Smell

These adjectives describe how something smells.

stinking evil-smelling smelly aromatic scented fragrant sweet-smelling perfumed

Sixth sense

Different phenomena which a person with sixth sense may experience:

telepathy ghosts UFOs premonitions intuition déjà vu
Exercises

71.1 Make a sentence using any of these verbs, look, sound, taste, touch and smell, plus an adjective about the situations.
Example: You see a film about the Rocky Mountains. They look magnificent.
1 You come downstairs in the morning and smell fresh coffee.
2 A friend has just had her hair cut.
3 You hear the record that is top of the pops.
4 A friend, an excellent cook, tries a new soup recipe.
5 A friend asks how you feel today.
6 A little boy asks you to listen to his first attempts at the piano.
7 You see a friend of yours with a very worried look on her face.
8 Someone you are working with smells strongly of cigarettes.

71.2 Which of the verbs in the text in B suggests looking:
1 on as a crime or accident occurs? 4 quickly?
2 closely, finding it hard to make things out? 5 fixedly?
3 in a scientific kind of way?

71.3 Replace the underlined words with a more interesting and precise verb from the opposite page.
1 I saw a crime. 5 He touched the cat affectionately.
2 He looked fixedly at me. 6 The zoologist looked at the lion’s behaviour.
3 She took my hand firmly. 7 The robber took the money and ran.
4 Touch the button to start. 8 I quickly looked at my watch.

71.4 Are the following best described as sweet, salty, bitter, sour, spicy or hot?
1 unsweetened coffee 3 chilli 5 Chinese cooking
2 pineapple 4 lime 6 sea water

71.5 Match the verbs used in E with these definitions.
1 to take something very quickly 3 to touch with the hands
2 to move between the fingers 4 to touch in an offensive way

71.6 Which of the adjectives in F describes best for you the smell of the following?
1 herbs in a kitchen 3 rotten eggs 5 a baby’s bottom
2 old socks 4 roses 6 a hairdresser’s

71.7 Which of the phenomena mentioned in G have you experienced if you:
1 see a flying saucer?
2 suddenly think of someone two minutes before they phone you?
3 see someone in white disappearing into a wall?
4 feel certain someone cannot be trusted although you have no real reason to believe so?
5 walk into a strange room and feel you have been there before?
6 refuse to travel on a plane because you feel something bad is going to happen?

71.8 Write a sentence about the most remarkable experience each of your six senses has had.
What your body does

This unit deals with some interesting words used to describe things your body does.

Note: All the verbs on this page (except shake and bite) are regular verbs; almost all the words have an identical noun form: to yawn/a yawn, to cough/a cough etc. (except for breathe and perspire; the nouns are breath and perspiration).

Verbs connected with the mouth and breathing breathe: A nurse gave the old man the kiss of life and he started breathing again.

yawn: If one person yawns everyone else seems to start too.
cough: It was so smoky in the room that he couldn’t stop coughing.
sneeze: Dust often makes me sneeze.
sigh: She sighed with relief when she heard his plane had landed safely.
hicough: Some people say that drinking out of the wrong side of a cup can help to stop you hiccoughing. (Note: pronunciation = /'hikApirj/) snore: She snored all night with her mouth wide open.

Verbs connected with eating and the digestion burp: He patted the baby’s back to make it burp after its feed.

chew: My granny used to say you should chew every mouthful ten times.
rumble: It’s embarrassing if your stomach rumbles during an interview.
swallow: Take a drink of water to help you swallow the pills.
suck: You’re too old to suck your thumb!
lick: After having a meal, the cat licked herself clean.
bite: He always bites his nails when he’s nervous.

Verbs connected with the eyes and face blink: She blinked several times to try and get the dust out of her eye.

wink: He winked at me across the room to try and make me laugh.
frown: Why are you frowning? What’s the problem?
grin: She was so delighted with the present that she grinned from ear to ear.
blush: He blushed with embarrassment when she smiled at him.

Verbs connected with the whole body perspire/sweat: When it’s hot you sweat/perspire.  [perspire is more formal] tremble: My hands tremble when I’ve been drinking too much coffee.

shiver: Look at him! He’s so cold that he’s shivering!
shake: She laughed so much that her whole body shook.

The pronunciation of some of the words in this unit is unusual. The index will tell you how to pronounce them.
Exercises

72.1 Find the word to match the dictionary definitions given below.
Example: to draw the eyebrows together to express displeasure or puzzlement to frown
1 to go pink from embarrassment
2 to tremble especially from cold or fear
3 to hold something in the mouth and lick it, roll it about, squeeze it etc. with the tongue and teeth
4 to shut and open both eyes quickly
5 to deliberately shut and open one eye

72.2 Say what must be happening in each of the situations below.
Example: (Parent to child) Take your thumb out of your mouth! The child is sucking its thumb.
1 Listen to that! I can’t sleep in the same room as him.
2 Am I boring you?
3 If you have a drink of water, it might stop!
4 I’d have a honey and lemon drink if I were you!
5 Are you hungry?
6 You shouldn’t eat so much so quickly!

72.3 Which of the words on the opposite page do these pictures illustrate?
Example: 1 blink

72.4 Complete the puzzle. If you answer correctly, the central letters going downwards will form a word from the left-hand page.
1 a special kind of gum
2 a more formal word for sweating
3 what you need to do to a stamp
4 try to do this quickly with pills
5 smile broadly
6 James Bond liked to have his drinks not stirred.

72.5 Organise the words on the opposite page into one or more bubble networks. Add any other words that you wish to the networks.
What animals do

Noises animals make

- Cats mew when they’re hungry, purr when they’re happy and caterwaul when they’re on the roof at midnight.
- Dogs bark. They also growl when they’re angry. Lions roar.
- Sheep and goats bleat, horses neigh and pigs grunt. Cows moo.
- Frogs croak and ducks quack. Cocks crow, hens cluck and owls hoot.

N.B. All these verbs are regular verbs.

Movements animals make

- Birds fly and fish swim.
- Butterflies flutter.
- Kangaroos hop.
- Snakes slither.
- Horses trot and gallop (galloping is faster than trotting).
- Lambs skip in the spring.

N.B. Fly (flew, flown) and swim (swam, swum) are the only irregular verbs here.

Babies animals have

- Cats have kittens and dogs have puppies. Horses have foals. Sheep have lambs.
- Cows have calves. Pigs have piglets. Bears, wolves and lions have cubs.
- Ducks have ducklings. Hens lay eggs from which chickens hatch.
- Tadpoles turn into frogs. Caterpillars turn into butterflies.

People and animals

People are often compared to animals. The following adjectives can be used about people. A more formal translation is given.

- catty or bitchy: malicious-tongued
- ratty: bad-tempered
- mousy: dull, uninteresting, shy, quiet dogged: stubborn
- cocky: arrogant
- sheepish: awkwardly self-conscious
Exercises

73.1 Match the verb with the sound. The first example has been done.

1 hoot — meow
2 bleat — toowit toowoo
3 bark — oink
4 grunt — cockadoodledoo
5 mew — woof
6 crow — baa

73.2 Complete the following text, putting the appropriate missing verbs into the correct form.

It is not really all that peaceful out in the country. Yesterday I was woken at dawn when the cock started ................................................. (1). The calves soon began ............................................. (2) and this woke the dogs who .................................... (3) until the horses started ................................................ (4). Lots of hens ................................................. (5) right outside my window and so I got up. I tripped over the cat who was lying in the sun at the front door but she didn’t even stop ................................................. (6).

73.3 Which of the adjectives in D would you be pleased to be called?

73.4 Most of the sound verbs in A and all the movement verbs in B can also be used to describe sounds and movements made by humans. Mark the following statements true or false.

1 If someone growls at you, they are probably in a bad mood.
2 If someone croaks, they probably have a sore throat.
3 If someone hoots, they are probably very unhappy.
4 If someone is caterwauling, they are singing very sweetly.
5 If someone barks at you, they sound rather angry or abrupt.
6 If someone grunts when you ask something, they are showing a lot of interest in what you have said.

73.5 Illustrate the meaning of the words below by writing sentences (about people rather than animals).

Example: 1 skip The little girl loves skipping with her new rope.
2 fly 3 swim 4 slither 5 hop 6 trot 7 gallop

73.6 Look at the following examples of notices and fill in the names of the appropriate young animal in each case. Which words help you decide?

1 New-born ................................................. for sale. Pedigree spaniel.
3 Come and see the brand-new polar bear ............................................. at the zoo.
4 Hadley Farm open this weekend. All children will enjoy the chance to hold the baby ............................................. and to stroke their soft wool.
5 Spend the weekend at Sun Park. Hundreds of new ............................................. Just hatched but already able to swim happily behind their mums.
Idioms and fixed expressions – general

Idioms are fixed expressions with meanings that are usually not clear or obvious. The individual words often give you no help in deciding the meaning. The expression to feel under the weather, which means ‘to feel unwell’ is a typical idiom. The words do not tell us what it means, but the context usually helps.

Tips for dealing with idioms

Think of idioms as being just like single words; always record the whole phrase in your notebook, along with information on grammar and collocation.

This tin-opener has seen better days.  [it is rather old and broken down; usually of things, always perfect tense form]

Idioms are usually rather informal and include an element of personal comment on the situation. They are sometimes humorous or ironic. As with any informal ‘commenting’ single word, be careful how you use them. Never use them just to sound ‘fluent’ or ‘good at English’. In a formal situation with a person you do not know, don’t say, ‘How do you do, Mrs Watson. Do take the weight off your feet.’  [sit down]. Instead say ‘Do sit down’ or ‘Have a seat’.

Idioms can be grouped in a variety of ways. Use whichever way you find most useful to help you remember them. Here are some possible types of grouping.

Grammatical

get the wrong end of the stick  [misunderstand] pull a fast one  [trick/deceive somebody]  verb + object poke your nose in(to)   [interfere] be over the moon   [extremely happy/elated] verb + preposition phrase feel down in the dumps   [depressed/low] be in the red   [have a negative bank balance]

By meaning  e.g. idioms describing people’s character/intellect

He’s as daft as a brush.  [very stupid/silly]
He takes the biscuit.  [is the extreme / the worst of all]
You’re a pain in the neck.  [a nuisance / difficult person]

By verb or other key word  e.g. idioms with make

I don’t see why you have to make a meal out of everything.  [exaggerate the importance of everything]
I think we should make a move. It’s gone ten o’clock.  [go/leave]
Most politicians are on the make. I don’t trust any of them.  [wanting money/power for oneself]

Grammar of idioms

It is important when using idioms to know just how flexible their grammar is. Some are more fixed than others. For instance, barking up the wrong tree [be mistaken] is always used in continuous, not simple form, e.g. I think you’re barking up the wrong tree.

A good dictionary may help but it is best to observe the grammar in real examples.

Note how Units 76–91 group idioms in different ways.
Exercises

74.1 Complete the idioms in these sentences with one of the key words given, as in the example. If you are not sure, try looking up the key word in a good dictionary.

clanger shot ocean plate block handle pie

1 All the promises these politicians make! It’s just pie in the sky. (big promises that will never materialise)
2 The small amount of money donated is just a drop in the ................................................. compared with the vast sum we need. (tiny contribution compared with what is needed)
3 You really dropped a ........................................ when you criticised the Americans last night; that man opposite you was from New York! (said something inappropriate/embarrassing)
4 I can’t do that job as well; I’ve got enough on my ........................................ as it is. (have more than enough work)
5 When I told her she just flew off the ................................................ and shouted at me. (lost her temper)
6 His father was a gambler too. He’s a real chip off the old ........................................ (just like one’s parents/grandparents)
7 I wasn’t really sure; I guessed it; it was just a ........................................ in the dark. (a wild guess)

74.2 Use a good general dictionary or a dictionary of idioms to see if it can help you decide which version of these sentences is in the normal grammatical form for the idiom concerned, as in the example. Check the meaning too, if you are not sure.

Example: You bark / are barking up the wrong tree if you think I did it. (see B opposite)
1 Holland is springing / springs to mind as the best place to go for a cycling holiday; it’s very flat.
2 That remark is flying / flies in the face of everything you’ve ever said before on the subject.
3 He was innocent after all. It just goes / is just going to show that you shouldn’t believe what you read in the papers.
4 You sit / ’re sitting pretty! Look at you, an easy job, a fantastic salary, a free car!
5 His attitude is leaving / leaves a lot to be desired. I do wish he would try to improve a little.

74.3 How would you organise this selection of idioms into different groups? Use some of the ways suggested on the opposite page, plus any other ways you can think of.

be in a fix child’s play rough and ready be up to it hold your tongue be out of sorts hold your horses a fool’s errand odds and ends stay mum give or take

74.4 Without using a dictionary, try to guess the meaning of these idioms from the context.

1 It’s midnight. Time to hit the sack.
2 This is just kid’s stuff. I want something challenging!
3 He was down and out for two years, but then he got a job and found a home for himself.
Everyday spoken language is full of fixed expressions that are not necessarily difficult to understand (their meaning may be quite 'transparent') but which have a fixed form which does not change. These have to be learnt as whole expressions. These expressions are often hard to find in dictionaries, so listen out for them.

Conversation-building expressions

These are some common expressions that help to modify or organise what we are saying. There are many more expressions like these. (See also Unit 100.)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>expression</th>
<th>meaning/function</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>As I was saying, I haven't seen her for years.</td>
<td>takes the conversation back to an earlier point</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>As I/you say, we'll have to get there early to get a seat.</td>
<td>repeats and confirms something someone has already said</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Talking of skiing, whatever happened to Bill Jakes?</td>
<td>starting a new topic but linking it to the present one</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If you ask me, she's heading for trouble.</td>
<td>if you want my opinion (even if no-one has asked for it)</td>

Key words

Some everyday expressions can be grouped around key words. This and that, for example, occur in several expressions:

- This is. [this is an important point]
- That's it. [that's the last thing, we've finished]

Common expressions for modifying statements

- If the worst comes to the worst, we'll have to cancel the holiday. [if the situation gets very bad indeed]
- If all else fails, we could fax them. [if nothing else succeeds]
- What with one thing and another, I haven't had time to reply to her letter. [because of a lot of different circumstances]
- When it comes to restaurants, this town's not that good. [in the matter of restaurants]
- As far as I'm concerned, we can eat at any time. [as far as it affects me / from my point of view]
- As luck would have it, she was out when we called. [as a result of bad luck]
Exercises

75.1 Complete the fixed expressions in these sentences, as far as possible without looking at the left-hand page.
1 Come ........................................... , I don’t remember giving her the key. I’d better ring her and check, just in case.
2 If you ..........................................., the economy’s going to get much worse before it gets any better.
3 ........................................... holidays, have you got any plans for next year?
4 A: It’s going to be expensive.
   B: Yes, it’ll be fun, and a great opportunity, but, as ..........................................., it will be expensive.
5 That ..........................................., I have a message for you from Sid.
6 As ..........................................., before the postwoman interrupted us, we plan to extend the house next spring.

75.2 Which of the expressions with this/that opposite would be most suitable for the second parts of these mini-dialogues?
1 A: What were you and Lindsay talking about?
   B: Oh, ...........................................
2 A: How many more?
   B: No more, actually, ............................................
3 A: The most important thing is that nobody’s happy.
   B: Yes, well, .............................................
4 A: Okay, I’ll take our decisions to the committee.
   B: Right, so ..........................................., then. Thanks.

75.3 See if you can complete this network of everyday expressions with now, as with the this/that network opposite. Use a dictionary if necessary.

[occasionally]

[immediately; also used to emphasise your point]

---

Use the expressions with now to rewrite these sentences.
1 Do you want me to do it straight away, or can it wait?
2 So, everybody, listen carefully. I have news for you.
3 I bump into her in town occasionally, but not that often.

75.4 Which expressions contain the following key words?
1 comes 2 luck 3 fails 4 worst 5 far 6 thing

Follow-up: Make a list of common expressions like the ones in this unit in your language. How do you say them in English?
Similes – as...as... / like...

As...as... similes are easy to understand. If you see the phrase as dead as a doornail, you don't need to know what a doornail is, simply that the whole phrase means 'totally dead'. But, remember, fixed similes are not 'neutral'; they are usually informal/colloquial and often humorous. So, use them with care, and keep them generally as part of your receptive vocabulary.

Creating a picture in your mind can often help you remember the simile:

as blind as a bat    as thin as a rake    as strong as an ox    as quiet as a mouse

Some can be remembered as pairs of opposites.

as heavy as lead≠ as light as a feather    as drunk as a lord≠ as sober as a judge as black as night≠ as white as snow

Some can be remembered by sound patterns.

As brown as a berry    as good as gold    as cool as a cucumber

Some other useful as...as... phrases.

The bed was as hard as iron and I couldn't sleep.
I'll give this plant some water. The soil's as dry as a bone.
He's as mad as a hatter. He crossed the Atlantic in a bathtub.
She told the teacher, as bold as brass, that his lessons were boring.
You'll have to speak up; he's as deaf as a post.
Don't worry. Using the computer's as easy as falling off a log.
She knew the answer as quick as a flash.
When I told him, his face went as red as a beetroot.

Sometimes the second part can change the meaning of the first.

The Princess's skin was as white as snow. [beautifully white]
When he saw it, his face went as white as a sheet. [pale with fear/horror]
The fish was bad and I was as sick as a dog. [vomiting]
She ran off with my money; I felt as sick as a parrot. [bad feeling of disillusionment/frustration]

Like...

My plan worked like a dream, and the problem was soon solved.
Be careful the boss doesn't see you; she has eyes like a hawk.
No wonder he's fat. He eats like a horse and drinks like a fish.
Did you sleep well? Yes, thanks, like a log.
Sorry, I forgot to ring him again. I've got a head like a sieve!
The boss is like a bear with a sore head today. [in a very bad temper]
She goes around like a bull in a china shop. [behaving in a very clumsy, insensitive way]
Criticising the government in his presence is like a red rag to a bull. [certain to make him very angry]
Exercises

76.1 Complete the as...as... similes.
1 Rose is as mad as a ___________________________; you wouldn’t believe the crazy things she does.
2 You’re not eating enough; you’re as thin as a ____________________________.
3 He never says a thing; he’s as quiet as a ____________________________.
4 You’ll have to shout; she’s as deaf as a ____________________________.
5 I’m afraid I can’t read this small print; I’m as blind as a ____________________________ without my glasses.

76.2 Different similes contain the same word. Fill the gap with the appropriate words.
1 I feel great now. I ____________________________ like a log.
2 No! It’s as easy as ____________________________ off a log.
3 After eating that bad cheese I was as sick as ____________________________.
4 I knew she had swindled me. I felt as sick as ____________________________.
5 The old man’s hair was as white as ____________________________.
6 Her face suddenly went as white as ____________________________.

76.3 Put the correct number in the right-hand boxes to complete the similes, as in the example. There are two that are not on the left-hand page. Try and guess them.

76.4 Simile word puzzle. Fill in the answers, as in the example.

Across
1 hold
2 mad
4 white
5 fresh
7 quiet
9 dry

Down
1 blind
2 iron
3 log
6 cold
8 cool
10 light

76.5 What can you say about...
1 a person who sees everything and never misses a thing?
2 a plan or course of action that works very well?
3 someone who eats and drinks a great deal?
4 someone with a very bad memory?

Tip: You can always make a simile using as...as can be, for example, I need a drink; I’m as thirsty as can be!
Binomials

Binomials are expressions (often idiomatic) where two words are joined by a conjunction (usually ‘and’). The order of the words is usually fixed. It is best to use them only in informal situations, with one or two exceptions.

odds and ends: small, unimportant things, e.g. Let’s get the main things packed; we can do the odds and ends later.
give and take: a spirit of compromise, e.g. Every relationship needs a bit of give and take to be successful.

You can often tell something is a binomial because of the sound pattern.
Tears are part and parcel of growing up.  [part of / belong to]
The boss was ranting and raving at us.  [shouting / very angry]
The old cottage has gone to rack and ruin.  [ruined / decayed]
He’s so prim and proper at work.  [rather formal and fussy]
The hotel was a bit rough and ready.  [poor standard]
She has to wine and dine important clients.  [entertain]

Other times, the clue is that the words are near-synonyms.
You can pick and choose; it’s up to you.  [have a wide choice]
My English is progressing in leaps and bounds.  [big jumps]
It’s nice to have some peace and quiet.  [peace / calm]
The doctor recommended some rest and recreation.  [relaxation]
First and foremost, you must work hard.  [first / most importantly]

Many grammar words combine to form binomials.
There are cafés here and there.  [scattered round]
We’ve had meetings on and off.  [occasionally]
I’ve been running back and forth all day.  [to and from somewhere]
To and fro can be used just like back and forth.
He is unemployed and down and out.  [without a home or money]
She’s better now, and out and about again.  [going out]
She ran up and down the street.  [in both directions]

Your language probably has many binomials. Make sure those which look similar in English have the same word order as your language. These four are very neutral binomials and can be used in formal or informal situations. Try translating them.
A black and white film, please.  Ladies and gentlemen, your attention, please!
She ran back and forth.  There was hot and cold water in every room.

Binomials linked by words other than and.
You’ve got your sweater on back to front.  [the wrong way]
He won’t help her; she’ll have to sink or swim.  [survive or fail]
Slowly but surely, I realised the boat was sinking.  [gradually]
Sooner or later, you’ll learn your lesson.  [some time / day]
She didn’t want to be just friends; it had to be all or nothing.
Well I’m sorry, that’s all I can offer you; take it or leave it.
It’s about the same distance as from here to Dublin, give or take a few miles.  [perhaps a mile or two more, or a mile or two less]
Exercises

77.1 Here are some jumbled binomials (some are from the left-hand page and some are new). Using similarities in sound, join them with and. Then check opposite or in a dictionary that you have the word order right, and that you know the meaning.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>prim</th>
<th>dine</th>
<th>high</th>
<th>ruin</th>
<th>rough</th>
<th>dry</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>rack</td>
<td>ready</td>
<td>proper</td>
<td>sound</td>
<td>safe</td>
<td>wine</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now use them to fill the gaps in these sentences.

1. I was left ................. and ................., with no-one to help me.
2. The room’s a bit ................. and ................., but you’re welcome to stay as long as you like.
3. I’m glad you’re ................. and ................. after such a dangerous journey.
4. My hosts ................. and ................. me at the best restaurants.
5. Our old house in the country has just gone to ................. and .................; nobody looks after it now.
6. The secretary is always so terribly ................. and .................; the whole atmosphere always seems so very formal.

77.2 In the left-hand box below are the first words of some binomials. On the right are a selection of words, some of which you will need, and some you will not. Your task is to find a word on the right which can form a binomial with the left-hand word, as in the example law and order. Look for words that are either near-synonyms or antonyms (opposites) of the left-hand word.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>(law)</th>
<th>money</th>
<th>tidy</th>
<th>drop</th>
<th>(order)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>now</td>
<td>tired</td>
<td>soon</td>
<td>snow</td>
<td>then</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hit</td>
<td>pay</td>
<td>bounds</td>
<td>terrible</td>
<td>dogs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>clean</td>
<td>clocks</td>
<td>after</td>
<td>whisper</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pick</td>
<td>order</td>
<td>scratch</td>
<td>heart</td>
<td>choose</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>sick</td>
<td></td>
<td>flowers</td>
<td>miss</td>
<td>chase</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now use them to make informal sentences by re-writing these.

1. There are lots of courses. You can make your own selection.
2. The flat looks all neat and spotless now for our visitors.
3. I have had enough of traffic jams. I’m going to start using the train.
4. Finding the right people was rather difficult; sometimes we succeeded, sometimes we failed.
5. My knowledge of English has progressed rapidly since I’ve been using this book.
6. The new Prime Minister promised that efficient policing would be the most important priority.
7. I’ve seen her occasionally, taking her dog for a walk.

77.3 These binomials do not have and in the middle. What do they have? Check opposite or in a dictionary if you are not sure.

1. Sooner .......... later
2. All .......... nothing
3. Back .......... front
4. Sink .......... swim
5. Slowly .......... surely
6. Make .......... break

Note also:

He’s such an awkward customer. [difficult person to deal with]
She’s a pain in the neck. Nobody likes her. [nuisance, difficult]
He gets on everyone’s nerves. [irritates everybody]

How people relate to the social norm

She’s a bit of an odd-ball; very strange. [peculiar, strange]
He’s really over the top. [very exaggerated in behaviour]
He’s round the bend, if you ask me. [absolutely crazy/mad]
My politics are very middle-of-the-road. [very normal; no radical ideas; neither left- nor right-wing]

Who’s who in the class? Idioms for ‘people in the classroom’ teacher’s pet

Mary’s top of the class a real know-all a bit of a big-head
a lazy-bones

The last three idioms are used of people outside of the class, too.
Exercises

78.1 Try to complete these idioms from memory if possible.
1 She does a lot of voluntary work; she has a heart...
2 Don’t expect any sympathy from the boss; she’s as hard...
3 I’m sure Gerry will help you; he’s as good...
4 I was too late to get on that course; I was a bit slow...
5 You won’t find him very friendly; he’s rather a cold...
6 Tell him to hurry up! He’s such a...

78.2 What do we call...
1 an irritating person who knows everything?
2 the person who is the teacher’s favourite?
3 someone who thinks they are the best and says so?
4 the one who gets the best marks?
5 a person who is very lazy?

78.3 You can also learn idioms by associating them with a key word or words. For example, two idioms on the left-hand page had gold in them and two had mark. Which were they? Here is a work-fork based on to have + head. Use the expressions to finish the sentences below.

- one’s head screwed on [be sensible]
- a head for heights [not suffer from vertigo]
- to have a head like a sieve [bad memory; see Unit 76]
- a good head for figures [be good at maths]

78.4 Mini-quiz. Which parts of your body might a difficult person (a) get on (b) be a pain in?

78.5 Which idioms do you think these drawings represent?
1 2 3

78.6 Try guessing from the context what the underlined idioms mean.
1 Don’t get angry with him. His heart’s in the right place.
2 Joe’s a bit of a square peg in a round hole here. I think he should get a job which suits his character better.
3 A: Hey! I’m talking to you! B: Sorry, I was miles away.
Idioms describing feelings or mood

Positive feelings, moods and states

Jo’s as happy as the day is long.  [extremely content]
Mary seems to be on cloud nine these days.  [extremely pleased/happy]
Everyone seemed to be in high spirits.  [lively, enjoying things]
She seems to be keeping her chin up.  [happy despite bad things]

Negative feelings, moods and states

He had a face as long as a fiddle.  [looked very depressed/sad]
She certainly looked down in the dumps.  [looked depressed/sad]
Gerry is in a (black) mood.  [a bad mood/temper]
Mark was like a bear with a sore head.  [extremely irritable] (See Unit 76.)

The poor lad was scared out of his wits.  [very scared indeed]
I jumped out of my skin when I heard the bang.  [gave a big jump]

Remember: there is an element of exaggeration in these idioms; they make comments on the situation and lighten the tone of what you are saying. So use them only informally.

Horoscopes in English language newspapers and magazines are often a good place to find idioms about moods and states, since the horoscope usually tries to tell you how you are going to feel during the coming day/week/month. Look at these horoscopes and note the idioms in italics. Each one is given a literal paraphrase below the text. Collect more idioms from horoscopes if you can.

Capricorn (21.12–19.1)

Don’t get carried away (1) by promises that won’t be kept. Keep a cool head (2) and take everything as it comes. On the work front, things are looking better.

1. be fooled 2. stay calm

Taurus (21.4–20.5)

Someone will say something that will make you swell with pride (3) and you may feel on top of the world (4) for a while, but the evening will not be so easy.

3. feel very proud 4. very happy indeed
Exercises

79.1 Here are some more idioms that can be grouped as expressing either positive or negative feelings. Try to group them using a dictionary if necessary.

- to be over the moon
- to feel/be a bit down
- to feel/be as pleased as Punch
- to feel/be browned off

79.2 Using the idioms from 79.1 and from A opposite, say how you would probably feel if...

1. you were told you had just won a vast sum of money. I'd be over the moon!
2. your boss said you had to do again a piece of work you'd already done three times.
3. you were told you'd got a very high mark in an exam.
4. you had a bad toothache and your neighbour was making a lot of noise late at night.
5. nothing seemed to have gone right for you that day.
6. someone you were secretly in love with told you they were in love with you.

79.3 Complete the idioms in these sentences.

1. Don't creep up behind me like that! You frightened the...
2. I don't need a doctor, I just feel a bit under...
3. As long as he has his car to work on, he's as happy...
4. Last year, when I won that medal, I really was on...
5. I wasn't expecting such a loud bang; I nearly jumped...
6. I've had nothing since lunch; I could...
7. I feel a bit down this week; last week I felt on top...

79.4 Spot idioms to do with feelings, moods and states in these horoscopes. Underline them, then check the meaning if necessary in a dictionary.

Scorpio (23.10-22.11)
- You may get itchy feet today, but be patient, this is not a good time to travel. Events at work will keep you on the edge of your seat for most of the day. Altogether an anxious time for Scorpions.

Leo (21.7-21.8)
- You'll be up in arms over something someone close to you says rather thoughtlessly today, but don't let it spoil things. You may be in two minds over an invitation, but think positively.

Now use the idioms to rewrite these sentences.

1. I can't decide about that job in Paris.
2. I've been in suspense all day. What's happened? Tell me!
3. Her son became restless to travel and went off to Uruguay.
4. Everyone protested loudly when they cancelled the outing.

79.5 Which idioms opposite include the words head, wits, swell, black and carried? Write a sentence using each one.

Exercises

80.1 When looking up idioms (or any type of words) in your dictionary, it is often a good idea to look at what is just before and just after the information you are looking for. In this way you can pick up some related words and/or expressions which you can record together.

For example, if you look up take the bull by the horns in a dictionary, you will probably also find these idioms:

(to be/act) like a bull in a china shop [be very clumsy]
(to talk) a load of bull [talk nonsense]

Look up these idioms using the words underlined as your key word and see what other idioms or useful phrases you can find around them in the dictionary.

1. let the cat out of the bag
2. be in a fix
3. to pour oil on troubled waters
4. to stir things up

80.2 Choose a suitable idiom from the opposite page to fill the gaps.

1. I think I'll just ................................................ and let everyone else get on with sorting matters out.
2. No, please, don't say anything; you'll only ................................................
3. It's been a long, hard struggle, but I think at last we can see ................................................
4. The police are trying their best to get to ................................................, but it's a real mystery at the moment.
5. I'm sorry, I'm in ................................................; could you explain that again?
6. At last I've managed to get him to sit ................................................; he's done nothing at all for us so far.
7. I find it difficult to get a ................................................ this global warming business, don't you?
8. I think we should take the bull ................................................ and sort it out. I don't think it should be just swept .................................................

80.3 Here are some more idioms connected with situations. From the context, can you paraphrase their meaning, as in the example?

1. It's not working; we'll have to go back to square one. go back to the beginning again
2. The teachers want one thing, the students want the exact opposite. I'm sure we can find a happy medium.
3. We were on tenterhooks all night waiting for news from the hospital. They finally rang us at 6.30 a.m.
4. Poverty and crime go hand in hand in this part of town.
5. You've been in a lot of trouble lately; you'd better toe the line from now on.

80.4 What questions could be asked to get these answers?

1. Well, we've buried the hatchet for the moment, but I'm sure it's not for good.
2. Yes, it's been a real turning-point in my career.
3. Yes, I think it would go a long way. You know how sensitive he is, and how he appreciates little gestures.
Idioms connected with praise and criticism

To put it in a nutshell, this is a waste of time.
I hope they get to the point soon.
I want to speak my mind today.

1 start the discussion
2 say exactly what I think
3 say it in few words
4 say things in a long, indirect way
5 finish the discussion
6 say stupid things
7 come to the important part of the matter
8 say intelligent, reasonable things
Exercises

82.1 Look at these dialogues and comment on them, as in the example.

Example: A: £98 for a meal! that’s outrageous!
B: Not the meal, you twit! The room!
They seem to be talking at cross-purposes.

1 JOE: So that’s what I’m going to do, take it all away.
ANN: What about –
JOE: And if they don’t like it they can just go and do what they like.
ANN: If she –
JOE: Not that I have to consult them, anyway, I’m in charge round here.
ANN: I wonder whether it –
JOE: You see, I’m the kind of person who can take a hard decision when it’s needed.

It seems that Ann can’t get

2 MICK: I got very upset when you said I was childish.
GRACE: I didn’t, honestly! All I said was that you seemed to get on very well with the children. Honestly.
MICK: Oh, I see. Oh, sorry.

It seems that Mick got the 3 DAN: So, area-wise the down-matching sales profile commitment would seem to be high-staked on double-par.

REG: Eh? Could you say that again? You’ve got me there.

It seems that Reg can’t make

4 MADGE: I don’t expect someone with your intelligence to understand this document.
ERIC: Thank you.

Madge seems to be talking

82.2 What idioms opposite do these drawings represent?

1 the discussion

2 talk

3 start

4 get to / come to

82.3 Fill the gaps to complete the collocations.

1 She is very direct and always her mind.
2 I get bored with small ; let’s get down to serious matters. I’m in love with you.
3 The boss gave me a real to after that stupid mistake I made. Still, I was in the wrong.
4 You’re behind the times! Darren’s girlfriend was last week’s ,-point.
Idioms — miscellaneous

Idioms connected with paying, buying and selling

Idioms connected with daily routine

Come on! Rise and shine! We've got to leave! [a command to someone to get up, often said to someone who doesn't want to and at a very early hour]. There's no time for breakfast. We can get a bite to eat on the motorway [have a snack or meal]. I'll drive and you can have a nap in the back seat [a short sleep]. When we get there, there'll just be time to freshen up before the meeting. [wash and tidy oneself]. It's going to be a long day; I'll be ready to crash out about 8 o'clock, I should think [be very tired/ready to sleep almost anywhere]. Still, we can stay home the following evening and put our feet up [relax], and just watch the box [watch television].
Exercises

83.1 Look at these mini-dialogues and decide which idiom from the opposite page you could use to answer the questions.

1 A: I'll give you $85.
   B: No, $100 or nothing.
   A: Oh, come on. Look, $90, there.
   B: No, I said $100 and I mean $100.

What's B doing?

2 A: I'm president of the squash club, I'm on the teacher-parent committee and I run three youth clubs.
   B: Really?
   A: Yes, oh, and I'm on that working party at the Social Centre, and there's the Union...

What sort of person could A be described as?

3 A: 'Lady in red, la-da-da-di-da...'
   B: I wish you'd stop singing that blasted song!
   A: What? Oh, sorry... 'Lady in red, la-la...'

What's A's problem?

4 A: Oh, no! You know that box of wine glasses I bought from that guy in the street?
   Half of them are cracked!
   B: Well, you should have looked at them first. It's your stupid fault.

What has A done?

83.2 Rewrite these sentences using an idiom instead of the underlined bits.

1 Can I tell you about a problem I have? I just have to tell somebody. It's been bothering me for a while now.
2 They charged us £100 for a tiny room without a bath. It was just robbery!
3 There'll just be time to have a quick meal before the show.
4 I must admit, Maria coped with the situation brilliantly.
5 I think I'll just go upstairs and have a sleep for a while, if nobody objects.
6 Well, I was very tired and fell asleep on the sofa at about two o'clock, and the party was still in full swing.

83.3 Can you think of a situation where you might...

1 have to get a bite to eat on the way?
2 have to pay over the odds for a hotel room?
3 find it hard to make any headway?
4 be willing to pay through the nose for tickets?

83.4 Which idioms do these drawings suggest?

Follow-up: Look up idioms under further parts of the body, for example, tongue, heels, toe, back, and make a note of examples.
Proverbs

Speakers tend to use proverbs to comment on a situation, often at the end of a true story someone has told, or in response to some event. As with all idiomatic expressions, they are useful and enjoyable to know and understand, but should be used with care.

Warnings/advice/morals – do’s and don’ts

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>proverb</th>
<th>paraphrase</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Don’t count your chickens before they’re hatched.</td>
<td>Don’t anticipate the future too much.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Don’t put all your eggs in one basket.</td>
<td>Don’t invest all your efforts or attention in just one thing.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Never judge a book by its cover.</td>
<td>Don’t judge people/things by their outward appearance.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Never look a gift horse in the mouth.</td>
<td>Never refuse good fortune when it is there in front of you.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Take care of the pence and the pounds will take care of themselves.</td>
<td>Take care of small sums of money and they will become large sums.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Key elements

Proverbs can also be grouped by some key elements, for example, animals and birds.

When the cat’s away, the mice will play. [people will take advantage of someone else’s absence to behave more freely]
You can lead a horse to water but you can’t make it drink. [you can try to persuade someone, but you can’t force them]
One swallow doesn’t make a summer. [one positive sign does not mean all will be well]

Visualising

As with learning all vocabulary, visualising some element often helps.

There’s no smoke without fire. [rumours are usually based on some degree of truth]
Too many cooks spoil the broth. [too many people interfering is a bad way of doing things]
People who live in glass houses shouldn’t throw stones. [don’t criticise others’ faults if you suffer from them yourself]
Many hands make light work. [a lot of people helping makes a job easier]
Exercises

84.1 Find proverbs on the left-hand page which would be suitable for these situations.
Example: Someone says they have just been offered a free two-week holiday, but are hesitating whether to take up the offer. Never look a gift-horse in the mouth.
1 Someone thanks you and your friends for helping to load heavy boxes into a van.
2 Someone says they can’t be bothered applying to different universities and will just apply to one.
3 Three different people have made different arrangements for the same meeting, and so everyone comes at different times and the result is total confusion.

84.2 Some proverbs are similar in meaning to one another. Which proverbs on the left go with which on the right, and what do they have in common in terms of meaning?

1 A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.
   Never judge a book by its cover.
2 Don’t count your chickens before they are hatched.
   Familiarity breeds contempt.
3 All that glitters is not gold.
   Never look a gift-horse in the mouth.
4 Absence makes the heart grow fonder.
   Don’t cross your bridges before you come to them.

84.3 In spoken language, people often refer to proverbs by only saying half of them and leaving the rest for the listener to ‘fill in’. Complete the proverbs in these dialogues.

1 A: ‘Joel’s always criticising people who are selfish, yet he’s terribly selfish himself.
   B: Yes, well, people who live in glass houses...
   C: Exactly.

2 A: The people in the office have been playing computer games all day since the boss fell ill.
   B: Well, you know what they say: when the cat’s away...
   A: Right, and they’re certainly doing that.

3 A: I didn’t believe those rumours about Nick and Gill, but apparently they are seeing each other.
   B: You shouldn’t be so naive, you know what they say, no smoke..., eh?
   A: Mm, I suppose you’re right.

4 A: Amazing, he’s made a fortune from just one little shop!
   B: Well, I think it’s a case of take care of the pence...
   A: Sure, he’s always been very careful with his money.

Follow-up: Try translating some proverbs from your language, word for word into English, and then, if you can, ask a native speaker if they recognise any English proverb as having the same or similar meaning.
The next seven units deal with phrasal verbs and other expressions based on common verbs. Phrasal verbs are basic verbs which can combine with different prepositions (or particles) to make verbs with completely new – and often unguessable – meanings. Phrasal verbs are used more in speaking than in writing. There is almost always a more formal way of conveying the same idea. In this unit we look at phrasal verbs formed from do and make.

Here are some of the most useful phrasal verbs based on do and make.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>phrasal verb</th>

<td>manage without</td>
<td>We'll have to do without a holiday this year as money is so short.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>do away with</td>
<td>abolish</td>
<td>Slavery was not done away with until last century.</td>

<tr>
<td>do out of</td>
<td>prevent from having (by deceit)</td>
<td>He did me out of my rightful inheritance.</td>

<td>The superb food at the hotel made up for the uncomfortable rooms.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>make up to</td>
<td>be nice to in order to get s.t.</td>
<td>He made up to her until she agreed to help.</td>

Some phrasal verbs have a number of different meanings; do up can mean not only ‘fasten’ but also ‘renovate’ and ‘put into a bundle’. Similarly, make out can mean ‘claim’, ‘manage to see’ and ‘understand’ as well as ‘write’ or ‘complete’; make up can mean ‘compose’ or ‘invent’; it can also mean ‘constitute’ or ‘form’, ‘put cosmetics on’, ‘prepare by mixing together various ingredients’ and ‘make something more numerous or complete’.

There are a lot of other common expressions based on do and make.

You do: the housework / some gardening / the washing-up / homework / your best / the shopping / the cooking / business with... and so on.

You make: arrangements / an agreement / a suggestion / a decision / a cup of tea / war / an attempt / a phone call / the best of... / an effort / an excuse / a mistake / a bed / a profit / a loss / love / the most of / a noise / a good or bad impression / a success of... / a point of... / allowances for... / a gesture / a face / fun of... / a fuss of... / a go (a success) of... and so on.

The more collocations with do and make you learn, the more you will get a ‘feel’ for the difference between the two verbs.
Exercises

85.1 Here are some different ways in which do up, make up and make out can be used. What is the meaning of the phrasal verb in each case?

I’m dreading breaking the news to him.  [telling him the news]
He has broken her heart.  [made her deeply unhappy]
The athlete broke the record for the 1000 metres.  [created a new record]
Exercises

91.1 Use the expressions on the opposite page to help you fill in the gaps in the text below. Use one word only in each gap.

Let's run ........................................ (1) the plans for tomorrow's disco just once more. First, I must see ........................................ (2) the food arrangements while you make sure that none of the equipment is likely to break ........................................ (3). I don't imagine that many people will turn ........................................ (4) until later but Nick and Jill have promised to come early to help us and I'm sure they won't let us ........................................ (5) even though Jill let it ........................................ (6) the other day that they are thinking of breaking ........................................ (7) their engagement.

91.2 Rewrite the following using the words in brackets.

1 Why does she let herself be deceived by him? (see)
2 I met Jack by chance at the station yesterday. (run)
3 I cooked the dinner yesterday. It's up to you to do it today. (turn)
4 I thought I was hallucinating when I saw a monkey in the garden. (see)
5 I wish you'd stop bothering me. (let)
6 He told us in secret that they were planning to break into the house. (let)
7 An enormous crowd came to hear the Prime Minister speak. (turn)

91.3 Complete the sentences in an appropriate way.

1 If the snow doesn't let up soon...
2 A person who cannot see the wood for the trees does not make a good...
3 Halfway up the mountain he let go...
4 Although the turnout for the meeting was not large...
5 He felt terribly let down when...
6 She didn't turn up...
7 I'm afraid we've run out...
8 He asked if I could see my way...

91.4 Answer the questions below.

1 Have you ever turned down an offer or invitation that you later regretted?
2 Have you ever had problems because of something (a vehicle or a piece of equipment, perhaps) breaking down at an inconvenient time? What happened?
3 Who really runs the country, in your opinion?
4 Have you done anyone a good turn today? If so, what did you do?
5 Which record would you most like to break?
6 Do you think it is possible for someone's heart to be broken?
7 Have you ever resolved to turn over a new leaf? In what way(s)?
8 Have you any particular jobs that you must see to today? If so, what?
9 Has your home ever been broken into? What happened?

91.5 The expressions opposite are only some of many expressions using these five verbs. Can you think of two other phrasal verbs or other idiomatic expressions using each of the verbs? If you can't, try to find them in a dictionary.
Headline English

Headline writers try to catch the reader’s eye by using as few words as possible. The language headlines use is, consequently, unusual in a number of ways.

- Grammar words like articles or auxiliary verbs are often left out, e.g. EARLY CUT FORECAST IN INTEREST RATES
- A simple form of the verb is used, e.g. QUEEN OPENS HOSPITAL TODAY
- The infinitive is used to express the fact that something is going to happen in the future, e.g. PRESIDENT TO VISIT MINE

Newspaper headlines use a lot of distinctive vocabulary. They prefer words that are usually shorter and generally sound more dramatic than ordinary English words. The words marked * can be used either as nouns or verbs.

Newspaper headlines often use abbreviations, e.g. PM for Prime Minister, MP for Member of Parliament. (See Unit 98 for more abbreviations.)

Some newspapers also enjoy making jokes in their headlines. They do this by playing with words or punning, e.g. a wet open air concert in London by the opera singer Luciano Pavarotti was described as:

TORRENTIAL RAIN IN MOST ARIAS  ['most areas']

An announcement that a woman working at the Mars chocolate company had got an interesting new job was:

WOMAN FROM MARS TO BE FIRST BRITON IN SPACE

(Note that the word 'Briton' is almost exclusively found in newspapers.)
Exercises

92.1 On the left there is a list of headlines. On the right there is a list of news topics. Match the headlines with the appropriate topic as in the example.

1 PM BACKS PEACE PLAN — marriage of famous actress
2 MP SPY DRAMA — royal jewels are stolen
3 SPACE PROBE FAILS — person who saw crime in danger
4 QUEEN'S GEMS RIDDLE — proposal to end war
5 STAR WEDS — satellite is not launched
6 KEY WITNESS DEATH THREAT — politician sells secrets to enemy

92.2 Explain what the following headlines mean in ordinary English.

Example: SHOP BLAZE 5 DEAD Five people died in a fire in a shop.

1 MOVE TO CREATE MORE JOBS
2 GO-AHEAD FOR WATER CURBS
3 WOMAN QUITS AFTER JOB ORDEAL
4 POLL PROBES SPENDING HABITS
5 BID TO OUST PM
6 PRINCE VOWS TO BACK FAMILY

92.3 The words marked * in the table opposite can be either nouns or verbs. Note that the meaning given is usually in the form of a noun. In the headlines below you have examples of words from the table used as verbs. Look at the underlined verbs and explain what they mean. You may need to use more than one word.

Example: PM TO CURB SPENDING limit

1 BOOK LINKS MI5 WITH KGB
2 CHANCELLOR CUTS INTEREST RATES
3 BOMB BLASTS CENTRAL LONDON
4 PM PLEDGES BACKING FOR EUROPE
5 PRESIDENT HEADS PEACE MOVES

92.4 Would you be interested in the stories under the following headlines? Why (not)?

Mortgages cut as bank rates fall again
New tennis clash
Price curbs boost exports
Teenage £4m fraud riddle
Women barred from jobs
Royal family quits

92.5 Look through some English language newspapers and find some examples of headlines illustrating the points made on the opposite page. Beside each headline make a note of what the accompanying story is about. Try to find some examples of amusing headlines.
English in the USA differs considerably from British English. Pronunciation is the most striking difference but there are also a number of differences in vocabulary and spelling as well as slight differences in grammar. On the whole, British people are exposed to a lot of American English on TV, in films and so on and so they will usually understand most American vocabulary.

American spelling is usually simpler. For example, British English words ending in -our and -re, end in -or and -er in American English, e.g. colour/color, centre/center. There are differences in individual words too, e.g. British ‘plough’ becomes ‘plow’. The American spelling usually tries to correspond more closely to pronunciation.

Here are some common US words with their British equivalents.

Exercises

93.1 If you saw words spelt in the following way would you expect the writer in each case to be British or American? Why?
1 labor  2 centre  3 hospitalized  4 movie theater  5 favour  6 thru 93.2 What are (a) the American and (b) the British words for the following things?

1  2  3  4  5
6  7  8  9  10

93.3 You are going on holiday to the States. Which of the words listed in B and C opposite do you think it would be most important for you to know? Which of the words would a person travelling with a baby might well need to know?

93.4 Translate the following into British English.
1 I had a blow-out.  6 It's in the trunk.
2 Pass me the cookies.  7 One-way or round trip?
3 It's in the closet.  8 He left the faucet on.
4 Open the drapes.  9 We're leaving in the fall.
5 We've run out of gas.  10 I hate waiting in line.

93.5 Can you avoid some of the most common confusions arising between British and American speakers? Try the following quiz.
1 Where would you take (a) an American visitor (b) a British visitor who said they wanted to wash up – the kitchen or the bathroom?
2 Would (a) an American (b) a Brit be expected to get something hot or something cold if they asked for some potato chips?
3 Which would surprise you more – an American or a British man telling you that he wanted to go and change his pants?
4 You have just come into an unknown office block. If (a) an American (b) a Brit says that the office you need is on the second floor, how many flights of stairs do you need to climb?
5 If (a) an American (b) a Brit asks for a bill, is he or she more likely to be in a bank or a café?

93.6 Do you know any other examples of American English? Make a list at an appropriate place in your vocabulary notebook or file.
US or American English (see Unit 93) is not the only special variety of English. Each area of the English-speaking world has developed its own special characteristics. This is usually mainly a matter of vocabulary and pronunciation. This unit just gives you a small taste of some of the different varieties of English by drawing your attention to vocabulary used in various English-speaking regions. All the words covered in this unit would be understood by educated native speakers of British English although they might not choose to use them themselves. They are all words which you may come across in your own reading, listening or viewing.

Australian English is particularly interesting for its rich store of highly colloquial words and expressions. Australian colloquialisms often involve shortening a word. Sometimes the ending ‘-ie’ or ‘-o’ is then added, e.g. a smoko (from smoking), is a ‘tea or coffee break’ and a milko delivers the milk; beaut, short for ‘beautiful’ means ‘great’. Because of the current popularity of Australian TV programmes and films, some of these words are now being used by British people too.

Indian English, on the other hand, is characterised by sounding more formal than British English. It has retained in everyday usage words that are found more in the classics of nineteenth century literature than in contemporary TV programmes from London, e.g. The bereaved are consoled and the Prime Minister is felicitated on his or her birthday. An Indian might complain of a pain in his bosom (rather than his chest) and an Indian bandit is referred to as a miscreant.

Scottish English uses a number of special dialect words. Some of the more common of these are worth learning.

Exercises

94.1 What do you think these examples of Australian colloquialisms mean? They are all formed by abbreviating an English word which you probably know.
1. Where did you go when you were in Oz?
2. She wants to be a journo when she leaves uni.
3. We got terribly bitten by mozzies at yesterday's barbie.
4. He's planning to do a bit of farming bizzo while he's in the States.
5. What are you doing this arvo?
6. We decided to have a party as the oldies had gone away for the weekend.

94.2 The words on the left are more common in Indian English than British English. The words on the right are the equivalent words more frequently used in British English. Match the Indian word with its British English equivalent.

- abscond: catch (e.g. by police)
- nab: man who annoys girls
- bag (i.e. a seat in an election): plimsolls, sneakers
- Eve-teaser: underwear
- the common man: flee
- fleetfoots: people awaiting trial
- undertrials: the general public
- wearunders: capture/obtain

94.3 Below you have some statements made by a Scot. Answer the questions about them.
1. Mary had a bonny wee lassie last night. What happened to Mary yesterday?
2. They stay next to the kirk. What noise is likely to wake them on Sunday mornings?
3. It's a bit dreich today. Is it good weather for a picnic?
4. He's got a new job as janitor at the school. What kind of duties will he have?
5. Would you like a wee dram? If you say 'yes', what will you get?
6. ‘Are you coming, Jim?’ ‘Aye’. Is Jim coming or isn't he?
7. They have a wonderful view of the loch from their window. What can they see from the window?

94.4 Answer the following questions relating to Black English.
1. Would you be pleased to be called square?
2. What does hair that is in dreadlocks look like?
3. When might you feel dead beat?
4. If musicians have a jam session, what do they do?
Slang is a particular kind of colloquial language. It refers to words and expressions which are extremely informal. Slang helps to make speech vivid, colourful and interesting but it can easily be used inappropriately. Although slang is mainly used in speech, it is also often found in the popular press.

It can be risky for someone who is not a native speaker to use slang. Firstly because some slang expressions may cause offence to some sections of the population. For example, most policemen are quite happy to be referred to as coppers but are offended by the term pigs. Similarly, you could probably use the word sozzled (meaning drunk) in front of anyone but using the words, pissed or arseholed, which also mean drunk, could upset some people.

Secondly, slang words date very quickly. Different generations, for instance, have used different slang expressions to say that something was ‘wonderful’.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period</th>
<th>Expressions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>pre-war: top-hole</td>
<td>1970s: ace, cosmic</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1940s: wizard</td>
<td>1980s: brill, wicked</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1960s: fab, groovy</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

It can be possible to work out a native speaker’s age from the expressions which they use, as people tend to stick with the slang expressions of their youth.

To sum up, you may find it interesting to learn about slang and you may come across slang expressions (particularly when you are watching films or reading popular newspapers or novels) but you might be well advised to avoid using slang yourself.

Here are some examples of some slang words and expressions which you may come across. The ones which are most likely to cause offence are underlined.

- Expressions for money: dough, bread, dosh, loot, brass, spondulicks
- Expressions for the police: pigs, fuzz, cop(per)s, bill
- Expressions for drunk: pissed, sozzled, paralytic, legless, arseholed
- Expressions for a stupid person: wally, prat, nerd, jerk, dickhead, plonker, pillock
- Expressions for lavatory: loo, lav, bog, john
- Expressions for drink: booze, plonk (wine), a snifter, a snort
- Drug-related expressions: a fix, dope, grass, high, stoned, snow (heroin)
- Prison-related expressions: nick (prison), nark (informer), screw (warder)

Slang is often used by one particular group and is unintelligible to other people. Here are some examples from American truck-drivers using CB radio to talk to each other.

- grandma lane: slow lane
- doughnuts: tyres
- motion lotion: fuel
- five finger discount: stolen goods
- anklebiters: children
- eyeballs: headlights
- super cola: beer
- affirmative: yes
Exercises

95.1 Replace the slang words which are underlined in the sentences below with more formal equivalents. If the meaning is not given opposite, then it should be possible to guess what it is. Notice that some of the words have a slang meaning which is different from their everyday meaning.

1 The newsreader on TV last night seemed to be pissed as he was reading the news.
2 He’s quite a nice bloke really.
3 I’ve got a terrible belly ache – I think I’d better make an appointment with the quack.
4 Her dad was furious when he learnt he had to wear a penguin suit to the wedding.
5 Can you lend me some dosh till tomorrow?
6 I know there’ll be plenty of nosh but do we need to take some booze to the party?
7 Have you got wheels or shall we call a taxi?
8 I’m dying for a cuppa. I haven’t had one since breakfast.
9 Can I use your loo, please?
10 I was absolutely gobsmacked when she told me she was leaving.

95.2 Match the statements on the left with the responses to them on the right.

1 How was the party? — Let’s take him home.
2 What does that guy over there do? — Sure. I’ll keep my eyes skinned.
3 He’s getting legless. — He’s in the nick.
4 Keep a lookout for the pigs. — It’s in a drawer, over here.
5 Where’s the dough? — He’s a cop.
6 Where’s her hubby? — Let’s go for a run in the motor.
7 What’ll we do tomorrow? — Wicked!

95.3 A particular well-known kind of slang is Cockney rhyming slang where an expression is used in place of something that it rhymes with.

Example: trouble and strife = wife apples and pears = stairs

How would you translate the Cockney rhyming slang expressions in the sentences below?

1 Let’s have a butcher’s (short for butcher’s hook) at your homework.
2 Just look at those Gawd forbids playing football!
3 It’s on the Cain and Abel next to the phone.
4 What a set of Hampstead Heath!
5 She’ll get him to the lean and lurch by hook or by crook.
6 Have you seen my titfer? (short for tit for tat)

95.4 Another common way of making slang words is by using short forms or loosely pronounced forms of ordinary words. Thus fab is a slang form of ‘fabulous’ and hubby is a slang form of ‘husband’. Can you work out the meanings of the following underlined slang words?

1 He’s my fella.
2 Let’s have brekkie.
3 It was a freebie.
4 He’s a brickie.
5 I took a sickie.
6 Let’s have a barbie.
96 The language of notices

Notices in English often use words and expressions that are rarely seen in other contexts. Look at the notices below with their ‘translations’ into more everyday English.

You will find more examples of a specific kind of notice, road signs, in Unit 49.
Exercises

96.1 Where would you expect to see each of the notices on the opposite page?
Example: 1 on a bus

96.2 Match each of the words on the left with their more everyday translations from the list on the right.

1 to prosecute a young person under the age of 18
2 a penalty to get off a bicycle or a horse
3 a purchase to bring a legal case against 4 a trespasser not to do something
5 to refrain to forbid something
6 to alight from a means of transport
7 to prohibit a punishment
8 an auditorium something which has been or is to be bought
9 to dismount to get off a means of public transport
10 a minor large place where an audience sits
11 a vehicle someone who goes on private land without permission

96.3 Explain the notices below. Where might you see each of these notices?

1 SHOP-LIFTERS WILL BE PROSECUTED
2 French spoken here
3 Nothing to declare
4 Clearance sale starts today
5 Admission to ticket holders only
6 No vacancies
7 FISHING STRICTLY PROHIBITED
8 Cycles for hire or sale
9 Flat to let
10 Dogs must be carried
11 These seats are appreciated by the old and infirm

96.4 What notice would a café-owner put up if they wanted to:
1 indicate that their café was now open for coffee?
2 let people know that the café staff can speak Spanish?
3 stop people from smoking in their café?
4 let people know that they can buy free-range eggs there too?
5 ask people not to fix notices onto their wall?
6 tell people that they could rent rooms there overnight?

96.5 If you are in or go to visit an English-speaking country, make a collection in your vocabulary book of any notices that you see.
97 Words and gender

In this unit we look at the problems of using words in a way that is not offensive to either gender. In English, a lot of words are marked as masculine or feminine by suffixes, but many other words have ‘female’ or ‘male’ associations and should be used carefully.

Suffixes marking gender

-er(-or)/-ess: traditionally used to mark male (m) and female (f), e.g. actress (f) / actor (m); waitress (f) / waiter (m).

These two words are still often used in both forms, but forms such as authoress, poetess, murderess and manageress are considered old-fashioned. If you want to be neutral, you can use the -er/-or suffix for male or female.

Schoolmistress/master sound old-fashioned, use teacher instead; air hostess also sounds out of date, use flight attendant (neutral) or stewardess.

-man, -woman and -person

Traditional social roles often meant that -man was used even for roles performed by women. Now many people prefer a neutral form for both sexes, if there is one available.

‘Social’ marking of words

Some words, particularly the names of jobs, are socially marked as belonging to one gender, even though the words are neutral in form, e.g. in English, nurse was considered so ‘female’ that if a man was a nurse, he was often referred to as a male nurse.

Just consider your own reaction to these words, and whether most people would tend to think of a man or a woman upon hearing them.

barber  hairdresser  burglar  secretary  farmer  butcher

Note: bachelor and spinster can both have negative or undesirable associations. Use unmarried or single (man/woman) instead. Likewise, instead of fiancé(e), you can use partner, especially for someone you live with as a couple but are not married to.

Many women nowadays prefer the title Ms /mæz/, rather than Miss or Mrs.
Exercises

97.1 Look at this rather sexist advertisement for an airline. Change the wording to make it more neutral.

Now! Eagle Airlines offers even more to the businessman who needs comfort.

Let us fly you to your destination in first-class comfort, looked after by the best-trained air hostesses in the world. Any businessman knows that he must arrive fresh and ready for work no matter how long the journey. With Eagle Diplomat-Class you can do just that. And, what's more, your wife can travel with you on all intercontinental flights for only 25% of the normal fare! Your secretary can book you on any flights 24 hours a day on 0557-465769. All she has to do is lift the phone.

97.2 Here are some more names of jobs and occupations. Are they marked for gender either in the form of the word itself, or 'socially' marked as typically male or female? How are they translated into your language, by neutral or by gender-marked words?

1 conductor 4 typist 7 general 10 milkman
2 shepherd 5 station master 8 detective 11 tailor
3 cheerleader 6 dressmaker 9 monk

97.3 These words include some that many people consider sexist. Put the words into appropriate pairs with their neutral alternatives.

cabin attendant man-hours unmanned air hostess unstaffed spinster human beings single woman mankind person-hours

97.4 Change gender-marked words into neutral ones.

1 We shall have to elect a new chairman next month.
2 Several firemen and policemen were hurt in the riots.
3 A spokesman for the store said the manageress had decided to resign.
4 I wonder what time the postman comes every day.
5 I can't see a barman anywhere. Shall I press this bell and see if someone comes?
6 Her brother's a male nurse, and she's an authoress.

97.5 Make this letter more neutral.

The Manager
Fristowwe Engineering Ltd 22/11/92

Dear Sir,
I am a spinster aged 22 and am seeking employment. I saw your advertisement for part-time workers in The Globe last week. However, your 24-hour answering service seemed to be unmanned when I tried it. Could you please send me application forms by post? Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Sally Hewings (Miss)
Abbreviations

Some abbreviations are read as individual letters:

- WHO (W-H-O) World Health Organisation
- IRA Irish Republican Army
- PLO Palestine Liberation Organisation
- BBC British Broadcasting Corporation
- UN United Nations
- PM Prime Minister
- ANC African National Congress
- MP Member of Parliament

In the following three cases, the name of each country and the name of its secret police are pronounced as individual letters/numbers.

- CIA (USA)
- MI5 (UK)
- KGB (former USSR, now CIS)

Note: When these abbreviations are stressed words in the sentence, the stress falls on the last letter, e.g. She works for the CIA. I heard it on the BBC.

Some abbreviations are read as words; we call them acronyms.

- NATO /'neitau/ North Atlantic Treaty Organisation
- OPEC /'aupek/ Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries
- AIDS /'eidz/ Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome

Some acronyms have become so normal as words that people do not think of them as abbreviations any longer, and so they are not written all in capital letters.

- laser
- radar
- yuppy
- Esso

Some abbreviations are only written forms; they are still pronounced as the full word.

- Mr (Mister)
- Dr (Doctor)
- St (Saint or Street)

Abbreviations are used in the organisation of language.

- etc. /et'setra/ and so on [Latin: et cetera]
- i.e. (I-E): that is to say [Latin: id est]
- PTO (P-T-O) please turn over
- NB (N-B) please note [Latin: nota bene]
- RSVP (R-S-V-P) please reply [French: répondez s'il vous plaît]
- e.g. (E-G) for example [Latin: exempli gratia]

Clippings: some words are normally used in an abbreviated form in informal situations.
(See also Unit 7.)

- lab (laboratory)
- phone (telephone)
- fridge (refrigerator)
- TV or telly (television)
- board (blackboard)
- bike (bicycle)
- case (suitcase)
- exam (examination)
- plane (aeroplane)
- rep (business representative)
- ad/advert (advertisement)
- fax (telefax)

Some abbreviations you might see on a letter/fax/envelope.

- c/o care of [e.g. T. Smith, c/o J. Brown; the letter goes to J. Brown’s address]
- enc. enclosed [e.g. enc. application form]
- PS postscript [extra message after the letter has been ended]
- asap as soon as possible [e.g. ring me asap]

No language stands still. New words and expressions are always being created, usually because something new is invented or sometimes just for fun. No government committee decides whether a new word is acceptable or not; if it is used frequently, and in a variety of contexts, it will find its way into the dictionary. Here are some of the words and expressions that have come into English since 1980.

New science and technology

- faxable: able to be sent by fax machine
- junk fax: unsolicited material, such as adverts, sent by fax
- tummytuck: a plastic surgery operation to remove fat from the stomach
- sound bite: a brief excerpt from a speech or statement, broadcast on TV

New sports and fashions

- monoboarding: the sport of skiing downhill on a large single ski
- snowsurfing: skiing downhill standing sideways on a large single ski
- vogueing: a style of dancing to house music incorporating the movements and gestures of models displaying clothes

Political and social trends

- eco-friendly: not harming the environment
- cardboard city: area occupied by cardboard boxes serving as homes for the homeless
- teleworking: working from home communicating by computer and fax
- advertocracy: pursuit of public policy by mass advertising campaigns
- destatisation: withdrawal of the state from areas that were previously state-controlled as in the (former) Soviet bloc in the 80s and 90s
- Gorbymania: extreme enthusiasm for the former Soviet President, Mikhail Gorbachev
- newmannery: behaviour of the new man (gentle, caring, non-sexist)
- couch potato: a lazy person who prefers watching TV to being active

New words from other languages

- fatwa: formal legal opinion delivered by an Islamic leader (Arabic)
- karaoke: singing pop songs solo to recorded music in bars (Japanese)
- glasnost: policy of openness or frankness (Russian)

New forms or meanings for old words

- ageism: prejudice against someone because of their age
- nostalgic: to indulge in nostalgia
- pre-schooler: a child not yet old enough for school
- dark-green: holding radically green political beliefs
- singlehood: the state of being single rather than married
- clergyperson: a male or female member of the clergy (a typical development from clergyman. Compare: chairperson)
Exercises

99.1 Here are some more new words. Match them with their definitions. Which of the five categories opposite does each fit best in?

1 collectomania [a specially bred miniaturised form of vegetable]
2 bio-house [a hypothetical miniaturised device capable of making its way through bodily passages and performing various tasks]
3 bimbo [an irresistible urge to collect things]
4 mini-vegetable [an indoor version of American football]
5 arenaball [a house constructed solely from natural materials]
6 microbot [a female of limited intelligence but high sex appeal]

99.2 Choose which word from those defined opposite fits into the following sentences.

1 I always buy roll-on rather than aerosol deodorants ever since I learnt how much more .................................. they are.
2 .................................. was much more common in the West than the USSR just as Mrs Thatcher was probably more popular outside the UK.
3 Most of my married friends think there’s a lot to be said for .................................. It sounds too dangerous to me.
4 They think that in the next ten years more and more people will start .................................. It should certainly ease traffic in the rush hours.
5 He’s such a .................................. His only activity is pressing the remote control.
6 Many politicians now try to ensure they write some effective .................................. into their speeches.

99.3 Many of the words on the opposite page will have a very short life. Pick out three that you think may be widely used still in ten years.

99.4 If you meet a new word it is often possible to work out its meaning from its context. Practise by explaining what the underlined words in the following sentences must mean.

1 I very much prefer restaurants where there is no microwavery.
2 They’re building a new cineplex on the edge of the town so we should be able to choose from a variety of films on Saturday nights.
3 Upskiing, which uses small parachutes, is a rapidly developing sport in the USA.
4 World AIDS Day was inspired by the health globocrats of the World Health Organisation.
5 He is writing a thesis on humorology.
6 The boss is very much a hands-on manager who likes to be involved in all aspects of the company’s work.
7 Many large shops now have their own store cards.
8 The post-war baby-boomers are now becoming grandparents.
Discourse markers

Discourse markers are small words and phrases whose job it is to organise, comment on or in some way frame what we are saying or writing. A common everyday example is the use of well in speech:

Well here shows that the speaker is aware he/she is changing the direction of the conversation in some way (not giving the expected ‘yes’ answer). In other words, well is a comment on what is being said. Another example is how teachers use words like right and okay to organise what is happening in a classroom:

Teacher: Right/okay, let’s have a look at exercise 3.

Common markers to organise different stages of talk (as in the teacher example).

Now, what shall we do next? So, would you like to come to the table now, please?
Good, I’ll ring you on Thursday, then. Well then, what was it you wanted to talk about?
Now then, I want you to look at this picture. [said by someone in control of the conversation, e.g. a teacher] Fine/Great, let’s leave it at that, then, shall we?

In these mini-dialogues, the markers in bold modify or comment on what is being said.

A: It’s cold, isn’t it?
B: Yeah.
A: Mind you, it is November, so it’s not surprising.
[an afterthought – however]
A: It’s quite a problem...
B: Listen/Look, why don’t you let me sort it out?
A: Would you? Thanks a lot.
[introducing a suggestion/point]

Here are some other similar markers.
I can’t do that. You see, I’m only the secretary.  [explaining]
He was, you know, sort of... just standing there.  [hesitation]

Common markers in written English for organising a formal text.

First / Firstly / First of all, we must consider...
Next, it is important to remember that...
Finally/Lasty, we should look at...  [NB not ‘at last’]
In summary, we can say that...  [summing up the main points]
In conclusion, I should like to say that...  [finishing the text]

Markers for explaining, rephrasing, etc., in speech and writing.

Memorising words requires reinforcement; in other words / that is to say, you have to study the same words over and over again.

Some words are hard to say, for example / for instance, ‘crisps’.
She is, as it were / so to speak, living in a world of her own.
[make what you are saying sound less definite/precise]
Exercises

100.1 Underline all the discourse markers in this monologue. Not all of them are on the left-hand page.

'Well, where shall I start? It was last summer and we were just sitting in the garden, sort of doing nothing much. Anyway, I looked up and...see we have this kind of long wall at the end of the garden, and it's...like...a motorway for cats, for instance, that big fat black one you saw, well, that one considers it has a right of way over our vegetable patch, so...where was I? Yes, I was looking at that wall, you know, daydreaming as usual, and all of a sudden there was this new cat I'd never seen before, or rather, it wasn't an ordinary cat at all...I mean, you'll never believe what it was...'

100.2 Here are some small dialogues where there are no markers used at all, which would be unusual in real informal talk. Add markers from A, B and D opposite and from exercise 1 above, where you think the speakers might use them.

1 A: Are you a football fan?
B: I like it; I wouldn't say I was a fan.

2 A: I'll take care of these.
B: That's everything.
A: See you next week.
B: That was a very useful meeting.

3 A: It was last Monday. I was coming home from work. I saw this ragged old man approaching me. I stopped him -
B: Jim Dibble!
A: Let me tell you what happened first.
B: Them off.

4 A: Which number is yours?
B: (pause)...it's that one here, yes, this one.

5 A: He's looking exhausted.
B: Yes, he is.
A: He has an awful lot of responsibility, so it's hardly surprising.

6 A: What do you mean 'cold'?
B: She's not friendly, very distant. Last week I gave her a jolly smile and she...scowled at me.
A: What do you expect? I've seen the way you smile at people, it puts 100.3 Fill the gaps with markers often found in written texts. You may need some which are not on the left-hand page. The first letter of each phrase/word is given.

Crime and Punishment

F............... (1), it is important to understand why people commit crimes, i......
............... (2), what are the motives which make people do things they would never normally do? F............... (3), a young man steals clothes from a shop; is it because he is unemployed? a drug addict? mentally disturbed? N............... (4) it is essential to consider whether punishment makes any difference, or is it just, a ............... ............... (5), a kind of revenge? L............... (6), how can we help victims of crime? I............... ............... (7), how can we get to the roots of the problem, rather than just attacking the symptoms?

Follow-up: If you can, make a recording of a natural conversation between native speakers (get their permission, but don't say why you need it). What markers do they use?
Key

Many of your answers will depend on your own particular interests and needs. It is only possible for the key to suggest answers in some cases.

Unit 1

A 1 d 2 b 3 b 4 a

B 1 Some possible answers:
   a) a chilly day
   b) to dissuade someone from doing something
   c) a popular king / to crown a king
   d) up to the ears in work
   e) independent of someone / an independent country
   f) get married to someone

2 a) scissors – only used in plural; if you want to count scissors, you have to say, for example, ‘two pairs of scissors’.
   b) weather – uncountable
   c) teach, taught, taught; teach someone to do something; teach someone French.
   d) advice – uncountable; a piece of advice; verb = to advise (regular).
   e) lose, lost, lost
   f) trousers – only used in plural; if you want to count trousers you have to say, for example, ‘three pairs of trousers’.

3 a) The ‘b’ in comb is silent, as it is in tomb and lamb too.
   b) The final ‘e’ in catastrophe is pronounced as a syllable as it is in apostrophe. Catastrophe, has 4 syllables. (See Index for pronunciation)
   c) The stress is on the first syllable in photograph, and on the second syllable in photographer; it is on the third syllable in photographical. The ‘rule’ is that the stress in long words in English very frequently falls on the third syllable from the end of the word.

D The picture is a good clue to help you understand tortoise. You may recognise the word shell in shelled (as in egg shell, for example). Similarly, your knowledge of life and long together with the context should enable you to work out what lifespan and longevity mean. The whole context of the sentence should help you to work out the meaning of tended. Some of the underlined words may be similar to words in your own language which can be another useful way of working out the meaning of a word you have not seen before.

E Research into language learning can help you to prepare a sensible vocabulary learning plan. What you plan to do will, of course, depend very much on your own circumstances. You cannot realistically aim to learn as many new words a day if you are working a full day at something else as if you are doing a full-time English course. In general, however, 10 to 20 words a week is probably a reasonable aim.

It does not matter where you try to learn vocabulary but it seems to be better to do a little on a regular basis rather than a lot infrequently. Research also suggests that it is a good idea to revise your work on a very regular basis – once a week, perhaps, but do not revise only the words that you’ve learnt in that week. Look back over your work of the previous month(s).

Unit 2

A 1 Possible words to add: purr, scratch, tomcat, tail and whiskers

2 a) Child, tooth and ox are all words with irregular plurals (children, teeth, oxen). You could add more examples, e.g. mouse (mice); goose (geese); foot (feet); phenomenon (phenomena).
b) Cut, split and burst are all irregular verbs whose three basic forms are identical to each other (i.e. cut, cut, cut; split, split, split and burst, burst, burst). You could add put, hurt and set to this group.

c) Information, furniture and food are all uncountable nouns – you could add milk, money and work to this group.

3 Possible words and expressions to add:
   a) pricey, underpriced, price tag  b) to lend someone a hand, a handful; a handbag, underhand, etc.

B 1 Possible word tree for school:

2 Possible ways to complete the word forks:

magnificent kick breathtaking hit super__________ views throw a ball stunning catch splendid bounce

3 a) drive b) fly c) Riding

Unit 3

3.1 The list is probably connected to a lesson or lessons about time or a text about someone’s relationship with time. A possible organisation might include bringing the clock words together in a word-map or bubble diagram (clock, wristwatch, hands, minute-hand); other words could then be added later (hour-hand, face/dial, digital, etc.)

Tell the time and What time do you make it? could form a separate list of ‘time phrases’, to which others could be added, e.g. Have you got the time?, My watch is fast/slow, etc. Drowsy and wide awake could be treated as antonyms, and some notes about the usage of beneath and under would be useful. The list could have information about word-class too.

3.2 Theatre seems the obvious word.

3.3 Other testing systems include re-entering any word you have difficulty remembering, so that it appears more than once in the notebook. Another useful discipline is to set yourself a small, fixed number of words to memorise each week, e.g. 20, and to tick them off in the book as you do them. You could also take out any ten words from your book and put them on individual slips of paper which you stick in prominent places around your room or house, e.g. on the fridge door, so that you are regularly looking at them.

4.9 ( ) brackets ? question mark ’ apostrophe

Unit 5

5.2 1 All the words are possible. Some people feel that sofa and couch are a bit ‘lower class’, and that settee is the so-called ‘refined, middle-class’ word. Divan could also be used, but its normal British English meaning is a kind of bed with a very thick base. It can also, less commonly, mean a kind of sofa with no back or arms.

2 Luxury most typically collocates with yacht, though ketch (a double-masted sailing ship) would also be possible. A dinghy is a very small, open boat, hardly suitable for going around the world. Sailing boat sounds just too general here, since it covers all types of boats with sails.
3 Wellingtons is the most likely word, since they are rubber boots designed to keep the water out. Boots are any kind of high-sided footwear. Bootees suggests a kind of ankle-length shoe, fairly lightweight, usually with fur inside for cold weather, often referring to what babies wear.

4 Dinghy would be a good word here (see 2 above), though sailing boat would also fit, as it's quite general.

There is no key for Unit 6.

Unit 7

7.1
1 kip - to sleep / have a sleep
2 a pal - a friend; nowadays, mate is perhaps the most common informal word for 'friend' in British English
3 a chap - a man; chap does have associations of being a middle-class word and perhaps not used so much by young people
4 cheerio - goodbye; bye and ta-ta (pron: /tə tuː/) are also common, ta-ta being the most informal
5 swot - study hard, e.g. for an exam; you can call someone a swot too
6 ta - thank you, or (slightly less formal) thanks
7 brainy - clever / intelligent; intelligent is the most formal.

7.2 Suggested changes:
JIM: Annie, can you lend me five quid?
ANNIE: What for?
JIM: Well, I've got to go and see my mum and dad, and my bike's not working, so I'll have to take/get a taxi.
ANNIE: Can't you phone/ring/call them and say you can't come?
JIM: Well, I could, except I want to go because they always have lots of food, and the fridge at our flat (or 'our place', which is a common way of talking about your house/flat) is empty, as usual.
ANNIE: Can't you get the / go by tube?
JIM: Erm...
ANNIE: Anyway, the answer's no.

For the sake of practice, we have created here a dialogue that probably has more of a concentration of informal words than would occur in reality. Don't forget the advice given at the beginning of the unit about using too much informal language.

7.3
1 A teenage boy would probably say a date (or 'Fancy going out?'), not an appointment in this situation; appointment is for business contexts; too formal.
2 Offspring, if the parent used it, would be heard as humorous, certainly not the normal word for this situation; children or kids (informal) would be the normal words. Offspring would be suitable for legal contexts, religious language and serious history books/biographies; too formal.
3 As with 2, this would be heard as humorous/mock-serious. Most people would say 'I never drink' or 'I never touch alcohol' in this situation. Alcoholic beverages is very formal/legalistic and you might see it on, e.g. a notice prohibiting drinking in a particular place or the sale of drink at particular times; too formal.
4 Probably acceptable. People who work together or share an institutional context often develop a high degree of acceptable informality. Such is often the case in British universities and colleges. In such institutional settings, clippings and other short forms are widely used by everyone and operate as a sort of slang among the people involved, and are not heard as disrespectful.

5 The use of ads here sounds out of place compared with the formal tone of the rest of the letter ('Dear Sir/Madam... I should like to enquire... etc.'), so it is too informal. Over the phone, however, the same person might well say 'Could you tell me how much it’d cost to put an ad in your paper?' in order to create a friendly relationship with the person answering the call.

7.4 1 in motion       3 a) to regret    b) to purchase     c) to address
2 to alight       4 Hi! Bye!

7.5 Suggested versions:
1 Children shouldn’t / are asked not to drop rubbish/litter in the play-area.
2 You can only get your expenses/money back if you’ve got / if you hand in receipts with the date on.

Unit 8

8.1 1 windscreen wiper(s)       5 payee
2 classical violinist       6 dishwasher (normally written as one word)
3 professional photographer (pron: photographer)       7 kidney donor
4 amateur actor

8.2 1 stapler       3 can-opener (or tin-opener)       5 coat-hanger
2 grinder       4 nail-clipper

8.4 1 a cooker – a thing (the stove on which you cook); the person who cooks is a cook.
2 a typewriter – a thing (machine for typing); the person is a typist.
3 a ticket-holder – person or thing; a person who has a ticket, e.g. for a concert, or a kind of wallet for holding tickets, e.g. a season ticket for the train/bus.
4 a record player – a thing (machine for playing records).
5 a cleaner – person or thing; person who cleans, e.g. in an office or other place of work; a substance or instrument for cleaning, e.g. ‘this cleaner will get the grease off your oven’.
6 a smoker – person or thing; a person who smokes; a short name for a seat in the smoking area of a plane or train (or the whole smoking compartment on a train).
7 a drinker – person (someone who drinks alcohol, usually regularly or in large quantities).

8.5 1 forgivable       2 admission       3 laziness       4 productive       5 readable

8.7 1 neighbourhood – it is a place (an area); all the others refer to human relationships.
2 step-ladder – all the others means ‘thing for doing x’, e.g. hair-restorer restores your hair, a plant-holder holds a plant, etc.
3 compliment – all the others are verb + ‘ment’, e.g. appoint + ment. There is no verb ‘compli’.
4 handful – all the others are adjectives; handful is a noun, meaning a pile of something about as big as you can hold in your hands, e.g. a handful of sand.
5 worship – all the others are kinds of human relationships; Worship refers to paying tribute to a God, or, figuratively, as a verb, to loving someone very very much, e.g. ‘he worships his teacher’.

208 English Vocabulary in Use
('Coke' in question 2 means the fuel produced while taking gas from coal. A migraine is a very bad headache.)

1.6 How you answer this question is a matter of your own originality. Here are some 'real' quotations about these abstract nouns, however:
1. Freedom is an indivisible word. If we want to enjoy it, and to fight for it, we must be prepared to extend it to everyone.
2. Friendship is unnecessary, like philosophy, like art... It has no survival value; rather it is one of those things that gives value to survival.
3. Life is a foreign language; all men mispronounce it.
4. Four be the things I'd be better without:
   Love, curiosity, freckles and doubt.
5. Where there is no imagination, there is no horror.

Unit 12

Note that when you are looking compound adjectives up in the dictionary, you may sometimes find the word listed under its second element rather than its first. Sometimes, in some dictionaries, the word will not be listed at all if the meaning is absolutely clear from an understanding of the two elements.

Notice that the descriptions of Tom and Melissa on the left-hand page are light-hearted and far-fetched! They are not examples of good style as such long lists of adjectives would be inappropriate in a normal composition.

12.1 Some possible answers:

12.2 Here is one possible way of categorising the words. There will be many other ways of categorising them. What is important is not how you categorise them but the process of doing the exercise itself. The process should help you to learn the words.

Words connected with money: cut-price duty-free interest-free Words connected with comfort, safety and convenience: air-conditioned drip-dry hand-made remote-controlled sugar-free bullet-proof Words connected with time: last-minute long-standing off-peak part-time record-breaking time-consuming
Words often connected with travelling: long-distance second-class
Words often used to describe people: so-called world-famous Odd man out: top-secret!

12.3 Some examples:
   self-possessed P  self-indulgent N  self-employed neutral self-evident neutral  self-sufficient neutral  self-willed N  self-effacing N

15.7 1 A herculean effort is a major effort, one that demands a lot of strength and the word herculean comes from the name of the mythical Greek hero, Hercules, who was famed for his strength.
2 A platonic friendship is one between a man and a woman based on affection but with no sexual element (from the name of the Greek philosopher, Plato).
3 A teddy bear, the name given to the soft stuffed bear which is a popular child’s toy, comes from Theodore Roosevelt, the American president. A hunter of bears, Roosevelt was once said to have saved a young bear cub. The story was illustrated by a cartoon in the Washington Post and the toy bears drew their name from the pet form of Theodore.

4 A jersey, meaning sweater or jumper, comes from the name of one of the Channel Islands, Jersey, well-known for its knitting.

5 Caesarean section is a surgical operation to remove a baby from its mother’s womb. The name originates from the name of the Roman Emperor, Julius Caesar, who was reputedly born in this way.

6 July, the month, is also named after Julius Caesar.

7 A bottle of champagne is named after Champagne, the region of France where this particular type of sparkling wine is made.

8 An atlas or book of maps is named after the Greek mythological Titan, Atlas, who as a punishment for attempting to overthrow Zeus was condemned to support the world on his shoulders. One of the first atlases, that produced by Mercator in the late 16th Century, had a picture of Atlas on its cover.

9 Like many other plants – camellia, dahlia, freesia, begonia and so on – magnolia takes its name from a person, Magnolia comes from the French botanist, Pierre Magnol, who devised a system of classifying plants.

Unit 17

17.2 Some possible answers:
gr: grizzle and grudge, both have rather unpleasant meanings – grizzle is to cry because of bad temper rather than pain or discomfort and grudge is to be unwilling to give or do something.
cl: clap or clatter, both represent quite sharp sounds – clap is to applaud with your hands and clatter is to make a long, continuous resounding noise like hard metallic things falling on a hard surface.
sp: spatter or spill both have an association with liquid or powder – spatter means to splash or scatter in drips, spill means to knock over something liquid.
uwh: whirl and whisk both have associations with the movement of air – whirl means to move quickly round and round and whisk means move or sweep quickly through the air.

Unit 18

18.1 1 They sang a psalm to honour the memory of the world-famous psychologist as she was laid to rest in the family tomb. (Note that although the ‘r’ in ‘world’ is not really pronounced, in Standard British English, it affects the way the word is pronounced.)
2 The psychiatrist was knifed in the knee as he was walking home.
3 He should have whistled as he fastened his sword to his belt. (Note that the ‘h’ in ‘have’ is not really pronounced when following an auxiliary verb as in this sentence and the next one.)
4 You could have left me half the Christmas cake on Wednesday.

Note: Most sentences in ‘real’ English avoid using homophones as they are confusing.
19.4

1 You're too young to smoke.
This is a play on words on the two meanings of smoke - to smoke a cigarette and a fire or chimney smokes (i.e. give out smoke).

2 I think I'm going down with something.
This is a play on words on two meanings of going down. There is the literal meaning go down (descend) and then there is the expression, 'go down with an illness', which means be at the start of an attack of that illness.

3 Let's play draughts.
This is a play on words on the two meanings of draughts. One is the game played with round counters and a chess board and the other is a current of air as in 'There's a terrible draught coming from under the door'.

4 He wanted to draw the curtains.
This is a play on words on two meanings of draw. The first means make a picture and the second means pull.

5 Because it's full of dates.
This is a play on words on the two meanings of dates. One refers to 1066, 1892 and all that and the other to a sweet fruit coming from a kind of palm tree or to an evening spent together by two people (usually romantic).

6 A drum takes a lot of beating.
This is a play on words on two meanings of beating. A drummer beats a drum. There is also an expression, 'takes a lot of beating' which means 'is hard to improve on'.

7 Because it's got a tender behind.
This is a play on words on two meanings of two words - tender and behind. Tender can mean either susceptible to pain, or a wagon for fuel and water behind a steam locomotive. Behind is normally, of course, a preposition but it can also be an informal noun meaning 'bottom', as in the part of the body that a person sits on.

8 A nervous wreck.
A wreck is a boat or ship that, for example, hits a rock and sinks to the bottom of the sea. A nervous wreck, however, is an expression commonly used to describe someone who is extremely nervous.

Unit 20

2 Owing to the fact that the performance was cancelled, everyone got a refund.
3 The service was terribly slow. Consequently, all the customers got angry.
4 We missed the last bus. As a result we had to walk home.

22.4 1 for 2 of 3 with; of 4 in 5 out of 6 with; to 7 given; to

Unit 23

23.1 Suggested answers:
1 I accept (or more formal: I acknowledge) that you weren’t solely to blame, but you must take some responsibility. (Accept and acknowledge are most suitable here since the speaker is prepared to agree with one aspect but wants to go on to make another point to support his/her case.)
2 Okay, I admit I was wrong, you were right; he is a nice guy. (This seems to be a situation where somebody is accusing someone or trying to get them to say they were wrong. Admit is ideal in this case.)
3 The company acknowledges that you have suffered some delay, but we do not accept liability. (Acknowledge is perhaps best here; it is often used in formal, legalistic situations like this because it simply says ‘We understand your message, but we do not necessarily accept any blame/responsibility’; admit might suggest the company does accept legal responsibility; accept is also possible though less formal.)
4 She accepted / conceded that we had done all we could, but she was still not content. (Concede usually suggests an argument or debate where people might ‘give’ small points to one another while still holding on to their basic position, and would seem to be a likely choice here; concede here suggests she did not really want to say it.)

23.2 Possible answers:
2 The house itself is rather small.
3 Jim: Isn’t the Plaza rather expensive?
4 In most of the rest of Europe, the traffic drives on the right. (Ireland also drives on the left.)
5 I’m not at all hungry, thanks.

23.3 Across      Down
  1 yawning       2 apart
  3 world         4 divide
  5 huge          6 gap
  7 poles

Possible comments using the phrases:
1 There’s a great divide between those who believe in the nuclear deterrent, and those who believe in world disarmament.
2 There’s a huge discrepancy between what she says and what she does.
3 Jim and Sandra are poles apart when it comes to believing in God.
4 There’s a world of difference between being a student and being a teacher.

23.4 Suggested answers:
1 that’s all well and good 3 for all that
2 After all 4 It’s all very well

23.5 1 on the contrary (it’s not true that I’m worried)
2 on the other hand (it is true that it’s expensive)
Unit 24

24.1 Suggested answers:
1 Further to
2 In addition to / As well as / Apart from / Besides etc. / and so on
4 in addition to / as well as / apart from / besides
5 Furthermore / Moreover / Likewise

Comments: In (2) and (4), the choice is quite wide, but, depending on which one she chooses for (2), the writer would probably then choose a different one, to avoid repeating herself, for (4).
In (5), if she wanted to use what’s more, the writer would probably write it in full as what is more, so as not to sound too informal. However, what’s more / what is more can often sound a little abrupt and argumentative (as if you’re trying very hard to convince the reader) and might sound just a bit too strong here.
In (3), etc. is slightly more formal than and so on, and the writer may well wish to avoid sounding too informal.
In (5), furthermore / moreover add her previous experience on to the rest; likewise not only adds the information but suggests it is of quite equal value to the other experience she has mentioned. Equally would not be suitable here, as it is best used when arguing points (trying to convince someone of the equal value of a point added on to other points).

24.2 1 Physical labour can exhaust the body very quickly. Equally, excessive study can rapidly reduce mental powers.
2 My cousin turned up, along with some schoolmates of his.

Unit 38

38.1  1 Drought; if the plants and trees are withered, they are probably dying because they have no water, and since the earth is cracked (hard, with a pattern of deep lines over it), it suggests it is very dry.
      2 Earthquake; a tremor is a trembling movement of the earth. Note how disasters of various kinds can strike, e.g. The hurricane struck the coastline at noon.
      3 A violent storm or wind, a hurricane/typhoon/tornado; if you board up your house you cover the windows and doors with wooden boards to protect them.
      4 War/a battle of some kind; shells and mortars are projectiles which cause explosions when they strike.
      5 Probably a plane crash; people who witness such crashes often describe the explosion as a fire-ball, or ball of fire.
      6 Probably a flood, since if your house is flooded, the natural thing to do is to go to the upper floor(s) or the roof to escape the water.

39.2  1 primary      5 further/higher
      2 nursery      6 evening classes
      3 grammar      7 grant
      4 comprehensive 8 teacher-training college
39.3 1 I'm taking/doing/sitting an exam tomorrow.
2 I hear you passed/did well in your examination.
3 You can study a lot of different subjects / take a lot of different courses at this university.
4 I got some good marks/grades in my continuous assessment this term.
5 She's a teacher in a primary school. (Professors are only in universities and are very senior teachers.)
6 He gave an interesting 45-minute lecture on Goethe. (A conference is a meeting of people with the same interests, usually lasting several days.)
7 She got a diploma in personnel management. (Only universities can give degrees.)

39.4 Possible questions:
1 Do students in your country get a grant?
2 What's the difference between a university and a polytechnic in Britain?
3 What goes on at play-schools and nursery schools?
4 Why did you choose a teacher-training college instead of a university?
5 What's the school-leaving age in Britain now?
6 You look terribly tired. What've you been doing?
7 Do you get marks/credits/points for your exams?
8 Did you skip yesterday's lecture?

39.5 You could look up these things in an encyclopaedia, or else write to your American Embassy and ask them to send you information about education in the USA. Broadly speaking a high school is like a British secondary school, college means further education, a sophomore is a second-year college student and graduate school is where you study for further degrees, e.g. MA/MSc, after graduating for your first degree.

Unit 40

40.1 1 union official 2 executive manager 3 director 4 unskilled worker 5 administrator
6 safety officer (not the security officer – the person who makes sure everything is locked and secure, that there are no burglaries or other crimes, etc.)
7 supervisor 8 labourer 9 personnel officer 10 public relations officer

40.3 Suggested answers:
1 This person's been made redundant.
2 He/She's taken early retirement.
3 This is a person who works shifts / is a shift-worker.
4 She's been promoted.
5 I got the sack (or I was fired; or I was dismissed – more formal).
6 He/She works nine-to-five, or He/She has a nine-to-five job.
7 You're a workaholic.

40.4 1 teacher 2 surgeon 3 secretary/typist/clerk 4 actor/broadcaster/performer of some kind
5 farmer 6 tailor/dressmaker

40.5 1 profession 2 a difficult one; it could be called a trade, but many chefs may prefer to be thought of as 'professionals'
3 trade 4 profession
5 trade 6 trade (though could be called a profession)
7 unskilled job 8 same as 'dressmaker'
9 unskilled job 10 profession

40.6 1 get/have 2 living 3 work 4 offered 5 take...on
Unit 41

41.1 Probable answers:
1 bowls (the bowls have a weight on one side which gives them a bias as they roll)
2 hang-gliding (‘at the top’ = at the top of the hill from which the hang-glider is launched)
3 motor-racing
4 riding (most people get a very sore seat/legs when they first try it)
5 windsurfing (being able to stay upright on the water)
6 snooker/pool/billiards/darts, but could, of course, apply to a number of other sports too (golf, shooting, etc.) (Snooker, pool and billiards are similar games but have different rules.)

41.3 Equipment: 1 arrows 2 shuttlecock 3 ball 4 ball 5 dartboard
Clothing:
1 Archers usually wear special gloves, and probably a cap to shade their eyes.
2 Usually sweat-shirt and shorts or tennis-skirt, with tennis-style shoes, possibly sweat-bands too.
3 Hockey-players usually wear shorts or a short tennis-skirt, but also protective gloves, shin-pads and possibly a safety-helmet.
4 Baseball players often wear caps, plus protective clothing (special gloves, shin-pads, etc.).
5 No special clothes, since the game is usually played informally in pubs and clubs.

41.4 1 broken 2 beaten/defeated 3 win 4 take up 5 holds 6 scored

41.5 1 a long jumper 4 a discus/javelin thrower 7 a footballer or a football player
2 a jockey 5 a gymnast 8 a pole-vaulter
3 a racing driver 6 a hockey player
41.6 1 tennis, squash etc.
2 could be golf (golf-course) or horse-racing (racecourse)
3 usually boxing or wrestling
4 used for football, rugby and cricket
5 ice-skating
6 ten-pin bowling or skittles (a traditional British game similar to ten-pin but with only nine pins)
7 a track where you ski

Unit 42

42.1 Probable answers:
1 Sculpture (The verb stand is often associated with statues; it could also be architecture, if ‘Peace’ is interpreted as the name of a building or huge monument.)
2 Cinema (Animated films are often associated with Walt Disney, e.g. the Mickey Mouse cartoons, but are also a serious art form.)
3 Dance (Movement and rhythm are the clues.)
4 Poetry (Rhyme – having the same sounds at the ends of consecutive lines – is often thought of as a necessary quality of good poetry.)
5 Painting (Oil-based and water-based paints are the two most popular types of paint used by artists.)
6 Architecture (We talk of the design of a building.)
7 Drama texts/plays in written form.
8 Perhaps a novel, but it could be any book divided into chapters, e.g. an academic textbook.
9 A play at the theatre (Plays are divided into acts – major divisions, and scenes – smaller divisions.)
42.2 1 article (The arts relates to all the things in the network on the left-hand page.)
2 no article (the subject in general)
3 article (a particular performance)
4 article (the technique/creative requirements)
5 no article (modern poetry in general – all of it)
6 no article (the speaker is talking about drawing and painting)

42.3 1 What’s the name of the publisher of that book you recommended? Was it Cambridge University Press? (An editorial is an article in a newspaper or magazine giving the opinions of the editor on matters of interest/concern.)
2 ‘I wandered lonely as a cloud’ is my favourite line of English poetry. (A verse is a collection of lines separated from the next verse by a space.)
3 He’s a very famous sculptor: he did that statue in the park, you know, the one with the soldiers. (Sculpture is the name of the art form; sculptor is the person who does it.)
4 Most of the (short) stories in this collection are only five or six pages long. They’re great for reading on short journeys. (A novel is a long work (usually more than 100 pages). Here short story or just story is clearly what the speaker is referring to.)
5 There’s an exhibition of ceramics at the museum next week. (Exposition is only used in very formal academic texts to talk about how an argument is presented. Ceramics as the name of the art form is always plural.)
6 The sets are excellent in that new production of Macbeth, so dark and mysterious. (Scenery is uncountable and refers to natural beauty in the landscape, e.g. ‘There’s some wonderful scenery on the west coast of Ireland’. The attempt to represent a place on a theatre stage is called the set.)
7 What’s on at the Opera House next week? Anything interesting? (When we want to know what events are taking place, what a cinema is showing, etc., we use the question what’s on? We also need a preposition for opera house; in this case, at is the best one.)

42.4 Suitable questions:
1 Was the play a success?
2 Would you like a ticket for the Beethoven tonight?
3 What’s the architecture like in your home-town?
4 Was it a good production?
5 What are they showing at the Arts Cinema at the moment? or What’s on at the cinema?

Follow-up:

43.1 Possible groupings:
Found in salads: cucumber green/red pepper lettuce radish
‘Onion-family’ vegetables: leek shallot garlic onion
Grow underground: potato carrot turnip
Usually long-shaped: aubergine courgette sweetcorn
There are, of course, other possible groups too.
43.2 1 hot, spicy   3 salty   5 sugary, sickly   7 bland, tasteless
2 savoury   4 sour   6 bitter, strong

43.3 starters:  pâté and toast  prawn cocktail  shrimps in garlic main courses:  chicken casserole  Irish stew  rump steak  grilled trout desserts:  coffee gateau  fresh fruit salad  sorbet  chocolate fudge cake

43.4 1 These chips are rather oily/greasy/fatty.   3 This meat is done to a turn.
2 This dish is overcooked.   4 This is just tasteless / very bland.

43.6 1 Fish:  sardines  mackerel  hake  plaice  trout  cod  sole  whiting
   Seafood:  prawns  squid  oysters  mussels  crab  lobster
2 calf – veal  deer – venison  sheep – lamb (young animal), mutton (older animal) pig – pork, ham, bacon

Unit 44

44.1 1 waterfall  4 peninsula  7 volcano  10 gorge
2 cliff  5 estuary  8 straits  11 summit or peak of a mountain
3 glacier  6 tributary  9 geyser  12 chain or mountains

44.2 Brazil is the fifth largest country in the world. In the north the densely forested basin of the River Amazon covers half the country. In the east the country is washed by the Atlantic. The highest mountain chain in South America, the Andes, does not lie in Brazil. Brazil's most famous city is Rio de Janeiro, the former capital. The capital of the Brazil of today is Brasilia.

44.3 1 Mount Kilimanjaro
2 The Volga
3 Venezuela (The Angel Falls)
4 New Zealand
5 A delta is at the mouth of a river where the river divides and flows into the sea in a number of different channels. The River Nile has one.
6 The Straits of Gibraltar are at the western entrance to the Mediterranean and the Cape of Good Hope is at the southern tip of Africa.

44.4 Possible answers:
1 Scotland   5 flatter   9 the Western Highlands
2 country   6 agriculture  10 Ben Nevis
3 the north of Britain  7 Scotland  11 Overfishing
4 mountainous  8 the Clyde  12 Scotland

44.5 1 sandy beach/shore   3 shallow brook/bay   5 turbulent river/sea
2 steep gorge/hill   4 rocky coast/mountain   6 dangerous cliff/current
Some possible answers:

Spray cans destroy the ozone layer.
Organic farming means that fewer chemicals pollute the land – and our bodies.
Unleaded petrol causes less air pollution than leaded petrol.
Recycling paper means that fewer trees need to be cut down.
Using bottle banks means that glass is re-used rather than thrown away. There is, thus, less wastage of resources.

Environmentalists are also in favour of using solar or wind power, of using as little plastic as possible (because it is not bio-degradable) and of planting new trees instead of simply increasing the amount of land given over to agriculture.

Unit 45

45.1
1. Cork is in the south of the Republic of Ireland.
2. It lies on an island between two channels of the River Lee.
3. It has a desperately complex one-way traffic system. Moreover, its buses are terribly crowded.
4. St Anne's Church was built on a site where another church stood previously. That church was destroyed during a siege of the city.
5. In the French Gothic style.
6. Probably not as they do not cater specifically for tourists.
7. The Crawford Gallery is worth visiting because it regularly puts on interesting exhibitions of modern art.
8. Well-off people live in fashionable residential areas overlooking the harbour while others live in suburbs on the edge of the city.

45.2 Some possible answers, based on the city of Cambridge in England:

Cambridge has the second oldest university in England (after Oxford). The main tourist area of the town lies in the town centre, around the university colleges.

King's College Chapel is in the Perpendicular style.

Most of the main hotels in the town are within walking distance of the centre.

The town centre tends to be terribly crowded on Saturdays.

A number of the colleges are built on the site of former monasteries or convents.

Cambridge has been called the intellectual centre of the world. I am not sure whether or not it still merits this description.

There are plenty of sports facilities catering for both young and old.

Those who enjoy boating must not miss the opportunity to go for a punt on the River Cam.

Most of the more picturesque colleges overlook the River Cam.

An interesting new Science Park has been built on the outskirts of the town.

The Fitzwilliam Museum is well worth visiting.

Kettle's Yard regularly mounts quite varied exhibitions.

Railway enthusiasts do not have to travel far from Cambridge to find a working steam railway open to the public.

Everyone who visits Cambridge is sure to appreciate its character.

Some possible answers:
The most picturesque parts of Cambridge are beside the river. Cambridge is one of England's most historic towns.
The town could hardly be called spacious as most of its streets are very narrow. Some of the eighteenth century buildings are particularly elegant.
The most magnificent building in the town, in my opinion, is the Pepys Library.
The town is at its most atmospheric on the day of a student graduation.
Tourists often find Cambridge's narrow lanes very quaint.
Cambridge is very lively at night because so many young people live there.
The city centre is quite hectic at weekends.
When the university is on vacation the town can suddenly seem quite deserted.
Some of the suburbs have become quite run-down in recent years.
The old buildings in Cambridge are generally not allowed to become shabby but are kept in good repair.

Notice how people are compared to animals in sentences 10 and 11. This is quite common.

46.4 The words underlined below are worth learning. You can use them when talking about other animals too.

camel A mammal of the family, Camelidae, (2 species): the Bactrian, from cold deserts in Central Asia and domesticated elsewhere, and the dromedary; eats any vegetation; drinks salt water if necessary; closes slit-like nostrils to exclude sand; humps are stores of energy-rich fats. The two species may interbreed: the offspring has one hump; the males are usually sterile while the females are fertile.
The description of an elephant from the same encyclopaedia is given below. While it is unlikely that you would need or want to write anything quite so technical, look at it carefully and pick out any vocabulary from it that could also be useful for you to learn.

elephant A large mammal of the family, Elephantidae; almost naked grey skin; massive forehead; small eyes; upper incisor teeth form ‘tusks’; snout elongated as a muscular, grasping ‘trunk’; ears large and movable (used to radiate heat). There are two living species. The African elephant is the largest living land animal, with three sub-species. The Asian elephant has four sub-species. The African is larger with larger ears, a triangular tip on the top and bottom of the trunk tip (not just on the top) and obvious tusks in the female.

If you chose to write about another animal, compare your description if possible with one in an English-language encyclopaedia. If not ask a teacher to correct your work.

92.5 Make sure that you note down not only the headline but also a brief indication of what the story was about so that the headline makes sense when you revise your work later.

Unit 93

93.1  1 American; a Brit would write labour.
      2 Brit; an American would write center.
      3 American; a Brit would be much less likely to use a word of this type, probably preferring a phrase like 'taken into hospital'. If s/he did, s/he would probably spell it hospitalised; however, the ending ize instead of ise is becoming much more common in British English these days.
      4 American; a Brit would spell it theatre (and would call it cinema.)
      5 Brit; an American would write favor.
      6 American, writing in an informal context; a Brit would write through.
93.2 The pictures represent for a Brit: for an American:
1 TV aerial TV antenna
2 wardrobe closet
3 lift elevator
4 vest undershirt
5 sweets candy
6 nappy diaper
7 pram baby carriage
8 curtains drapes
9 sellotape Scotch tape
10 lorry truck

93.4 1 I had a puncture. 6 It’s in the boot.
2 Pass me the biscuits. 7 Single or return?
3 It’s in the wardrobe. 8 He left the tap on.
4 Open the curtains. 9 We’re leaving in the autumn.
5 We’ve run out of petrol. 10 I hate standing in a queue.

93.5 1 You’d take the American to the bathroom and the Brit to the kitchen.
2 Cold for the American but hot for the Brit.
3 The Brit, because people do not usually talk about needing to change their underwear although you might well express the desire to change outer clothes.
4 One flight for the American but two for the Brit.
5 An American would be in a bank and a Brit in a café.

93.6 There are many other words you could add. Some might be: US eggplant (GB aubergine); US trashcan (GB rubbish bin); US German Shepherd (dog) (GB Alsatian).

Unit 94

94.1 1 Australia 3 mosquitoes; barbecue 5 afternoon
2 journalist; university 4 business 6 adults/parents

94.2 1 flee 5 the general public

11 a means of transport

96.3
1 You would see this notice in a shop and it lets people know that people who take things from the shop without paying will be taken to court.
2 You would see this in a shop and it lets people know that the staff there speak French as well as English.
3 You would see this at Customs and it lets people know that this is the way to go if they do not have any goods to pay duty on.
4 You would see this in a shop window and it tells people that things are going to be sold off cheaply because the shop wants to get rid of its stock, perhaps because the shop is about to close down.
5 You would see this outside an exhibition or a dance or concert hall perhaps and it lets people know that they need a ticket to get in.
6 You would see this in the window of a hotel or bed and breakfast and it tells people that there are no free rooms there.
You would see this on a river bank and it tells people that fishing is not allowed.

You would see this notice outside a bicycle shop and it tells people that they can either hire or buy bicycles there.

You would see this outside a block of flats and it tells people that one flat is vacant for renting.

You would see this notice at the end of an escalator and it tells people that if they have a dog with them, they must carry it.

You would see this notice on public transport, a bus or an underground train, and it asks passengers to leave these seats for people who are elderly or find it difficult to move easily.

Suggested re-wording:

Now! Eagle Airlines offers even more to the business traveller who needs comfort.

Let us fly you to your destination in first-class comfort, looked after by the best-trained cabin attendants (or cabin staff) in the world. Any business person knows that they must arrive fresh and ready for work no matter how long the journey. With Eagle Diplomat-Class you can do just that. And, what's more, your partner/spouse can travel with you on all intercontinental flights for only 25% of the normal fare! Your secretary can book you on any flights 24 hours a day on 0557-465769. All he or she has to do is lift the phone.

Conductor is marked on the word (-or); conductress used to be common but is less so now
Shepherd is socially marked as male, though shepherdess used to be common also Cheerleader is socially marked as a female role
Typist is socially marked as female
Station master is marked on the word (-er); there never were any 'station mistresses', and nowadays they are called station manager in the UK, regardless of sex
Dressmaker is marked on the word as male, but socially marked as female
General is socially marked as male
Detective is socially marked as male
Monk is linguistically marked as male (female = nun)
Milkman is marked on the word as male; milkwoman is quite common in the UK
Tailor is linguistically and socially marked as male

The Manager
Frintsowe Engineering Ltd
22/11/92

Dear Sir or Madam,
I am aged 22, single, and am seeking employment. I saw your advertisement for part-time workers in The Globe last week. However, your 24-hour answering service seemed to be unstaffed when I tried it. Could you please send me application forms by post? Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Sally Hewings (Ms)

Note: In real life, the first sentence of this letter would be unnecessary. (However, the word 'single' is more neutral than 'spinster'.) Also, if Sally puts (Ms) at the end, she does not have to say she is female; it is obvious.

Note: Flat could be abbreviated to F., though this is not so common. United Kingdom is abbreviated, but Great Britain is not normally abbreviated in addresses. Ms is unusual in that English words do not normally like to have a stressed /a/ vowel. For this reason, many people say /maz/.

Unit 99

99.1 1 an irresistible urge to collect things
2 a house constructed solely from natural materials
3 a female of limited intelligence but high sex appeal
4 a specially bred miniaturised form of vegetable
5 an indoor version of American football
6 a hypothetical miniaturised device capable of making its way through bodily passages and performing various tasks

These words can be classified as follows, relating to the sections on the left-hand page:
1 collectomania (F) 3 bimbo (D) 5 arenaball (C)
2 bio-house (D) 4 mini-vegetable (B) 6 microbot (B)

99.2 1 ozone-/eco-friendly
2 Gorbymania
3 singlehood
4 monoboarding (or snow-surfing)
5 teleworking
6 cardboard city
7 couch potato
8 sound-bites
There are many possible answers to this question and it is, of course hard to predict which words will stand the test of time. I would suggest faxable, teleworking and singlehood as they express concepts that are already useful and are likely to remain so, whereas vogueing and Gorbymania are likely to go out-of-date quickly.

8. babies born at a time when the birth-rate was particularly high

Unit 100

‘Well, where shall I start? It was last summer and we were just sitting in the garden, sort of doing nothing much. Anyway, I looked up and...see we have this kind of long wall at the end of the garden, and it’s...like...a motorway for cats, for instance, that big fat black one you saw, well, that one considers it has a right of way over our vegetable patch, so...where was I? Yes, I was looking at that wall, you know, day-dreaming as usual, and all of a sudden there was this new cat I’d never seen before, or rather, it wasn’t an ordinary cat at all...I mean, you’ll never believe what it was...’

Comments:
Where/How shall I start/begin? This is a very common marker at the beginning of a story or monologue while the speaker is composing his/her thoughts.
Anyway is probably the most common marker in spoken story-telling to divide up the story into its different stages (introduction/main plot/resolution, etc.)
See is often used in informal talk instead of you see, when someone is clarifying or explaining something.
Like is often used when the speaker hesitates, or to make something less precise, a little more vague.
Where was I? is used when we want to come back to the main subject we were talking about after an interruption or diversion into another point or topic.
Yes is often used when we resume what we were talking about; it does not have to be an answer to a question from someone. No is also used in exactly the same way and could have been used here instead of yes.
Or rather is used when you change to a different word or a better/more accurate way of saying what you want to say.
I mean is used when you want to explain something or expand or illustrate what you are saying.
This extract is typical of the number of markers found in everyday informal talk. The speaker is not a ‘lazy’ or ‘bad’ speaker; everyone uses markers, even if they are not conscious of it or do not want to admit it! Informal conversation without markers sounds rather odd and strained, and a little too formal.
Possible answers:

1 A: Are you a football fan?
   B: Well, I like it; I wouldn’t say I was a fan.
2 A: I’ll take care of these.
   B: Right, that’s everything.
   A: Fine, so see you next week.
   B: Good. That was a very useful meeting.
3 A: It was last Monday I was coming home from work. I saw this ragged old man approaching me. Anyway, I stopped him...
   B: Jim Dibble!
   A: Hang on! Let me tell you what happened first.
4 A: Which number is yours?
   B: Let me see... it’s that one here, yes, this one.
5 A: He’s looking exhausted.
   B: Yes, he is.
   A: Mind you, he has an awful lot of responsibility, so it’s hardly surprising.
6 A: What do you mean ‘cold’?
   B: Well, she’s not friendly, very distant, so to speak. Last week I gave her a jolly smile and she... like... scowled at me, the way you smile at people,
   A: Well what do you expect? Look, I’ve seen the way you smile at people it sort of puts them off.

Follow-up:

If it is difficult or impossible for you to get hold of tape-recordings of natural conversation, you can find transcripts in D. Crystal and D. Davy’s Advanced Conversational English (London: Longman, 1975), where you will find a wide range of markers in actual use.

English Vocabulary in Use is a vocabulary book for upper-intermediate and advanced learners of English, primarily designed as a self-study reference and practice book, but which can also be used for classroom work.

English Vocabulary in Use
- 100 easy-to-use units: vocabulary items are presented and explained on left-hand pages with a variety of follow-up activities on right-hand pages.
- Presents and explains new words and shows students how to use them and how to work out rules for using them.
- Helps to build on and expand existing vocabulary.
- Suggests tips and techniques for good learning habits.
- Gives ideas for follow-up tasks.
- Designed to be flexible: can be used both for self-study and in class.
- Provides a comprehensive key with not only answers to the exercises but also more comments on how the language is used.
- Includes a detailed index with phonetic transcription.
